2013 REBEL FOOTBALL

In his debut season as head coach, Hugh Freeze led the Rebels to a bowl game appearance and a dramatic turnaround in wins, scoring and team attitude.

Ole Miss started the season 3-1 with convincing wins over Central Arkansas, UTEP and Tulane.

Donte Moncrief had a monster season with a school record-tying 10 TD catches. Chants of "Feed Moncrief" could be heard throughout Rebel Nation.

The Rebels trounced Auburn 41-20 to end a 16-game SEC skid. It was the most points scored by Ole Miss against the Tigers since 1992.

Bo Wallace led a resurgent Rebel offense that improved in nearly every category from 2011. Wallace won the 2012 C Spire Conerly Trophy as the state's top player.

Ole Miss reclaimed the Golden Egg trophy with a dominating 41-24 win over Mississippi State, which also made the Rebels bowl eligible.

Ole Miss kept its winning bowl tradition alive by knocking off Pitt 38-17 in the BBVA Compass Bowl. The Rebels now rank 10th in the nation with 22 bowl victories and 19th with 34 bowl appearances all-time.

FOOTBALL 2013

"MY FIRST GAME AT WHAT WAS THEN HEMINGWAY STADIUM WAS IN 1960 WHEN OLE MISS PLAYED LSU, AND I HAD NEVER BEEN MORE EXCITED THAN I WAS THAT DAY. OF COURSE, THE STADIUM IS MUCH LARGER AND MORE IMPRESSIVE NOW THAN WHEN I PLAYED. I LOVE THE ON-CAMPUS EXPERIENCE AT OLE MISS, STARTING WITH THE GROVE, THE TEAM TAKING THE SHORT WALK TO THE STADIUM AND THE OVERALL ATMOSPHERE OF GAMEDAY."

- ARCHIE MANNING

Legendary Ole Miss Coach John Vaught led the Rebels to 15 consecutive bowl appearances.

STRONG LEADERSHIP

HUGH FREEZE

Head Coach

- Led Ole Miss to seven wins and a BBVA Compass Bowl victory in his first year
- Sixth head coach in Ole Miss history to direct the Rebels to a bowl appearance in his first season at the helm
- Directed a recruiting effort that saw Ole Miss jump into the national spotlight with a consensus top-10 rated 2013 signing class - the best in school history
- Led Arkansas State to the 2011 Sun Belt Conference Championship and earned Sun Belt Coach of the Year honors

TOM ALLEN

Special Teams Coordinator/Linebackers

- A 21-year coaching veteran who has posted a 191-49 record for a .796 winning percentage over the last 19 years at the high school and collegiate level
- Coached Denzel Nkemdiche to All-SEC and Freshman All-America honors last year
- Helped kicker Bryson Rose lead the SEC in scoring in conference play

MAURICE HARRIS

Recruiting Coordinator For Offense/Tight Ends

- Helped Ole Miss land a consensus top-10 signing class in 2013, ranked as high as No. 2 by 247Sports
- Tabbed one of the top 50 recruiters in the nation by 247Sports
- Coached two all-conference tight ends at Arkansas State

GRANT HEARD

Wide Receivers

- Coached Donte Moncrief to a monster sophomore year that saw him tie the school record for TD catches in a season (10) and gain 979 yards on 66 receptions
- A former Rebel wide receiver who helped lead Ole Miss to four bowl games and graduated as the Rebels' all-time leader in career receptions and touchdowns

CHRIS KIFFIN

Recruiting Coordinator For Defense/Defensive Line

- Tabbed the 2013 National Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com
- Helped Ole Miss land a consensus top-10 signing class in 2013

- Has 17 years of experience as a defensive coordinator including stops at Georgia Tech, Arkansas, Southern Miss and UNLV

REBELS IN THE SPOTLIGHT

“The word F-A-M-I-L-Y is a big part of our program. The ‘F’ stands for faith in one another. We have to care more about the guy sitting next to us if we are going to be successful. ‘A’ stands for attitude. We have to define who we are to ourselves and not pay attention to how others define us. ‘M’ is for mental toughness. We will change the lives of young men and make them mentally tough for all that life has to throw at them. ‘I’ is for integrity. We have to tell each other the truth. The ‘L’ is my favorite. It stands for the love we have to have. We are going to love one another. ‘Y’ is for you. It is for everyone who loves this place.”

REBEL FAMILY

“When Patrick left home to attend Ole Miss, we had the comfort of knowing that he would be cared for as part of his new family. That was never more evident than when Patrick lost his brother. His Ole Miss family was there to provide the support he needed at his lowest point. At Ole Miss, family is not just a word. It is real.”

- CHRIS AND JULIE FINLEY

Patrick Willis' parents

“My brothers are my teammates, and my teammates are my brothers. We are all young men that see one goal, and out of love we will give it all up for each other!”

- DENZEL NKEMDICHE

If I could do it over, I would choose (Ole Miss) again 100 times.

- Eli Manning

REBEL PRIDE

"I will always be indebted to Ole Miss. The University and the Ole Miss family have provided me opportunities and experiences beyond my expectations. It was an honor and pleasure to represent this University - on and off the field. Most importantly, the lessons I learned in preparation, perseverance and execution are the tools that have directly contributed to my successes as an attorney. Thank you, Ole Miss, for allowing me to be a part of something special."

- JESSE MITCHELL

Attorney in Jackson, Miss.

"My time at Ole Miss from 1997 through 2000 greatly prepared me for the military career I have now. The family experience and wealth of knowledge gained on and off the football field continue to shape the way I approach missions daily. What I learned and experienced with my brothers at Ole Miss has helped me keep myself and my soldiers alive through the toughest of times."

- MAJOR SHELDON MORRIS

U.S. Army, HHT/6-9 CAV Troop Commander

Former Ole Miss student-athletes can be found across the country, and even the world, proving successful in many areas of business, education, athletics, medicine, law, and the list goes on. Those who have donned the Red and Blue for the gridiron Rebels include former University of Mississippi Chancellor Dr. Robert C. Khayat; former NCIS special agent James Reed; renowned Johns Hopkins professor and physician Alan Partin; former NFL star, national spokesman and football analyst Archie Manning; and many others, some of whom may be lesser known, but no less important in their communities and workplaces.

LANDSHARK

At Ole Miss, “Landshark” is a term adopted by the Rebel football team’s defensive unit. As part of that identity, defensive players will celebrate big plays by putting a hand to their forehead in the shape of a shark fin. A battle cry of “fins up” also contributes to the players’ persona.

With the popularity of both the players and the “Landshark” celebration, Ole Miss student-athletes from other sports have performed the hand gesture as a tribute to their fellow Rebels on the football team. One example is men’s basketball player Marshall Henderson, who is friends with several members of the football team.

Roots of the “Landshark” at Ole Miss date back to 2008. After four straight losing seasons, the Rebel football team returned to national prominence with a 9-4 record and a victory over 7th-ranked Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl. Leading the charge was a defensive squad that ranked fourth in the nation in rushing defense and included All-Americans Peria Jerry and Greg Hardy and eventual All-SEC standout Jerrell Powe.

The term “Landshark” originated that season from senior linebacker Tony Fein, an Army veteran who served a one-year tour in the Iraq War before arriving in Oxford. A two-year letterman after transferring from Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College, Fein was the 2008 recipient of the Pat Tillman Award by the Military Order of the Purple Heart. Fein passed away in October 2009, but his legacy at Ole Miss continues through the “Landshark.”

TONY FEIN

CHUCKY MULLINS COURAGE AWARD

Roy Lee "Chucky" Mullins was born on July 8, 1969, in Russellville, Ala. After his mother's death when he was in the seventh grade, and at his request, Chucky was placed under the guardianship of Carver and Karen Phillips.

Chucky graduated from Russellville High School in 1988. He earned All-Conference, All-Area and All-State honors in football as a junior and senior. He was team captain and most valuable player on his high school team. He also earned three letters in football, basketball and baseball.

Because of his athletic and leadership abilities, Chucky was awarded a four-year scholarship to Ole Miss, and he arrived on campus in the summer of 1988. He was redshirted in 1988 but later saw action as a "nickel" defensive back for the Rebels and was rapidly emerging as a defensive force in the Southeastern Conference.

Tragically, his injury on Oct. 28, 1989, in the Homecoming game against Vanderbilt ended his football career and left him paralyzed. He was treated at Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis until February 1990, when he was transferred to Spain Rehabilitation Center in Birmingham.

Chucky's battle with his physical disability and his undefeatable spirit changed the University of Mississippi. For months after the tragic accident, Chucky endured the grueling challenges of rehabilitation. During the

"It's a great honor to be a part of this tradition. Not many people get the chance to do it and it comes with a lot of responsibility. It will make me try to go harder and make sure that I do all the little things right."

2013 Mullins Award Winner Mike Marry

difficult time, Chucky's gritty determination and positive spirit touched the lives of literally hundreds of people. More than a million dollars was raised for the Chucky Mullins Trust Fund. He was visited in the hospital and later at home by such stars as Walter Payton, Janet Jackson and President George Bush. Chucky's accident and his unbroken spirit transcended football. The people of Mississippi, the South and the entire United States rallied around this remarkable young man.

When Chucky returned to Oxford in August 1990 to begin living in the specially-equipped house built by the Trust Fund donations, he announced a determination to return to Ole Miss and pursue a degree. Against all odds, in January of 1991, he did return to the classroom. However, on May 1, 1991, as he prepared for class, he suddenly stopped breathing. Rushed to the hospital, he never regained consciousness and died five days later from complications resulting from a blood clot.

While Chucky did not have a long life, it was a particularly special one. His teammates and coaches said Chucky was a teacher. He taught others how to live their lives to the fullest and how to maintain their focus on the truly important aspects of a precious life. In the state of Mississippi, Chucky Mullins will be forever young and never forgotten.

In the spring of 1990, the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity at Ole Miss initiated the Chucky Mullins Courage Award to be given each spring to an outstanding defensive player, who is chosen by the Rebel coaching staff in conjunction with the Chucky Mullins Courage Award Banquet Committee, which is comprised of representatives from the athletics department, university staff, Oxford community and Phi Beta Sigma. Recipients are presented the award at the Chucky Mullins Courage Award ceremony, with the proceeds from the event going to a scholarship endowment created to help Ole Miss students who have a physical handicap and those who have exceptional financial need.

Each award recipient receives a framed Mullins jersey and has the honor of wearing Mullins' No. 38 on the field the following season. In 2006, the number was officially retired, joining Archie Manning's No. 18 as the only retired numbers in the Rebels' storied football history. A 38 patch, rather than the jersey number, was worn from 2006 until 2010. The decision was made in March 2011 for the jersey to remain retired and be worn only by the Chucky Mullins Courage Award winner each year.

THE GROVE

Regarded as one of the world's top sporting traditions, tailgating on football Saturdays at Ole Miss is one of those activities that every sports fan should take the opportunity to indulge in at some point in their life. Ten acres of lush green grass, watched over by majestic oak trees in the middle of the Ole Miss campus, are transformed from a tranquil picnic spot into tailgating paradise when thousands of football fans crowd into every corner of the land. Weaving through the myriad of red and blue tents, one is bound to encounter a few of the most extravagant set-ups in all of tailgating - fine china, chandeliers, big-screen satellite TVs. Of course, many tents are a bit simpler, but the unique atmosphere still encourages sundresses and high heels for the ladies and coats and ties for the men. Food and drink are abundant. "Hotty Toddy" can always be heard chanted among the trees. Champions walk through it. There is nowhere else like it. It is ... The Grove.

VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM

HOLLINGSWORTH FIELD

See pages 192-195 for the history of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium and information on all Ole Miss facilities.

Oxford becomes the second-largest city in the state of Mississippi on football gamedays in the fall.

Vaught-Hemingway Stadium's mega-sized video scoreboard is among the largest true High Definition displays of any college football stadium in the country.

Rebel fans continually pack Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, as Ole Miss averaged more than 57,000 fans per game last season. Ole Miss has topped the 60,000 mark in attendance 18 times in the last 11 years, including three times in 2012.

FORWARD TOGETHER CAMPAIGN

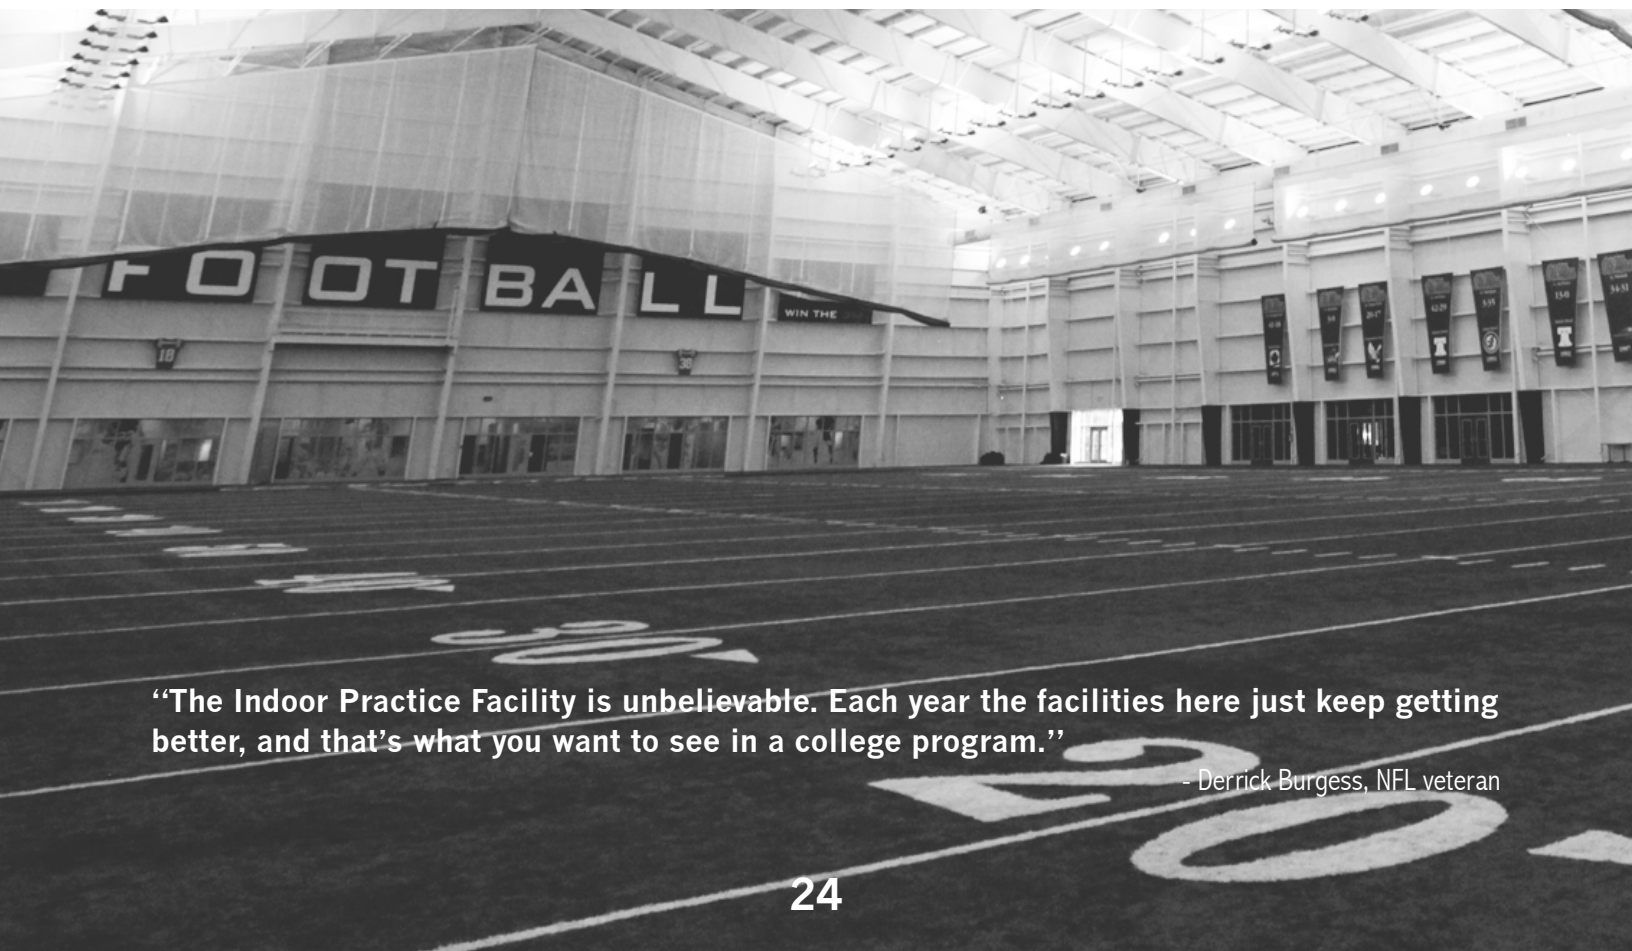

As demand for seating in Vaught-Hemingway Stadium grows, so too does the need to expand the north endzone. The proposed expansion will feature additional club seats and suites as well as a north endzone plaza that will offer the perfect place to gather with family and friends to enjoy the sights, sounds and pageantry of Ole Miss Football. Not only will bowling in the north endzone provide more symmetry and continuity throughout, it will also serve to enhance the gameday atmosphere for coaches, student-athletes and fans. The proposed expansion will create an impressive “Front Door” to the stadium and transform Vaught-Hemingway into a premier college football venue.

Visit ForwardTogetherRebels.com for more information on the campaign.

THE FACILITIES

“The Indoor Practice Facility is unbelievable. Each year the facilities here just keep getting better, and that’s what you want to see in a college program.”

- Derrick Burgess, NFL veteran

Built in 2004, the majestic 150,000-square-foot Indoor Practice Facility is the Rebels' home for weight training, practice, study and relaxation. Extensive renovations are underway to further enhance this top-notch facility.

See page 193 for more information on the IPF.

PRO DAY 2013

NFL Scouts flock to the IPF to see all the Ole Miss pro prospects work out and perform drills each spring. Ten Rebels have been selected in the NFL Draft the last five years, while 27 more have signed rookie free agent contracts.

SEC COMPETITION

- The SEC has won seven consecutive national championships, nine of 14 BCS National Championships and 23 overall national titles (AP, BCS, FWAA, coaches poll).

- Four different SEC schools have won the BCS National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009, 2011, 2012; Florida, 2006 and 2008; LSU, 2007). Tennessee (1998) and LSU (2004) have also won the BCS crown.

- The SEC led the nation for the seventh-straight year with 63 selections in the 2013 NFL Draft, a modern day record.

- Since 2002, the SEC leads all conferences with 93 first-round NFL Draft selections, including five players from Ole Miss (Eli Manning, Chris Spencer, Patrick Willis, Michael Oher, Peria Jerry)

- Since 1992, the SEC leads all conferences with 57 selections to the Allstate AFCA Good Works Teams®, followed by the Big 12 with 41 and the ACC with 31.

- The SEC led all leagues in total attendance for the 32nd straight year with more than 7.5 million fans in 2012, while stadiums were filled to 96.2 percent of capacity.

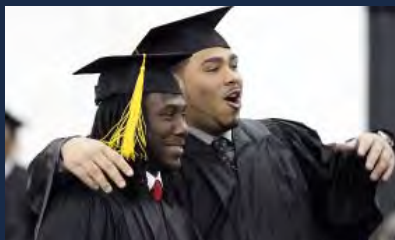

ACADEMIC EXCELLENCE

Ole Miss student-athletes not only have the opportunity to play in one of the best conferences in the nation, they also attend a university that is world-renowned for its academics. Under Derek Cowherd, the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Academic Support, the Office of Student-Athlete Academic Support has made great strides in improving the environment for Ole Miss student-athletes. Numerous full-time academic counselors, learning specialists and tutors assist Cowherd, and the $5 million FedEx Academic Support Center, completed in May 2007, provides the perfect environment for learning.

Last year, Ole Miss Football had more than its share of student-athletes named to the school's various academic honor rolls, while placing 26 total players on Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Rolls. With Ole Miss athletics taking its place among the best in the nation, the Student-Athlete Academic Support staff hopes that Ole Miss graduates of today have a great impact in the future of tomorrow.

OXFORD, MISSISSIPPI

Oxford's thriving music scene has recently welcomed such acts as Snoop Dogg, Willie Nelson, B.B. King, Zac Brown Band, Three 6 Mafia and Wilco. Artists that have recorded at local Sweet Tea Studios include the Counting Crows, Gavin DeGraw, Ben Folds, the Hives, Jars of Clay and Modest Mouse. Oxford's Lyric was recently named one of the top 100 music club venues in the world by Pollstar, the leading concert industry trade publication.

Celebrities such as Samuel L. Jackson and Faith Hill regularly visit Oxford for charity events and performances.

The people of Oxford offer tremendous support to the Ole Miss athletics teams, and the Rebel student-athletes return that support by being actively involved in both the Oxford and University communities. Among the worthwhile activities that Ole Miss student-athletes regularly participate in as part of the Rebel Ready program are assisting with reading programs at local schools such as "Reading with the Rebels," visiting patients in area hospitals, being mentors to elementary school students, visiting senior adults at local retirement centers, holding several "Meet the Rebels" days throughout the year, and giving numerous talks on subjects such as drug awareness and staying in school to area students.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

"The Rebel readers do a great job. Our boys and girls really look up to the athletes."

HUGH FREEZE

A Mississippi native, inspirational leader and one of the nation's top rising coaches, Hugh Freeze was the first choice to return championships to Ole Miss Football and was introduced as the Rebels' 37th head coach on Dec. 5, 2011.

He certainly is off to a good start.

Inheriting a team that won just two games in 2011 and had lost 14 straight Southeastern Conference games, Freeze led Ole Miss to seven wins in 2012, including three SEC victories, and the team's first bowl berth since 2009.

A month after the Rebels capped the season with a 38-17 win over Pittsburgh in the BBVA Compass Bowl, Ole Miss was the talk of National Signing Day when Freeze and Co., landed a consensus top-10 class that was ranked as high as No. 2 by 247Sports and No. 5 by ESPN - the highest recorded signing class rankings in school history.

Freeze is the sixth head coach in program history to direct his team to a bowl appearance in his first season. The Rebels' seven wins could have been even more had they not lost three tight SEC games (Texas A&M, Vanderbilt, at LSU) by a combined 10 points.

The Rebel offense saw a dramatic turnaround under Freeze in 2012. With many of the same players, he took a team that had ranked at or near the bottom of the SEC in every statistical category in 2011 to rank top five in the league and top 50 in the nation in scoring, total offense and passing.

The 2012 Rebels soared up the school record books and cracked the top four single-season totals in scoring, total offense and passing.

Under Freeze's watch, sophomore quarterback

Bo Wallace and sophomore receiver Donte Moncrief posted some of the best numbers in school history. Wallace became the only Ole Miss quarterback not named Eli Manning to eclipse 3,000 total yards in a season, while Moncrief's 10 receiving touchdowns tied for the school's single-season record and his 979 receiving yards were the second-most in a season in school history.

Freeze has led a resurgence in team attitude and effort that extends to the defensive side of the ball, as well. An undersized but feisty Rebel defense finished first among SEC teams and fourth nationally in tackles for loss (7.9/game) and second in the SEC and 11th nationally in sacks (2.9/game).

Freeze, a noted speaker and recruiter throughout his career, has enjoyed success at nearly every coaching level over the past 18 years, from high school to NAIA to FBS, and each stop has featured a high-scoring offense and the ability to motivate young people. Before returning to Oxford this year, the former Ole Miss assistant experienced a record-setting run at Arkansas State.

With Freeze as head coach in 2011, the Red Wolves captured the Sun Belt Conference championship and became just the third school in Sun Belt history to finish undefeated in league play with a perfect 8-0 mark. The 10-2 overall record marked the program's first 10-win season since 1986, when ASU was a member of the I-AA Southland Conference.

In the best debut season ever by an Arkansas State head coach, Freeze became just the 14th FBS first-year head coach to win 10 regular season games. He also returned ASU to a bowl game for the first time since 2005.

Freeze was named Sun Belt Coach of the Year, while 13 of his pupils earned all-conference honors, including both the Offensive Player of the Year in junior quarterback Ryan Aplin and the Defensive Player of the Year in senior lineman Brandon Joiner.

While dominating the Sun Belt statistical categories, the Red Wolves finished the season ranked top 25 in the nation in total offense (24th), total defense (24th), passing offense (16th), rushing defense (13th), pass efficiency defense (21st), scoring defense (25th), tackles for loss (eighth) and sacks (15th). They were also one of only two teams in the NCAA to lead their conference in both total offense and defense.

Freeze's high-octane offense saw Aplin shatter the school record for career pass completions. He established new single-season standards for total offense and passing yards per game while ranking No. 10 in the nation in total offense. Wide receiver Dwayne Frampton broke the Red Wolves' single-season record for receptions and ranked 13th nationally.

The Freeze defense also impressed in 2011 led by Joiner, who tied for third in the NCAA in sacks and 10th in TFLs. Senior DB Darryl Feemster registered six interceptions and tied for 14th in the nation in that category.

Freeze's first season in Jonesboro saw him serve as Arkansas State's offensive coordinator, guiding the Red Wolves' offense to a record-breaking year in 2010.

He made an immediate impact on ASU's program, leading the offense to a No. 43 national ranking in total offense one year after the Red Wolves finished toward the bottom of the NCAA FBS rankings at No. 95. In just their first year under Freeze's up-tempo offense, the Red Wolves broke nine offensive school records that included 4,841 yards of total offense, which ranked No. 2 in the Sun Belt Conference.

ASU, ranked 42nd in the nation in scoring offense, finished the season averaging 30 points a game and recorded at least 20 points in 11 consecutive games for the first time in school history. Freeze's offense scored 46 touchdowns for the fourth-most in school history and the most since the 1975 season.

In addition to working as ASU's offensive coordinator, Freeze was also the quarterbacks coach for the Red Wolves. Under Freeze's direction, Aplin exploded onto the scene in 2010 to emerge as a Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year candidate as a sophomore. Aplin not only broke the ASU records for total offense, passing yards, passing touchdowns and completions, he posted numbers that rank among the top 10 in Sun Belt history in the same categories.

Prior to his arrival at Arkansas State, Freeze compiled a 20-5 record over the 2008 and 2009 seasons at the helm of the Lambuth University football program.

Freeze was named the American Football Coaches Association's Southeast Region Coach of the Year in 2009 after leading the Eagles to their best regular season in school history with an 11-0 record. Under Freeze's direction, Lambuth won the Mid-South Conference West Division, advanced to the second round of the NAIA playoffs for the first time since 1999, finished the year with a 12-1 mark and ascended to the No. 6 ranking in NAIA.

The Mid-South Conference Coach of the Year oversaw the offense and called the plays for a Lambuth team that averaged more than 40 points per game and ranked ninth nationally in total yards per game (465 ypg). The Eagles also ranked first in the nation in fourth-down conversions, fourth in first downs per game and third-down conversions, fifth in passing offense and eighth in scoring offense per game.

Prior to taking over as head coach at Lambuth, Freeze served on the Ole Miss staff from 2005-07, including the final two seasons as an assistant coach. He originally arrived in Oxford as Assistant Athletics Director for External Affairs before being named the Rebels' recruiting coordinator and tight ends coach before the 2006 season.

In his first year as recruiting coordinator, he helped bring in the nation's ninth-ranked recruiting class, the highest recorded rank in the history of the program at that time. Ole Miss' 2007 signing class was tabbed 25th nationally, and he was responsible for nine commitments in the 2008 signing class.

While maintaining his duties as recruiting coordinator, he moved to wide receivers coach in 2007 and tutored current NFL star Mike Wallace to a top-10 SEC finish in receiving yards. Freeze also coached Shay Hodge, who later became Ole Miss' first 1,000-yard receiver, and Dexter McCluster, who went on to become the first player in SEC history with 1,000 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season.

Before going to Ole Miss, Freeze served 13 years at Briarcrest Christian School in Memphis, Tenn., as a classroom teacher, coach and administrator. He was the Saints' head football coach from 1995 to 2004, running the no-huddle "spread system" for six years that led to six straight state championship games.

Freeze compiled a 99-23 record, which included an undefeated season in 1996 while at Briarcrest and led the school to state championship titles in 2002 and 2004. Briarcrest won regional titles in 1995, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2001 and 2002, and Freeze was named the Region 8-AA Coach of the Year five times and Associated Press Coach of the Year four times.

Among his talented pupils during that period were eventual Rebels and current NFL starters Michael Oher and Greg Hardy.

FREEZE'S HIGH-POWERED OFFENSE

Freeze served as the offensive coordinator in 2010 in his first season at Arkansas State and was the head coach in 2011. During that time, the team's offensive stats exploded for more first downs and yardage in both passing and rushing. With the addition of Freeze, Arkansas State saw the team climb in the NCAA stats as well. His first year at Ole Miss proved to be no different, as the Rebels' offensive stats skyrocketed.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT COACH FREEZE

NFL QB (1971-84), TWO-TIME PRO BOWLER

OLE MISS (1968-70), TWO-TIME ALL-AMERICAN

"Coach Freeze impressed me immediately with his energy, passion, excitement and very detailed plan to build a championship program at Ole Miss. His leadership and integrity, his approach to recruiting and his understanding and love of Ole Miss set him apart from other candidates. He has been very successful and earned great respect everywhere he has been, and it's clear that he is a rising star in the head coaching fraternity."

MICHAEL OHER

BALTIMORE RAVENS (2009-PRESENT)

OLE MISS (2005-08), 2008 ALL-AMERICAN

"Coach Freeze knows the game inside-out. His track record speaks for itself. He's been successful everywhere he's been. Players will love him. He's a player's coach, but he's going to be hard on you, because he wants to get the best out of you.

As he's being hard on you, you're going to learn to love him, because you know he wants the best for you. Offensively, he has the mind of a genius. I'm looking for Ole Miss to be in the top half of the conference, if not the nation, in points per game."

BRUCE FELDMAN

COLUMNIST/COMMENTATOR, CBS SPORTS

"When I talk to people who are unfamiliar with Hugh Freeze, the first thing that I bring out is that he is probably the best speaker I've ever been around. That's no hyperbole. If you get a chance to see Hugh Freeze give a speech to a team or a group, it will really make an impression on you. He will get people's attention.

I think he's a good recruiter because he's committed to it. He knows the area. He went to Southern Miss, coached in Memphis, coached at Ole Miss as an assistant and even being at Arkansas State, which is not that far away. He knows what Ole Miss has to offer. He knows the pulse of that region, and I think that's important."

2012 COMMENTS

NICK SABAN

TOM ALLEN

ASSISTANT COACH | LINEBACKERS

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR | 2ND SEASON

Tom Allen, a 21-year coaching veteran at both the collegiate and high school levels, is in his second season at Ole Miss as linebackers coach and special teams coordinator.

Allen helped guide kicker Bryson Rose to two SEC Special Teams Player of the Week awards and rank as the SEC's top scorer during league play (8.5 points per game) in 2012. He also helped freshman Jaylen Walton rank fourth in the SEC and 33rd in the nation in kickoff return average (24.7 ypr).

As linebackers coach, Allen assisted defensive coordinator Dave Wommack in a much-improved Rebel defense. After ranking last in the SEC in total defense in 2011 (419.3 ypg), Ole Miss improved to seventh in 2012 (375.8 ypg). The Rebels finished first in the SEC and fourth nationally in tackles for loss (7.9/game) and second in the SEC and 11th nationally in sacks (2.9/game).

Under Allen's tutelage, redshirt-freshman Denzel Nkemdiche broke onto the scene by leading Ole Miss in tackles (82), TFLs (13.0), forced fumbles (4) and interceptions (3) and was a first team Freshman All-American and second team AP All-SEC selection.

Over the last 19 years of his coaching career, the teams Allen has coached have posted a combined 191-49 record for a .796 winning percentage. That record covers stops at seven different schools in Florida, Tennessee, Indiana, Iowa and Mississippi, and six of those schools had a losing record the season prior to Allen's arrival.

In 2011 with the Arkansas State Red Wolves, Allen assisted a defense that led the Sun Belt Conference in total defense (331.46 ypg), scoring defense (20.77 ppg) and ranked in the top 25 in the NCAA in both categories. Arkansas State also led the league and ranked eighth in the nation in tackles for loss (7.62 pg) and tied for 15th in the NCAA in QB sacks (2.69 pg).

Allen coached first-team all-conference selection Demario Davis and second-team pick Nathan Herrold in 2011. Davis was drafted in the third round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the New York Jets.

Allen came to ASU after spending the 2010 season as the defensive coordinator and linebacker coach at Drake, where he led the Bulldogs to an NCAA FCS No. 36 national ranking in total defense. Under his direction, Drake allowed just 330 yards per game while also ranking No. 6 nationally in rush defense (94.2 ypg), No. 8 in sacks (33), No. 17 in tackles for loss (81), No. 25 in scoring defense (20.4 ppg) and No. 28 in red zone defense. While at Drake, Allen mentored seven All-Pioneer Football League players, one All-America selection and the PFL Defensive Player of the Year.

The New Castle, Ind., native had equally impressive results as Lambuth's assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in 2008 and 2009 while the program was under the leadership of Hugh Freeze. He was part of two Mid-South Conference championships, and Lambuth's 2009 squad produced the school's first undefeated regular season (11-0). Nationally, his 2009 defense ranked No. 4 in scoring defense, No. 7 in pass defense and sacks, No. 9 in total defense and No. 12 in third down conversions.

While at Lambuth, Allen mentored eight first team all-conference players, one NAIA All-America selection and a Mid-South Conference Freshman of the Year.

Allen made a stop at Wabash (Ind.) College as its secondary coach and special teams coordinator in 2007, helping the team win the NCAC championship and advance to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division III playoffs. He coached three defensive backs that were named to the All-NCAC Team and tutored Wabash's First Team All-NCAC punter.

Prior to joining the college coaching ranks, Allen served as the head football coach at Ben Davis (Indianapolis) High School from 2004-06 and was also the head coach at Temple Heights (Tampa) High School from 1992-94. In between his time at Temple Heights and his elevation to head coach at Ben Davis, Allen was defensive coordinator and linebacker coach at Armwood (Sefner, Fla.) High School from 1995-96 and held the same positions at Marion (Ind.) High School in 1997 and at Ben Davis from 1998-2003.

He led Ben Davis to the 2004 and 2006 IHSAA Sectional 6 championship as head coach and was part of three state championships as the school's defensive coordinator and linebacker coach.

Allen's only year at Marion saw his defense rank No. 1 in the conference in scoring and run defense, helping the team post an undefeated season and a final ranking of No. 7 in the Indiana state poll.

The Armwood defense allowed just 7.3 points per game during Allen's final year at the school, which qualified for the state playoffs for the first time in school history in 1996 and posted an 8-2 record in 1995.

Allen began his coaching career at Temple Heights, where as head coach he led it to the state playoffs for the first time in 18 years in 1994. He was named a 1994 "Coach of the Year" finalist in Hillsborough County, which was home to 22 high schools.

A 1988 graduate of New Castle High School, Allen earned his bachelor's degree from Maranatha Baptist College in 1992 before going on to earn his master's degree from Indiana University.

Allen and his wife, Tracy, have three children, Hannah, Thomas and Brittney.

MAURICE HARRIS

ASSISTANT COACH | TIGHT ENDS

RECRUITING COORDINATOR FOR OFFENSE | 2ND SEASON

His efforts on the recruiting trail helped Ole Miss land a consensus top-10 signing class in 2013, ranked as high as No. 2 by 247Sports. Harris was tabbed one of the top 50 recruiters in the nation by that media outlet.

In 2011, Harris was part of an Arkansas State offense that led the Sun Belt conference in total offense (447.85 ypg) and scoring (32.46 ppg). His tight ends unit also helped an A-State rushing attack that ranked second in the conference in yards (154.23 ypg).

During his time in Jonesboro, Harris coached All-Sun Belt Conference selections David Johnson, who was also drafted by the NFL's Pittsburgh Steelers, and J.T. Jordan. Harris also helped develop Kedric Murry into a starting tight end for the Red Wolves as just a redshirt freshman in 2009, and Trevor Gillott ranked third on the team in receptions and set individual career-best marks last season under his watch.

Murry continued to develop under Harris, recording career-high numbers for both receptions and touchdowns as a sophomore in 2010. Harris also mentored Jeff Blake as he made the move from fullback to tight end for his senior season last year. Blake became a big factor in ASU's blocking attack that helped ASU post a school-record 4,481 yards.

During Harris' first two seasons, the tight ends were responsible for 90 receptions for 1,166 yards and 12 touchdowns.

His 2009 tight ends corps helped lead the way for 21 rushing touchdowns, the third-most in the Sun Belt Conference, and paved the way for three different ASU players rushing for more than 100 yards in at least one game. The tight ends were a big part of ASU's line that helped the offense to its most yards of total offense (484) against an FBS opponent since the 2007 season.

The tight ends were also heavily involved in the ASU running game that ranked No. 18 in the nation and No. 2 in the Sun Belt Conference in 2008.

Harris returned to his alma mater as tight ends coach after serving as Alabama State's offensive coordinator and running backs coach during the 2007 season.

Harris worked with Alabama State head coach Reggie Barlow to design the overall offensive game plan and calling plays. Harris helped the offense improve its total yards and points from the previous season and coached the Southwestern Athletic Conference's leading rusher and MVP in Jay Peck.

Prior to his return to Alabama State, where he also served as the running backs coach and recruiting coordinator from 2004-05, Harris spent the 2006 season at Ole Miss.

During his first stint at Alabama State, Harris helped lead the football team to a 10-2 record in 2004 and the SWAC championship. In addition to his duties as a position coach, Harris was responsible for organizing and planning the Hornets' recruiting strategy.

Harris was a four-year letterman at Arkansas State, including the 1996 season when he recorded a team-high 100 tackles from his safety position. After earning his bachelor's degree from ASU in 1998, he went to Whitehaven High School in Memphis, Tenn., as an assistant coach.

Harris headed Whitehaven's offense, which was tops in the area, and improved its yardage by more than 100 yards per game from the previous season. He was promoted to head coach at Whitehaven two years later and was named West Tennessee Coach of the Year in 2001 after leading his team to the city and region championships in 2001.

He followed the 2001 campaign with another city title in 2002 and was named assistant coach in two all-star games. He was named head coach for the Liberty Bowl High School All-Star Game in Tennessee.

During his three seasons as head coach at Whitehaven, Harris posted a 23-12 record and had 32 players sign scholarships to play college football.

Harris and his wife, LaQuesha, have three children, Arami, Cortlynn and Godson DeVonte'.

GRANT HEARD

ASSISTANT COACH | WIDE RECEIVERS
2ND SEASON

A familiar name was added to Hugh Freeze's first Ole Miss staff on January 9, 2012, when Grant Heard was announced as wide receivers coach.

A former Rebel player and graduate assistant, Heard is at his fourth stop with Freeze, having served as his quarterbacks coach and passing-game coordinator at Arkansas State, offensive coordinator at Lambuth and graduate assistant at Ole Miss.

- In first year under Heard, sophomore Donte Moncrief tied the school record for touchdown receptions in a season (10).
- In 2011 at ASU, Heard's passing attack ranked 16th in the nation, and the Red Wolves were 24th in total offense en route to a Sun Belt championship.
- Earned his bachelor's degree from Ole Miss in 2001.
- Signed by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2002 and sent to play in NFL Europe. In 2001, Heard appeared in several preseason games for the San Francisco 49ers.
- He and his wife, Renata, have one son, Jayden.

With many of the same faces at receiver as in 2011, Heard helped turn the Rebel offense around from the previous season, improving the team's passing average from 173.3 yards per game in 2011 to 249.9 in 2012. That is the fourth-best passing average in a season in school history.

Heard also helped turn sophomore wide receiver Donte Moncrief into a superstar, as he averaged 75.3 yards per game (fifth-best in the SEC) with 10 touchdowns, tying the school record for TD catches in a season.

Heard helped Arkansas State to a record-breaking year in 2011 led by his star pupil, Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year, Ryan Aplin. The junior quarterback established school single-season records for total offense and passing yards per game while ranking No. 10 in the nation in total offense.

Heard's passing attack ranked 16th in the nation, and the Red Wolves were 24th in total offense en route to a Sun Belt championship and an appearance in the GoDaddy.com Bowl.

A 12-year coaching veteran, Heard spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons as the offensive coordinator at Lambuth. During the 2008 campaign, the Eagles offense accumulated 5,861 yards while becoming the No. 1 offense in NAIA. Lambuth finished third in the nation in scoring offense and fourth in passing efficiency.

A wide receiver during his collegiate career (1996-2000), Heard helped lead Ole Miss to four bowl games and graduated as the Rebels' all-time leader in career receptions and touchdowns. He earned his bachelor's degree in 2001.

Following his college days, Heard was signed by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2002 and sent to play in NFL Europe. In 2001, Heard appeared in several preseason games for the San Francisco 49ers.

Heard began his coaching career as the quarterbacks, wide receivers and special teams coach at Jackson (Miss.) Preparatory High School in 2002 before moving on to Hargrave Military Academy where he coached wide receivers and helped them to an 8-1 record in 2003. He joined the college ranks in 2004 as offensive graduate assistant at N.C. State.

Heard returned to Ole Miss as offensive graduate assistant in 2005-06, when he assisted in coaching the receivers and tight ends. He tutored future NFL players Mike Wallace, Shay Hodge, Marshay Green, Mike Espy and Taye Biddle.

Heard spent the 2007 season with Western Michigan coaching the Broncos' wide receivers. He mentored First Team All-MAC honoree Jamarko Simmons, the 15th-ranked receiver in the nation, and the receiving corps gained over 3,000 yards and scored 23 touchdowns.

Heard is married to the former Renata Nowacki, who was a four-year letterwinner on the Ole Miss volleyball team (1997-2000), and the couple has one son, Jayden. Heard's brother Ronnie was also a standout for the Rebel football team and currently serves as Associate Director of Development for the Ole Miss Athletics Foundation.

JASON JONES

ASSISTANT COACH | CORNERBACKS
CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR | 1ST SEASON

Perrish Cox (2009) and Brodrick Brown (2011). Cox was a first team All-American in 2009, as well.

With Jones serving as position coach, Cox led the nation in passes defended per game in 2009 and Brown ranked third in the same category in 2011. As a team, OSU led the nation with 44 turnovers forced in 2011 and was fifth with 34 in 2010.

As a unit, the Oklahoma State defense was among the nation's most opportunistic from 2009-12, as the Cowboys forced 130 turnovers to rank second nationally in that span.

Jones came to Stillwater from Tulsa, where he served as cornerbacks coach and special teams coordinator in 2007. He helped the Golden Hurricane to a 10-4 record, an appearance in the Conference USA championship game, and a 63-7 win over Bowling Green in the 2008 GMAC Bowl.

Success has followed Jones at each of his coaching stops. In 2006, Jones served as the cornerbacks coach at Rice University, helping the Owls to their first bowl trip in 45 years as the Owls competed in the R+L Carriers New Orleans Bowl.

In his first stint at Tulsa, Jones coached cornerbacks and helped the Golden Hurricane to a Conference USA championship and an appearance in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. With Jones leading the Tulsa secondary in 2005, the Hurricane defense ranked third nationally in takeaways (36) and interceptions (22) and was 11th nationally in pass efficiency defense and 17th in pass defense. Jones' cornerbacks totaled 13 of those interceptions and had 29 passes defended.

His first coaching job came as a graduate assistant at Alabama, where he helped his alma mater to an appearance in the Music City Bowl.

Born Nov. 13, 1977, Jones is a 2001 graduate of the University of Alabama with a degree in financial planning. He was a two-year starter at defensive back for the Crimson Tide and was part of three bowl teams, an SEC West championship in 1996 and SEC championship in 1999.

Jones earned a master's degree from Alabama in sports management in 2005. He and his wife Kysha have three children, Andrew, Jace and Jarah.

CHRIS KIFFIN

ASSISTANT COACH | DEFENSIVE LINE

RECRUITING COORDINATOR FOR DEFENSE | 2ND SEASON

Joining the Rebel staff on Dec. 8, 2011, Chris Kiffin is in his second season as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for defense under Hugh Freeze.

Kiffin has paid immediate dividends on the recruiting trail. He was tabbed the 2013 National Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com after helping Ole Miss land a consensus top-10 signing class that ranked as high as No. 2 by 247Sports. He was also tabbed one of the nation's top 50 recruiters by 247Sports.

Kiffin helped coach a much-improved Rebel front line in his first year in Oxford. His unit helped Ole Miss rank first in the SEC and fourth nationally in tackles for loss (7.9/game) and second in the SEC and 11th nationally in sacks (2.9/game). Those numbers were dramatic improvements over 4.75 TFLs and 1.08 sacks per game in 2011.

Under Kiffin, sophomore defensive end C.J. Johnson saw tremendous improvement from his rookie campaign as he recorded 6.5 sacks, tied for eighth-most in the SEC, versus just one sack in 2011. Nose tackle Issac Gross was named first team Freshman All-America and SEC All-Freshman after he tallied 10.0 TFLs (second-most by an SEC freshman behind teammate Denzel Nkemdiche) and 2.5 sacks.

Kiffin spent the previous season as Arkansas State's defensive line coach.

The younger brother of Southern Cal head coach Lane Kiffin and son of coaching legend Monte Kiffin, he helped coach an ASU defense that led the Sun Belt Conference in total defense (331.46 ypg), scoring defense (20.77 ppg) and ranked in the top 25 in the NCAA in both categories. Arkansas State also led the league and ranked eighth in the nation in tackles for loss (7.62 pg) and tied for 15th in the NCAA in QB sacks (2.69 pg).

In 2011, Kiffin mentored Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year Brandon Joiner, who tied for third in the nation in sacks and 10th in TFLs. He also coached Dorvus Woods to second team all-conference honors.

Kiffin joined the A-State coaching staff after serving as an administrative assistant for the USC defense in 2010. The Trojans finished the year 8-5 with a 28-14 victory over UCLA in Rose Bowl stadium.

Prior to joining the staff at USC, Kiffin was in charge of offensive quality control at Nebraska from Feb. 2008 through Feb. 2010. During his two seasons at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers compiled a 20-8 record and played in two bowl games, including a 33-0 victory over Arizona in the 2009 Holiday Bowl.

Before Nebraska, Kiffin was a quality control intern with the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2006. During his time with the Bucs, Kiffin gained experience working with the defensive line during off-season OTAs and mini-camps.

A four-year football letterman as a defensive tackle at Colorado State from 2000-05 under then-head coach Sonny Lubick, Kiffin earned his bachelor's degree from the school in 2005. Following his time at Colorado State, he was a student assistant at Idaho during the 2005 and 2006 campaigns.

Chris and his wife, Angela, have two daughters, Grace and Taylor.

MATT LUKE

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH | OFFENSIVE LINE
CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR | 6TH SEASON

Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze added a familiar name to his Rebel football staff with the announcement of Matt Luke as offensive line coach on December 12, 2011. Luke also serves as co-offensive coordinator.

In his first season under Freeze, Luke helped Ole Miss improve in almost all offensive categories from the 2011 season, including total yards per game (281.3 in 2011 to 423.8 in 2012) and points per game (16.1 in 2011 to 31.5 in 2012). Luke developed an inexperienced offensive line into a unit that could hold its own in the SEC, as the Rebels ranked fifth in the league in rushing (173.9 ypg), up from 10th the previous year (129.6 ypg).

Luke oversaw junior running back Jeff Scott rush for 846 yards and six touchdowns and sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace pile up more than 3,000 yards of total offense with 22 passing touchdowns and eight rushing scores.

A former Rebel player and assistant coach, Luke spent the previous four seasons as Duke's offensive coordinator while coaching the offensive line. His line ranked among the ACC's top five in fewest sacks allowed throughout his tenure, including finishing third in 2009 and 2010.

Luke's 2010 offensive front helped Duke to its highest yards per game average since 1989 as Sean Renfree became the fourth quarterback in school history to throw for 3,000 or more yards in a single season. Nearly doubling its rushing totals from the previous year, the Blue Devil run game produced 19 touchdowns -- Duke's highest total since 1995 -- and the squad repeated that total again in 2011.

Behind All-ACC quarterback Thaddeus Lewis in 2009, Duke led the conference and finished ninth nationally in passing offense, while Lewis and wide receiver Donovan Varner ranked first in the ACC in total offense and pass receptions, respectfully.

Under Luke's guidance, both guard Dave Harding and tackle Perry Simmons received Freshman All-America honors in 2010. In 2009, guard Brian Moore was a Freshman All-ACC selection by Sporting News.

Luke came to Duke following two seasons at Tennessee where he served as recruiting coordinator while coaching the tight ends and assisting with the offensive line. During his two-year stay (2006-07) in Knoxville, the Volunteers went 19-8 with an SEC Eastern Division championship and two appearances in the Outback Bowl.

In 2007, Tennessee tight end Chris Brown caught 41 passes for 282 yards and six touchdowns while fellow end Brad Cottam's 31-yard touchdown reception proved to be the difference in the Vols' 21-17 win over Wisconsin in the Outback Bowl.

On the recruiting front, Tennessee's 2007 class was rated third-best nationally by Rivals.com and fourth-best in the country by Scout.com.

A native of Gulfport, Miss., Luke lettered four seasons (1995-98) as a center at Ole Miss. A starter in 33 career games for the Rebels, he served as team captain in 1998 as Ole Miss posted a 7-5 ledger and defeated Texas Tech in the Independence Bowl. He was named the 1998 Ole Miss Most Valuable Senior by the Jackson (Miss.) Touchdown Club and twice earned Academic All-SEC honors.

Following his playing career, he served as a student assistant coach at Ole Miss in 1999, helping the Rebels to an 8-4 mark with regular season wins against Auburn, South Carolina, LSU and Arkansas as well as a 27-25 triumph over Oklahoma in the Independence Bowl. He graduated in May 2000 with a degree in business administration.

Luke then spent two years (2000-01) coaching the offensive line at Murray State before returning to his alma mater to guide the Rebel tight ends and offensive line for four seasons (2002-05). Ole Miss won two bowl games during that stretch, defeating Nebraska in the Independence Bowl to close the 2002 season and upending Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl a year later to cap a 10-3 campaign that included a share of the SEC Western Division championship.

Luke is married to the former Ashley Grantham of Oxford, Miss., and the couple has two sons, Harrison and Cooper. His father, Tommy, was a defensive back at Ole Miss in the 1960s while his brother, Tom, quarterbacked the Rebels from 1989-91. Tom is now the Ole Miss assistant AD for player development.

DERRICK NIX

ASSISTANT COACH | RUNNING BACKS

6TH SEASON

Derrick Nix is in his sixth year as Ole Miss' running backs coach and second as a member of Hugh Freeze's staff.

In his time in Oxford, Nix has tutored two of the most productive backs in school history, while the Rebels have ranked top three in the SEC in rushing twice.

In 2012, he helped junior Jeff Scott, who finished the season with career-best totals of 846 yards and six touchdowns, develop into more of a feature back while the Rebel run game increased its average by 40 yards from 2011 to 2012. The Rebels finished fifth in the SEC with 173.8 rushing yards per game.

Nix also helped with Randall Mackey's transition from quarterback to running back, where as a senior Mackey ran for 325 yards and four touchdowns while also lining up at slot receiver.

The Nix backfield stable helped Ole Miss register the third-best ground game in the SEC in 2010 (207.58 ypg), while Brandon Bolden ranked No. 5 in the league in rushing (976 yards). A Nix pupil for the duration of his career, Bolden finished second in school history in both total touchdowns (33) and rushing TDs (27), third in all-purpose yards (3,681) and fourth in rushing yards (2,604).

In 2009, Dexter McCluster became the first player in SEC history with 1,000 rushing yards (1,169) and 500 receiving yards (520) in the same season. The first team All-American recorded the second-highest rushing total in school history and went on to be drafted in the second round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

In his first season with the Rebels in 2008, Nix helped construct a running attack that ranked second in the SEC. Using a balanced attack, the Rebels featured three rushers that piled up at least 500 rushing yards in McCluster (655), Cordera Eason (647) and Bolden (542). McCluster was also named a second team All-SEC selection as an all-purpose player.

Before arriving in Oxford, Nix spent 2007 in the NFL as offensive assistant and quality control coach for the Atlanta Falcons.

Nix, one of the best-known players to ever wear a Southern Miss uniform, began his four-year stint on the Golden Eagles sidelines as a defensive graduate assistant in 2003. The following year, Nix was promoted to tight ends coach before being appointed to the running backs coaching position, where he spent two years.

In 2006 under Nix's direction, the Southern Miss running backs ran for 2,378 yards and scored 23 touchdowns, the first time the Golden Eagles ran for over 2,000 yards since 1987. True freshman Damion Fletcher, who earned first team All-Conference USA honors and Freshman All-American honors, ran for 1,388 yards and scored 11 touchdowns, the second-most yards in a season in school history. Fletcher set the freshman rushing record at Southern Miss and for Conference USA, and he was also named a finalist for the Conerly Trophy, signifying the top player in the state of Mississippi.

In 2005, Nix got career-best years from youthful players Larry Thomas and Cody Hull. Thomas posted three 100-yard rushing performances, while Hull started the final two games of the year and recorded his first 100-yard rushing outing in the New Orleans Bowl with 161 yards on 37 carries, setting the Bowl record and the Southern Miss all-time bowl record. Hull's 37 carries tied for the fourth most in school history, matching Nix's own 37-carry performance against Nevada in 1998.

As the Golden Eagles' tight ends coach in 2004, Nix's crew, used primarily as blockers in the offensive scheme, was successful.

A three-time all-conference selection, Nix was a record-setting running back throughout his Southern Miss playing days and was named to the USM "Team of the Century." He recently became one of only five players in the history of the football program to become a member of the Southern Miss Legends Club.

Nix was the first Golden Eagle ever to rush for 1,000 yards in each of his freshman and sophomore campaigns and the only Southern Miss and C-USA player ever to rush for 1,000 yards or more in three seasons. His career achievements at Southern Miss also included being the C-USA Freshman of the Year and a first team Freshman All-American in 1998.

A sprained ankle, along with a kidney problem, forced Nix to sit out a year and a half, before returning for a successful senior season in 2002, which earned him an invitation to the Senior Bowl. After successful kidney transplant surgery in June 2003, Nix began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for the Golden Eagles.

The Attalla, Ala., native was born February 22, 1980 and is a 2002 Southern Miss graduate with a bachelor's degree in sports administration. Nix is married to the former Allison Story of Frankfort, Ky., who also attended USM and played forward on the women's basketball team.

DAN WERNER

ASSISTANT COACH | QUARTERBACKS

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR | 4TH SEASON

Dan Werner, a highly successful veteran offensive mind, is in his second season as head coach Hugh Freeze's co-offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach after being hired on January 13, 2012.

This marks Werner's second term at Ole Miss, having worked alongside Freeze on the Rebels' offensive staff in 2006 and 2007.

In 2012, Werner helped turn around a Rebel offense that ranked at or near the bottom of the SEC in every statistical category in 2011 to rank top five in the SEC and top 50 in the nation in scoring, total offense and passing.

Sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace excelled in his first year under the tutelage of Werner. Wallace, the 2012 C Spire Conerly Trophy winner, ranked fifth in the SEC in total offense (260.3 ypg), fourth in points responsible for (14.3/game) and fifth in passing (230.3 ypg). Wallace joined Eli Manning as just the second player in program history to eclipse 3,000 total yards of offense in a season, finishing the year with 3,384. Wallace's favorite target, sophomore receiver Donte Moncrief, racked up 979 receiving yards and a school record-tying 10 touchdowns.

In his first stint in Oxford, Werner's offense fueled BenJarvus Green-Ellis to a record-breaking two-year run. The future NFL running back became only the second player in school history to reach the 1,000-yard single-season mark twice, and he ended his tenure No. 5 on the Rebels' career rushing list.

As quarterbacks coach, Werner developed Seth Adams from a walk-on to the SEC's seventh-ranked passer with 1,979 yards in 2007. That season also saw future NFL receivers Mike Wallace and Shay Hodge each haul in six TD passes, while Dexter McCluster and Marshay Green were key offensive weapons.

Werner boasts 29 years of coaching experience, including a total of eight years in two terms at the University of Miami when he tutored outstanding quarterbacks and directed some of the best offenses in college football.

Werner helped Miami to eight bowls, four national championship games and three national titles during his combined tenure. He also played an integral part in the development of several of the Hurricanes' greatest QBs, including 2001 Maxwell Award winner Ken Dorsey, 1992 Heisman Trophy winner Gino Torretta and Heisman candidates Steve Walsh and Craig Erickson.

The Miami passing game flourished under Werner's guidance. In 2001 and 2002, Dorsey posted totals impressive enough to place high in voting for the Heisman Trophy both years. In 2004, he tutored Brock Berlin to a resurgence, as Berlin moved into the Miami record book with single-season rankings of ninth in passing yards, seventh in touchdown passes and 10th in total offense.

Over his last five seasons (2001-05) at Miami, Hurricanes quarterbacks threw for more than 14,500 yards and 114 touchdowns under Werner, giving balance to an offensive philosophy predicated on equality between the run and the pass. The 2005 Canes finished 9-3 and ranked third in the Atlantic Coast Conference in scoring offense (27.1) and pass efficiency (133.6).

Werner's second stint in Coral Gables was preceded by a spectacular 2000 season as offensive coordinator at Murray State. He built the Racers offense into one of the most potent on the FCS level, as the team ranked 11th nationally in total offense (452 yards per game) and 13th nationally in passing yardage (276 yards per game).

Prior to his lone season at Murray State, Werner was an offensive consultant to Auburn head coach Tommy Tuberville during the 1999 season. Before the job at Auburn, Werner was an assistant coach at James Madison University for four seasons from 1995-98. He began his tenure at JMU as assistant head coach/quarterback coach/passing game coordinator in 1995. In 1997 he was promoted to offensive coordinator/assistant head coach. From 1991-94 Werner coached at Louisiana Tech, where he was an assistant coach in charge of running backs and inside receivers. In 1993 he was promoted to offensive coordinator/quarterback coach.

Werner joined the coaching staff at UNLV in the spring of 1990. At UNLV, he was an assistant coach in charge of quarterbacks. In the fall of 1990, Werner left the college game for one season to serve as offensive line coach at Miami's Southridge High School.

As a graduate assistant at Miami during the 1987-88 seasons, Werner worked with UM quarterbacks Steve Walsh, Craig Erickson and Gino Torretta during an era in which the Hurricanes went 23-1 and won the 1987 national championship. In 1989, he was a volunteer assistant coach working with the wide receivers on another Miami national championship team.

Werner began his college coaching career in 1986 as an assistant at Cornell University. Prior to going to Cornell, Werner coached five seasons on the high school level.

He began his coaching career as a college student, offering his services to local schools around Western Michigan University: Dowagiac Junior High, Portage Central High School and Kalamazoo Christian High School. His first full-time job came in 1983 at Tarpon Springs High School as the junior varsity defensive coordinator. In 1984-85, Werner was the offensive coordinator at Countryside High School in Clearwater, Fla.

Between his Ole Miss terms, Werner returned to the high school ranks for three years. Following the passing of his wife Kim in February 2009, Werner chose to keep his two young children, Maya and Ian, close to their Oxford home. Thus, he left the offensive coordinator post at Northwestern State after just one month to accept the head coaching position at North Delta in nearby Batesville. From 2009-11, he led the Green Wave to back-to-back district championships with a 27-7 record, including an 11-1 district mark.

Werner graduated from Western Michigan University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in education in 1983. He attended Parkway Central High School.

Dave Wommack, who has more than 30 years of coaching experience at the collegiate level, has coached teams to 19 bowl games and been a part of 29 winning seasons, as he serves in his second season as Ole Miss' associate head coach for defense/defensive coordinator.

After ranking last in the SEC in total defense in 2011 (419.3 ypg), Ole Miss improved to seventh (375.9 ypg) under Wommack's watch.

Following a 38-17 BBVA Compass Bowl win over Pitt, the Rebels finished the year first in the SEC and fourth nationally in tackles for loss (7.9/game) and second in the SEC and 11th nationally in sacks (2.9/game), dramatic improvements from 2011 (4.75 TFLs and 1.08 sacks per game).

Wommack, a native of Kimberling City, Mo., has spent 13 years as a secondary coach and also serves as the Rebels' safeties coach. The 1999, 2000 and 2011 Broyles Award nominee has coached on nine teams that won a conference championship and also participated in trips to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs in 1989 and 1990. He boasts 17 years of experience as a defensive coordinator, also holding the position at Georgia Tech, Arkansas, Southern Miss, UNLV, Missouri State and Bemidji State.

In 2011, Wommack led an Arkansas State defense that led the Sun Belt Conference in total defense (331.46 ypg) and scoring defense (20.77 ppg) and ranked in the top 25 in the NCAA in both categories. Arkansas State also led the league and ranked eighth in the nation in tackles for loss (7.62 pg) and tied for 15th in QB sacks (2.69 pg).

He also helped coach four defensive players to first team All-Sun Belt conference honors and three more players to second team all-conference honors, including Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Year Brandon Joiner.

Before going to Arkansas State, Wommack spent the 2008 and 2009 seasons as defensive coordinator at Georgia Tech, helping lead the Yellow Jackets to the 2009 ACC championship and a trip to the Orange Bowl. Georgia Tech's defense was ranked No. 28 in the nation his first year at the school when the Yellow Jackets were ACC Coastal Division co-champions and appeared in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. He coached three defensive players that went on to play in the NFL, including defensive back Morgan Burnett, defensive end Derrick Morgan and defensive lineman Michael Johnson.

Wommack spent two different stints at Southern Mississippi, the last in 2007 as linebackers coach when the Golden Eagles ranked first in scoring defense and second in total defense in Conference USA and played in the PapaJohns.com Bowl. He also coached future NFL player Gerald McGrath in 2007.

His first stop in Hattiesburg covered the 1994-2000 seasons, leading a Southern Miss defense that ranked among the top eight in the nation his final two years as defensive coordinator. While he was defensive coordinator for both the 1999 and 2000 seasons, he was also elevated to assistant head coach in 2000. The Golden Eagles ranked eighth in the nation in total defense in 1999 and won the Liberty Bowl. The 2000 squad won the GMAC Bowl while ranking second in the nation in total defense. He coached the Conference USA Defensive Player of the Year both seasons, Cedric Scott in 2000 and Adalius Thomas in 1999.

He was the Golden Eagles defensive backs coach from 1994-98, tutoring five future NFL players that were among a secondary that consistently ranked in the top 20 in the nation. The Golden Eagles ranked first in the nation in turnovers gained in 1994 and fourth in 1995. The 1996 team ranked first in Conference USA in turnovers and the 1997 team ranked first in the league in scoring defense, total defense and pass defense. The 1998 squad ranked 18th in the nation in total defense and 22nd in scoring defense.

Following his initial seven years at Southern Miss, Wommack spent 2001-04 at Arkansas before joining the South Carolina staff for the 2005 and 2006 seasons. His first year with the Razorbacks, Wommack was the defensive backs coach before being elevated to defensive coordinator his final three seasons at the school. He was a part of three bowl teams at Arkansas that competed in the Cotton Bowl, Independence Bowl and Music City Bowl. The 2002 team won the SEC West division.

During his time as Arkansas' defensive coordinator, the Razorbacks led the SEC in turnovers (2002 and 2003) and ranked second in the SEC in rushing defense (2002) and third in sacks (2002) and red zone defense (2002). The 2003 squad also ranked 21st in the nation in pass defense and 36th in total defense. He coached three NFL players, including Caleb Miller, Ken Hamblin and Ahmad Carroll.

Wommack coached defensive backs and outside linebackers for two years (2005-06) at South Carolina before returning to Southern Miss for the 2007 season. During his time with the Gamecocks, Wommack helped coach a defense ranked 22nd in the nation in pass defense and seventh in pass efficiency defense. He coached several All-SEC players at South Carolina, including the conference's top tackler among defensive backs in Ko Simpson.

Wommack coached at UNLV from 1992-93, serving as the Rebels defensive coordinator. During his time at UNLV, the Rebels enjoyed their first winning season in seven years and he coached six all-conference defensive players.

Prior to making the jump to NCAA Division I-A, Wommack was the defensive coordinator at Missouri State from 1986-91. In six seasons there, he coached five all-conference and two All-America linebackers, and the Bears defense ranked among the top 10 in the nation in 1989 and 1990.

Wommack, a graduate assistant coach at Arkansas from 1979-82 and Missouri from 1983-84, began his professional coaching career as the defensive coordinator at Bemidji State in 1985 and coached a defense that ranked third in the NCAA Division-II.

Wommack earned his bachelor's degree from Missouri Southern State College in 1978 before going on to earn his master's degree from the University of Arkansas. Dave and his wife, Leslie, have two children, son Kane and daughter Hayley. Kane is a graduate assistant with the Rebel football team.

BEN AIGAMAUA
GRADUATE
OFFENSE

Ben Aigamaua is in his second year as an offensive graduate assistant, assisting with the offensive line.

Aigamaua came to Ole Miss from Arkansas Tech, where he served as an offensive graduate assistant from July 2011 to May 2012. He served as a defensive graduate assistant at Lambuth from January 2010 to June 2011. While at Lambuth, Aigamaua also served as the assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Aigamaua played football at Lambuth from August 2006 to November 2009 where he was the starting defensive tackle all four years and served as a team captain from 2007-09. He also earned All Mid-South Conference honors in 2006 and 2007.

Aigamaua earned his bachelor's degree from Lambuth in sports management with a minor in business management in May 2010 and is currently pursuing a master's at Ole Miss in journalism and news media.

He has spent time volunteering at numerous football camps and is a member of the American Football Coaches Association and the Polynesians Coaches Association.

TRAY SCOTT
GRADUATE
DEFENSE

Tray Scott is in his second year as a graduate assistant for defense, assisting with the defensive line.

Prior to coming to Ole Miss, Scott served as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Arkansas Tech University, from the fall of 2008 to the spring of 2010, helping with the defensive tackles.

Scott also spent time as a defensive graduate assistant with Hugh Freeze at Arkansas State from the spring of 2010 until January of 2011.

Scott, a native of Crossett, Ark., played football at Arkansas Tech from 2003-07. He earned his bachelor's degree in May 2008 with a degree in sociology and a minor in psychology. He received his master's degree from Arkansas Tech University in May 2010 with a degree in college student personnel.

RYAN TREVATHAN
GRADUATE
OFFENSE

Ryan Trevathan is in his second year as an offensive graduate assistant at Ole Miss, assisting with the tight ends.

Trevathan graduated from Jonesboro High School and went on to attend Arkansas State, where he graduated with a degree in physical education in December 2011.

He spent three years (August 2007 to December 2011) as a student assistant at Arkansas State, including the 2011

Sun Belt Championship season and GoDaddy.com bowl appearance.

Trevathan, a native of Jonesboro, Ark., and his wife, Morgan, have one son, Kaden (5). He is pursuing a master's degree in higher education.

KANE WOMMACK

Kane Wommack is in his second year as a defensive graduate assistant at Ole Miss, assisting with the safeties.

He came to Ole Miss from Jacksonville State in Jacksonville, Ala., where he helped with the defensive line from January 2011 to December 2011. Prior to that, Wommack was a quarterbacks coach at Tennessee-Martin from July 2010 to January 2011. He has also spent time at Southern Miss as a volunteer and student coach.

Wommack played fullback at Arkansas from 2005-06 as the team went on to win the SEC Western Division in 2006. He later played tight end and fullback at Southern Miss from 2007-09 as the team made three consecutive bowl game appearances.

Wommack earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Southern Miss in December 2009. He graduated from Fayetteville High School in Fayetteville, Ark., in 2005.

The son of Ole Miss defensive coordinator Dave Wommack, Kane and his wife, Melissa, were married on June 4, 2011.

JOHN MILLER
ASSISTANT A.D.

Hugh Freeze added great experience to his Rebel support staff with the addition of John Miller as Assistant Athletics Director for Football Operations in January 2012.

Miller came to Ole Miss after 12 years at Southern Miss, including the final seven as operations director. Prior to that, he worked as an assistant with the recruiting department and also spent time assisting with the defensive backs.

While overseeing the day-to-day operations of the USM football office, Miller worked with academics, bowl preparation, camps, game-day operations, on-campus recruiting weekends, practice and event scheduling and team travel. He also assisted with all areas of fundraising within the football program and served as Southern Miss' liaison with NFL Scouts and oversaw the player timing days.

The Golden Eagles received a bowl invitation in all but one of Miller's seasons in Hattiesburg, including each of the final 10 years. The 2011 squad finished top-20 in the national polls and captured the C-USA Championship.

Before entering the football profession, Miller was in the United States Army, where he worked in the criminal investigation division. He received two Army Commendations, a National Defense Award for Desert Storm and a Cold War Era Award for Desert Storm.

After serving for four years in the Army, Miller worked as an assistant coach at Clinton High School under David Bradberry.

A 1999 graduate of Southern Miss, Miller is the son of Walter and Mary Miller of Clinton. He has two sons, Jonathon and Josh.

BARNEY FARRAR
ASSISTANT A.D.
FOR HIGH SCHOOL AND JUNIOR COLLEGE RELATIONS

In his second stint with the Rebel football staff, Barney Farrar was named Ole Miss' Assistant Athletics Director for High School and Junior College Relations on December 12, 2011.

Farrar spent the 2011 campaign as the head of Southern Miss' player development program and led USM's charge in building and maintaining relationships at the high school level.

Farrar moved into that role after three seasons as the tight ends coach for the Golden Eagles. In his second year, Farrar fought cancer and was able to return to 100 percent.

He was also named by Rivals.com as one of the top "Non-Big Six" Recruiters of the Year for the class of 2010 and was one of only four C-USA coaches selected.

Farrar's tight ends were instrumental to the success of USM's passing attack in each of the three years he mentored the group as they were the top targets year after year.

Prior to coming to the Golden Eagles, Farrar had stops at Iowa State, Rice, Clemson and Ole Miss, where he served as Assistant A.D. for External Affairs in 2006.

The native of Kossuth, Miss., played his collegiate football at Northeast (Miss.) Junior College and at Delta State. As a Statesman, Farrar helped DSU accumulate a 12-8 record in 1981 and 1982 while also serving as a team captain his senior season.

He earned a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1983 and a master's degree in physical education in 1985, both from DSU.

Farrar has a son, Clint, and a daughter, Cari.

COREY BATOON
ASSISTANT A.D.
FOR RECRUITING

Corey Batoon joined Hugh Freeze's first Ole Miss staff as Assistant Athletics Director for Player Development in February 2012 and was shifted to Assistant A.D. for Recruiting Operations in May 2013.

Batoon arrived in Oxford after three seasons as an assistant coach at Arkansas State, where he coached cornerbacks, safeties and special teams during his tenure. Serving under Freeze in 2011, Batoon tutored cornerbacks Darryl Feemster and Darron Edwards to All-Sun Belt conference honors, as A-State led the league in total defense (331.46 ypg) and scoring defense (20.77 ppg).

In 2010, Batoon coached First Team All-Sun Belt Conference safety M.D. Jennings, who recorded 84 tackles, three interceptions, four pass break-ups, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble in 2011. Jennings and Keclie McCray ranked second and third on the team in tackles, respectively, as the duo combined to post 163 tackles last season. Both Jennings and fellow safety Adrian Hills were named the Sun Belt Conference Defensive Player of the Week once last season, and the safety corps was responsible for seven of ASU's 11 interceptions.

His first season at ASU saw the Red Wolves' secondary help lead the defense to a No. 1 ranking in total defense and No. 2 ranking in passing defense in the Sun Belt.

Batoon came to Arkansas State after spending the previous 11 seasons as the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach at Northern Arizona. He also spent time as the special teams coordinator during his time with the Lumberjacks.

Batoon came to NAU after a year at Montana working with the defensive line. Prior to that, he was special teams coordinator and secondary coach at Central Missouri State after two years at Saint Mary's (Calif.) and a three-year stint at Pierce Junior College in Los Angeles.

Batoon played at San Diego City Junior College and later at Long Beach State (1988-89). He graduated from LBSU with a degree in political science in 1991, later earning a master's in health, physical education and recreation from Saint Mary's in 1996.

Born in Honolulu, Batoon and his wife, Stacy, have two daughters, Brandy and Summer.

TOM LUKE
ASSISTANT A.D.
FOR PLAYER
DEVELOPMENT

Former Ole Miss quarterback Tom Luke returned to his alma mater in May 2013 when head coach Hugh Freeze hired him as Assistant Athletics Director for Player Development.

The brother of Ole Miss offensive line coach and co-offensive coordinator Matt Luke, he will oversee various aspects of academics and campus life for Rebel players.

Luke was Ole Miss' coordinator of football operations from 2004-05 under David Cutcliffe and Ed Orgeron. He has spent the last few years in the sporting goods business.

He spent 12 years teaching and coaching at Jackson Academy prior to his first stint on the Ole Miss staff.

Luke earned three letters (1989-91) while playing quarterback at Ole Miss, but suffered three concussions during his career, which led to his decision to pass up his senior year and accept a coaching position on the high school level.

He ended his career ranked 17th in passing with 1,524 yards, completing 86 of 178 passes with 10 interceptions. At the time, he also ranked 17th in career total offense with 2,078 yards (554 rushing and 1,524 passing).

As a sophomore in 1990, he developed into one of the most versatile quarterbacks in the Southeastern Conference and shared starting duties with Russ Shows his final two seasons as both battled injuries in the option offensive attack. His 82-yard touchdown pass to Tyrone Ashley against Tennessee in 1991 remains one of the longest in Ole Miss history.

Selected Player of the Year in 1990 by the Ole Miss Quarterback Club, Luke also excelled off the field as he was named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll three times, while also being named to the Chancellor's Honor Roll, Dean's List and U.M.A.A. Honor Roll. He also received the NCAA Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award for having the highest grade point average among graduating Ole Miss student-athletes.

After receiving his B.S. degree from Ole Miss in 1992, Luke began teaching and coaching at Jackson Academy. He served as quarterbacks coach the first three years and then as offensive coordinator from 1995-2003. During his nine years as offensive coordinator, Jackson Academy won four Mississippi Private School Association state championships and was twice runner-up for the state crown.

He also served as an assistant coach for the Jackson Academy baseball team, working five seasons as pitching coach, and from 1995 to 2001 was the head baseball coach. As head coach, Jackson Academy won two MPSA state championships. He was selected Metro Coach of the Year by The Clarion-Ledger in 1999 when he was also named as MPSA All-Star Coach. He was Mississippi "State Games" Coach in 2000.

Luke is married to the former Angie Pope of Clinton, Miss., also an Ole Miss graduate and former Rebelette in "The Pride of the South" marching band. They are the parents of one son, Cale, and two daughters, Carson and Cayden.

Tom's father, Tommy, earned three letters in football at Ole Miss from 1964-66 and then played one year for the AFL Denver Broncos. His brother, Matt, also played at Ole Miss from 1995-98.

PAUL JACKSON
COACH

Describing him as "one of the young and up-and-coming stars in strength and conditioning," Ole Miss head coach

Hugh Freeze named Paul Jackson strength and conditioning coach for his first Rebel staff on Jan. 9, 2012.

In his first year with the Rebels, Jackson's leadership proved to be instrumental as Ole Miss' heightened strength, speed and conditioning levels helped them finish the season strong with a BBVA Compass Bowl victory over Pitt.

Jackson came to Oxford after spending 2011 at Southern Miss, where he oversaw strength and conditioning for the entire USM athletics department with direct responsibility over the football program. His one season in Hattiesburg saw the football team soar to its best record in school history at 12-2, a Conference USA championship and a victory in the Hawaii Bowl.

Jackson arrived in Hattiesburg after serving the 2010 season as the Director of Athletic Conditioning for Football at Miami (Ohio). In his lone season at Miami, Jackson helped lead the Redhawks to the 2010 MAC championship and a victory in the 2011 GoDaddy.Com Bowl, while becoming the only team in NCAA history to go from double-digit losses one year to double-digit wins the next (1-11 in 2009 to 10-4 in 2010).

From 2007-10, Jackson served as an Assistant Strength Coach at LSU, working directly with the Tigers football and volleyball teams. During his time in Baton Rouge, Jackson won an SEC and national championship with the football team as well as three consecutive SEC Western Division and one SEC championship with the volleyball team. While working for the Tigers, Jackson worked under and was mentored by strength and conditioning legend Tommy Moffitt.

A native of White Plains, N.Y., Jackson got his start in the business as a Professional Intern Strength Coach with the NFL's New York Giants. He also spent time as a Performance Enhancement Specialist at the Parisi Speed School in Garwood, N.J., where the focus is sport-specific speed and agility training as well as combine preparation.

Jackson is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

During his college days at Montclair State (N.J.), Jackson lettered in football, spending time at both fullback and line-backer. He earned a B.S. in physical education in 2006 and later received an M.S. in kinesiology from LSU in 2009.

RIGHT TRACK

REBELS BUILD ON FOUNDATION

It didn't take Hugh Freeze very long.

In just one year under his leadership, Ole Miss shifted from the SEC's winless team to a bowl victor, a recruiting buzzsaw and one of the most talked about programs in college football.

In 2012, the Rebels won seven games and earned the program's first bowl berth since the 2009 campaign. A 41-24 rout of Mississippi State made Ole Miss bowl eligible, and the season culminated with a 38-17 triumph over Pitt in front of an estimated 50,000 Rebel fans at the BBVA Compass Bowl in Birmingham.

The momentum was bolstered the next month by the best signing class in school history, ranked as high as second nationally. Headlined by the country's top overall prospect, that group included the No. 1 defensive end, wide receiver and offensive tackle and the No. 2 safety.

A fast-paced series of spring practices followed in March and April. Despite a number of injuries that sidelined some of the Rebels' top players, the spring was capped in front of approximately 28,000 fans at the 2013 BancorpSouth Grove Bowl inside Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

"While we are on the right track, we are only starting the journey," Freeze said. "It's important for Rebel Nation to continue to provide that amazing energy and enthusiasm that inspires our team while also maintaining realistic expectations. As I said from the beginning, we are going to compete passionately for 60 minutes every time out. Our team is working hard to win each and every day, so we can give our passionate fans the effort this great university deserves.

"From an injury standpoint, we were very fortunate last year. We started the same five offensive linemen all 13 games. We weren't so lucky in the spring. We have to add quality depth and continue to build on the foundation that has been laid."

Freeze and the Rebel coaching staff welcomed back 56 lettermen from last season, including 19 of 22 position starters, and look to speed up their tempo offense even more in 2013.

OFFENSE

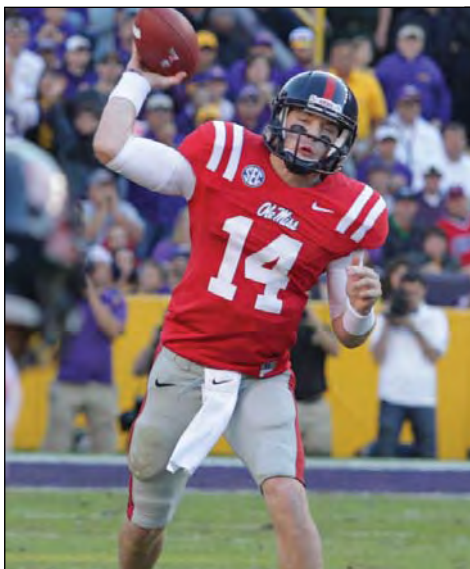

Freeze immediately implemented his high-speed offensive attack as soon as he arrived on campus. Last season, Ole Miss ran a school-record 962 plays, which was second-most in the SEC, and that number only looks to rise.

Managing the fast break is second-year Rebel quarterback Bo Wallace. The junior and former JUCO national player of the year passed for the third-most yards (2,994) and fourth-most touchdowns (22) in school history en route to capturing the C Spire Conerly Trophy as the state's top collegiate player.

Wallace was held out of throwing drills in the spring after offseason clavicle surgery. He resumed passing in May and is expected to be at full strength for pre-season camp.

With Wallace limited in the spring, senior Barry Brunetti and sophomore Maikha Miller saw the majority of snaps and gained valuable experience. A talented running threat, Brunetti was fourth on the team in rushing last year with 277 yards and three TDs. Signees Ryan Buchanan and Devante Kincade add to the competition in the fall.

Joining Wallace in the backfield will be fourth-year starting running back Jeff Scott, who topped the team with 846 rushing yards in 2012. The senior from Miami ranks top 10 in school history with 2,966 all-purpose yards, 1,804 rushing yards and 15 rushing touchdowns.

With the loss of co-starter Randall Mackey to graduation, more snaps may be in line for sophomores Jaylen Walton and I'Tavius Mathers, who combined for 152 rushing yards in the BBVA Compass Bowl. Mathers won the Eli Manning Award as the squad's most improved offensive player in the spring.

Signee Mark Dodson enrolled early out of high school and joined the roster in the spring, while freshmen Eugene Brazley, Kailo Moore and Jordan Wilkins arrive in the fall.

The continuity on offense should be helped by the return of the top three pass catchers, including All-SEC honoree Donte Moncrief. The junior receiver tied the school record with 10 TD catches and racked up 979 receiving yards last year.

Junior Vince Sanders and senior Ja-Mes Logan combined for 994 yards in 2012 and continued to produce in the spring. Korvic Neat, Cody Core, Jordan Holder, Quadarius Mireles and Collins Moore are also in the mix but will be challenged in the preseason by newcomers Quincy Adebeyejo and 5-star recruit Laquon Treadwell, who was the nation's No. 1-ranked wideout.

While eight of nine letterwinners are back at receiver, Ole Miss has to replace the top three tight ends from last year, including starter Ferbia Allen. Justin Bigham, a special teams contributor and the lone returning letterman, stepped into the rotation in the spring along with Jack Nuismer, early enrollee Christian Morgan and others. Incoming freshman Evan Engram is expected to contend for immediate action.

and his 29 career starts must be replaced, and versatile senior Patrick Junen, who was slowed by injuries in the spring, and athletic sophomore Justin Bell are the leading contenders for the spot.

Joining the 11 returning lettermen on the line are four freshmen, including highly rated recruits Laremy Tunsil and Austin Golson. A consensus 5-star prospect, Tunsil was the top-ranked offensive tackle.

DEFENSE

While the high-octane offense generated most of the buzz, the Ole Miss defense quietly rose up the SEC rankings last year. The Rebels ended the year first in the conference in tackles for loss and second in sacks, and all 11 starters are back.

The top attacker on the "Landshark" defense was outside linebacker Denzel Nkemdiche, who earned Freshman All-America and All-SEC accolades after leading the squad in tackles, TFLs, forced fumbles and interceptions.

With fellow starter Mike Marry back in the middle and spirited senior D.T. Shackelford shaking off the rust after a two-year absence with knee surgeries, linebacker expects to be a source of leadership for the Rebels. Serderius Bryant, Keith Lewis and Temario Strong will all be factors in the unit.

The defensive line boasts a pair of preseason All-SEC picks in junior end C.J. Johnson and sophomore tackle Issac Gross. Johnson led the team with 6.5 sacks in 2012, and although he suffered a fracture in his fibula during the first week of spring, he is expected to be ready for fall camp.

Senior Cameron Whigham returns at the other end, and talented back-ups Channing Ward and Carlos Thompson received valuable reps with the first team in Johnson's absence in the spring. Joining the competition in the preseason will be the nation's No. 1 overall recruit, Robert Nkemdiche.

In the interior, Gross was a first team Freshman All-America selection after racking up 40 tackles, 10.0 TFLs and 2.5 sacks. The South Panola product missed most of the spring recovering from sports hernia surgery, which allowed Woodrow Hamilton and Carlton Martin to earn more reps in his stead.

Lining up beside Gross inside is junior Bryon Bennett. Top-rated JUCO prospect Lavon Hooks joined the roster for spring drills and will also factor into the rotation in 2013.

In the secondary, key personnel include junior free safety Cody Prewitt, sophomore rover Trae Elston and sophomore huskie Mike Hilton. Chief Brown won the Jeff Hamm Memorial Award as the team's most improved defensive player in the spring, and he teams with Brishen Mathews and Cliff Coleman as contributors at the safety/huskie spots. Five-star recruit Tony Conner could step in as a strong candidate at huskie.

A pair of veterans anchor the cornerback position with senior Charles Sawyer and junior Senquez Golson. Sawyer has started 25 consecutive games, between corner, strong safety and free safety. He missed the latter portion of the spring with a sprained knee.

Dehendret Collins, Anthony Standifer and Quintavius Burdette are next in line for action at corner, while converted running back Carlos Davis and JUCO transfer Nick Brassell could enter the mix. Brassell, who is working toward eligibility, was a two-way stand-out at receiver and corner for Ole Miss as a freshman in 2011 before transferring to East Mississippi Community College.

SPECIAL TEAMS

Seniors are rarely redshirt candidates, but Freeze gambled in 2012 by saving his starting punter and kickoff specialist to ensure an experienced unit this year. The Rebels will certainly reap the rewards of that strategy with strong-legged Tyler Campbell and Andrew Ritter.

Campbell is a two-time All-SEC selection and the 2010 NCAA punting champion. Ritter handled kickoffs for three years and now has the opportunity to add PATs and field goals to his duties. January enrollee Andy Pappanastos looks to challenge Ritter for the job.

Other specialists returning include holder Chris Conley and long snapper Will Denny.

SCHEDULE

With its first three SEC games on the road, Ole Miss' journey gets off to a daunting start. Overall, the Rebels will play four of their first five games away, followed by six straight at home before traveling to an in-state grudge match.

The season kicks off in Nashville with the lone SEC encounter of the opening weekend against Vanderbilt in a Thursday night meeting on Aug. 29. The league lineup continues with a swing through Alabama with road games against the Crimson Tide on Sept. 28 and the Auburn Tigers on Oct. 5.

The Rebels finally return home for Texas A&M on Oct. 12, LSU on Oct. 19, Arkansas on Nov. 9 and Missouri on Nov. 23. The regular season will close with a trip to Mississippi State for the Egg Bowl, which returns to Thanksgiving on Nov. 28.

Ole Miss' non-conference slate is highlighted by a rematch with the Texas Longhorns on Sept. 14 in Austin, while the 2013 home opener will be a Sept. 7 bout with Southeast Missouri. Vaught-Hemingway Stadium will also play host to Idaho on Oct. 26 for Homecoming and Troy on Nov. 16.

The Rebels hope to add more trophies to their collection this year. Ole Miss claimed the Golden Egg trophy with a 41-24 win over Mississippi State and the BBVA Compass Bowl trophy after beating Pitt 38-17 last season.

OLE MISS LANDS HISTORIC SIGNING CLASS

2013 Signing Class Notes

- Hugh Freeze and his staff made national headlines by bringing in the best recruiting haul in school history (at least, since the Internet has been around). On signing day, the Rebel class was ranked top 10 by all the major recruiting services: No. 2 (247Sports), No. 5 (ESPN), No. 6 (MaxPreps), No. 7 (Rivals), No. 9 (Scout).
- The Rebels' class includes 11 high school All-Americans and 16 players rated 4 stars or better by the various recruiting services.
- Headliners include the nation's No. 1 overall prospect, defensive end Robert Nkemdiche, as well as the country's No. 1 offensive tackle in Laremy Tunsil, the No. 1 wide receiver in Laquon Treadwell, the No. 2 safety in Tony Conner and the No. 1 junior college player in defensive tackle Lavon Hooks.
- The Rebels pulled in prospects from eight states, including Mississippi (eight), Georgia (six), Tennessee (four), Alabama (three), Texas (three), Florida (two), Illinois (one) and Louisiana (one).
- The class is made up of four offensive linemen, four running backs, three defensive backs, three defensive linemen, three wide receivers, three tight ends, three athletes, two quarterbacks, two linebackers and a kicker.
- Ole Miss was trending worldwide on Twitter on signing day, and it was reported that the Rebels were even the hot topic in the Miami Heat locker room. LeBron James had this to say on his Twitter account: "Ole Miss ain't messing around today! Big time recruits coming in. SEC is crazy."

OLE MISS 49, CENTRAL ARKANSAS 27

Game #1 • Sept. 1, 2012

Attendance: 50,554 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Barry Brunetti

OXFORD, Miss. - Sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace went 20-24 for 264 yards and two touchdowns, and Ole Miss (1-0) opened the Hugh Freeze era by coming back from a six-point halftime deficit to defeat Central Arkansas 49-27 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Playing in front of 50,554 fans on a gorgeous Saturday evening, the Ole Miss Rebels fought off a resilient Central Arkansas team by outscoring the Bears 35-7 in the second half.

Ole Miss' opening possession of the season nearly resulted in a punt, but Freeze made the gutsy call and went for it on fourth-and-inches from Ole Miss' own 31-yard line. After a QB sneak from Wallace for the first down, the Rebels' offense shifted into overdrive.

On the very next play, with no passing options open, Wallace showed his mobility by scampering for 13 yards. An end-around to senior Randall Mackey followed for another first down before Wallace again showed his wheels with a quarterback keeper up the middle for 25 yards and a touchdown three plays later.

UCA entered halftime with a 20-14 lead, but Ole Miss responded in the second half by outscoring the Bears 35-7, including 35-unanswered, and erasing all doubt in the game's outcome.

The Rebels began their second half scoring in a rather unconventional manner. After marching down the field to the UCA six-yard line, Wallace rushed up the middle and attempted to dive into the end zone but the ball was popped free. Flying through the air, the ball eventually landed in the back half of the endzone where junior wide receiver Ja-Mes Logan was on the spot and recovered the ball for the touchdown. After a Bryson Rose extra point, the lead was Ole Miss' once again, 21-20, and the Rebels would never look back.

Ole Miss followed up its first touchdown drive of the second half with another one on the ensuing possession that was capped off by a 53-yard touchdown throw from Wallace to Donte Moncrief down the middle. Moncrief finished the game with eight receptions for a game-high 104 yards and a touchdown. It was the first 100-yard receiving game of Moncrief's young career.

OLE MISS 28, UTEP 10

Attendance: 53,133 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Cody Prewitt

OXFORD, Miss. - Two first-half touchdown passes of 50-plus yards by sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace, along with two crucial defensive stands, led Ole Miss (2-0) to a 28-10 win over UTEP (0-2) in front of 53,133 fans at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. The Rebels' 2-0 start is its first since 2009.

Wallace was 15-22 passing for 174 yards and three touchdowns. The Pulaski, Tenn., native also rushed for 53 yards and a score.

Wallace's top target was sophomore wide receiver Donte Moncrief, who had three receptions for 72 yards and a touchdown. Junior wide receiver Ja-Mes Logan had a team-high five catches for 44 yards.

After holding the Miners on their opening possession, Ole Miss took just four plays to drive 73 yards for a touchdown. The drive was highlighted by a picture-perfect 55-yard touchdown pass from Wallace to sophomore wide receiver Donte Moncrief, who got behind the UTEP cornerback and hauled in the pass that traveled 45 yards in the air.

UTEP opened the second quarter with first down at the seven-yard line, but failed to get into the endzone on the first three plays. Facing fourth down with the ball on the one-yard line, the Miners rolled the dice and went for it. The Rebels defense was up to the challenge, however, and tackled Nick Lamaison on the quarterback keeper two yards behind the line of scrimmage.

The Rebels used the momentum gained from the fourth-down stop to drive 97 yards in 3:25 to gain a two-touchdown lead. Again, the Rebels found pay dirt off a big play, as Wallace hit freshman running back Jaylen Walton down the right side for a 51-yard touchdown.

The Rebels defense bent for a second-straight possession, but again didn't break as sophomore cornerback Cody Prewitt picked off UTEP quarterback Carson Meger in the Ole Miss endzone and returned it 16 yards to maintain the 14-0 lead for the Rebels.

Ole Miss used a methodical, 15-play, 84-yard drive capped off with a four-yard touchdown run by Wallace to the right corner of the endzone with 28.3 seconds left to take a 21-0 lead into the half.

After 10 unanswered points by the Miners in the third quarter narrowed the Rebels lead to 21-10, Ole Miss got back on the board with 11:18 left on the clock in the fourth quarter. Wallace capped off the eight-play drive by hitting H.R. Greer for a three-yard touchdown pass with Greer diving to extend the ball over the pylon in the right corner.

#12 TEXAS 66, OLE MISS 31

Attendance: 61,797 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Jaylen Walton

OXFORD, Miss. - In a high-scoring affair that saw a total of 97 points scored, Ole Miss (2-1) could not stop the No. 12 Texas (3-0) offense, and lost its first game of the season 66-31 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

Playing in front of 61,797 fans, the fourth-largest crowd in school history and the largest ever for a non-conference game, the Rebels accumulated 19 first downs and 399 yards of offense, but couldn't get the Longhorns' offense off the field. The Longhorns scored on seven-straight possessions, including six touchdowns, spanning from the first quarter to the final minute of the third quarter.

Trailing 10-0 with just over three minutes remaining in the first quarter, Ole Miss got on the board with an impressive 12-play, 89-yard drive that started from its own 11-yard line. The Rebels faced a tough third-and-17 from its own 41-yard line, but sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace found junior wide receiver Korvic Neat down the middle for 30 yards and new life. From there, the Rebels needed just four more plays before senior running back Randall Mackey rushed to the right side from three yards out for the touchdown.

Wallace and Donte Moncrief connected for the third consecutive game. Wallace connected with Moncrief in the third quarter on a beautiful 75-yard touchdown pass.

Wallace and Moncrief have connected for 50-plus yard touchdowns in each of Ole Miss' first three games. Moncrief finished the game with seven receptions for 144 yards and a touchdown.

Freshman running back Jaylen Walton capped off the scoring for the Rebels with an eye-opening 100-yard kickoff return down the left sideline in the fourth quarter.

OLE MISS 39, TULANE 0

Game #4 • Sept. 22, 2012

Attendance: 28,913 • Mercedes-Benz Superdome • New Orleans, La.

Jeff Scott

NEW ORLEANS (AP) - The Ole Miss Rebels pitched their first shutout since 2008 and routed the Tulane Green Wave 39-0 in front of an Ole Miss heavy crowd at the Mercedes-Benz Superdome.

Jeff Scott ran for two touchdowns and Ole Miss piled up 304 yards rushing in handing Tulane its third loss of the season.

The Ole Miss defense, seeking redemption after yielding 66 points in a loss to Texas a week earlier, limited Tulane to 159 yards of total offense.

The Rebels (3-1) constantly pressured Green Wave freshman quarterback Devin Powell. Making his first start, Powell was sacked three times and threw three interceptions. Tulane (0-3) also struggled to run, finishing with 14 net yards.

Playing for the first time since safety Devon Walker fractured his spine at Tulsa on Sept. 8, Tulane wore Walker's No. 18 on one side of its helmets. The similarly supportive Rebels had small "DW" stickers on their helmets.

Rebel quarterback Bo Wallace was 7 of 16 for 101 yards, including a 23-yard touchdown pass to Donte Moncrief. Randall Mackey and Ja-Mes Logan each added running touchdowns.

#1 ALABAMA 33, OLE MISS 14

Attendance: 101,821 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.

Denzel Nkemdiche

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - The Ole Miss defense held No. 1 Alabama to just six points in the second half, but turnovers in the first half proved to be too much to overcome as the Rebels fell to the Crimson Tide 33-14 at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

Ole Miss (3-2, 0-1 SEC) briefly held the lead when Jeff Scott scored on a 1-yard run early in the second quarter, but Alabama erased it quickly on the ensuing kickoff, when Christian Jones raced 99 yards to the endzone to give the Crimson Tide a 13-7 advantage.

Alabama (5-0, 2-0 SEC) added two more touchdowns to go into the locker room leading 27-7.

The Rebels were able to mount an impressive 16-play, 70-yard scoring drive in the third quarter to cut Alabama's lead to 13, and the defense held the Crimson Tide scoreless in the third quarter.

Quarterback Bo Wallace ended the game 15-of-26 for 123 yards, while Jeff Scott recorded 49 yards rushing on 19 carries and the touchdown. Scott has now scored four times in the last three games.

On the defensive side of the ball, Cody Prewitt recorded a career-high 13 tackles while Denzel Nkemdiche made a career-best 11, including three for a loss, and caused two fumbles.

Alabama came into the game averaging 204 yards a game on the ground, but the Rebel defense held them to just 125 yards.

TEXAS A&M 30, OLE MISS 27

Game #6 • Oct. 6, 2012

Attendance: 55,343 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Bo Wallace

OXFORD, Miss. - On a chilly Saturday evening at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, the Ole Miss Rebels fell in heartbreaking fashion, 30-27, to Texas A&M. Ole Miss (3-3, 0-2 SEC) led by 10 points in the fourth quarter against the Aggies, but couldn't hold on to the victory.

Leading by four points with just over three minutes remaining in the game, Ole Miss had possession of the ball and faced a fourth-and-1 opportunity from its own 39-yard line. Already two-for-two for the game, the Rebels went for it again, but junior running back Jeff Scott was stopped at the line of scrimmage and Texas A&M (4-1, 2-1 SEC) took over on downs.

The Aggies wasted little time with the ball, converting on their fourth play from scrimmage with a 20-yard touchdown pass from Johnny Manziel to Ryan Swope in the back left corner of the endzone.

Ole Miss took a 27-17 lead, its largest of the game, when Wallace hit sophomore wide receiver Donte Moncrief for a four-yard touchdown.

After nearly getting tackled for a safety, Texas A&M regrouped to drive 99 yards for a touchdown, but after missing the extra point attempt, Ole Miss still led by four points at 27-23.

Wallace finished with a season-high 305 yards passing for Ole Miss. The Ole Miss defense caused a season-high six turnovers on the evening against a Texas A&M offense that had only turned the ball over once all season. The Rebels offense finished with 464 total yards.

OLE MISS 41, AUBURN 20

Attendance: 57,068 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Jeff Scott

OXFORD, Miss. - Ole Miss coach Hugh Freeze received a Gatorade bath and the Ole Miss faithful stood and cheered the team on in appreciation. After 16 long games, the Rebels finally snapped their Southeastern Conference losing skid with a 41-20 win over Auburn (1-5, 0-4 SEC) on Homecoming at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

The win was a long time coming for Ole Miss (4-3, 1-2 SEC), as the Rebels snapped a skid that stretched back to Oct. 2, 2010. Ole Miss played an inspired game in front of 57,068 fans and drew praise from its head coach.

Ole Miss junior running back Jeff Scott paced the Ole Miss offense with 207 all-purpose yards and one touchdown. Scott ran for 137 yards - one yard shy of his career high - on 21 carries, and had three catches for 70 yards and a touchdown. Scott's 70 receiving yards were a career high, and his 55-yard touchdown catch was the first touchdown reception of his career.

Scott wasn't the only star on offense for the potent Rebels attack. Quarterback Bo Wallace scored in just about every way for Ole Miss. The sophomore had his first receiving touchdown, two rushing touchdowns and threw for a score as well. He is the first player in school history to have a rushing, passing and receiving touchdown in the same game.

Ole Miss had a fantastic start to the game. The Rebels capped off a nine-play, 80-yard drive with a 25-yard touchdown pass from Randall Mackey to Wallace. Wallace tossed the ball back to Mackey who ran to his right before stopping and throwing across the field to a streaking Wallace down the left sideline. It was the first touchdown reception of Wallace's career.

The Rebels opened the second half similarly to the first, with an impressive four-play, 73-yard touchdown drive highlighted by a gorgeous 40-yard pass from Wallace to Ja-Mes Logan in between two Auburn defensive backs. Wallace capped off the drive with a 1-yard touchdown run. The Rebels' 41 points were their most points scored in the series against Auburn since 1992.

OLE MISS 30, ARKANSAS 27

Attendance: 55,378 • War Memorial Stadium • Little Rock, Ark.

Bryson Rose

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. - Senior kicker Bryson Rose kicked a 31-yard field goal as time expired to give the Ole Miss Rebels a 30-27 win against Arkansas at War Memorial Stadium.

The win is the second straight in the Southeastern Conference for the Rebels (5-3, 2-2), who snapped a 16-game league losing streak in their last game against Auburn.

Rose's field goal was his third of the game, including a career-best 53-yarder that put Ole Miss up 27-20 early in the fourth quarter.

The Razorbacks (3-5, 2-3) tied the game at 27-27 with 2:09 remaining on a 4-yard touchdown run by Dennis Johnson, who finished with a career-high 161 yards.

Rebels quarterback Bo Wallace - who finished with 278 yards passing - directed Ole Miss on an eight-play, 61-yard drive that set up Rose's game-winning field goal.

This was Ole Miss' first SEC road win since beating Vanderbilt 23-7 on Oct. 3, 2009.

The Razorbacks (3-5, 2-3) tied the game at 27-27 with 2:09 remaining on a 4-yard touchdown run by Dennis Johnson, who finished with a career-high 161 yards.

While Arkansas did amass 464 yards of offense, the Rebel defense came up with some big plays, intercepting Arkansas quarterback Tyler Wilson twice. Cornerback Charles Sawyer had one of the two INTs and also blocked a punt near the end of the second quarter that set up the Rebels second touchdown of the game.

It was the first Ole Miss blocked punt since Dustin Mouzon against Alabama in 2007.

Redshirt-freshman LB Denzel Nkemdiche led all Ole Miss tacklers with eight stops and grabbed his second interception of the year to set up a third-quarter field goal drive.

#6 GEORGIA 37, OLE MISS 10

Attendance: 92,746 • Sanford Stadium • Athens, Ga.

Denzel Nkemdiche

ATHENS, Ga. (AP) - Ole Miss led 10-0 in the first half, but No. 6 Georgia responded with 37 unanswered points as the Rebels fell 37-10 at Sanford Stadium.

Sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace finished the game 16-for-25 passing for 187 yards and a touchdown. His 13-yard touchdown pass to Jamal Mosley in the second quarter gave the Rebels an early 10-0 lead.

Ole Miss (5-4, 2-3) used blitzes to record five sacks in the first half. The defensive gambles left opportunities for Murray, who completed 21 of 28 passes for 384 yards with no interceptions and touchdown passes of 66, 40, 42 and 28 yards.

Georgia's defense, coming off last week's 17-9 win over then-No. 3 Florida, delivered another strong performance, holding Ole Miss to 234 yards. The Rebels were limited to just 55 yards in the second half.

Jeff Scott led Ole Miss with only 21 yards rushing on 13 carries.

Bo Wallace threw a 51-yard pass to tight end Ferbia Allen to set up Bryson Rose's 34-yard field goal on the Rebels' opening drive.

With Ole Miss leading 10-7, Rebel freshman linebacker Denzel Nkemdiche forced two fumbles during a spree of four turnovers -- two by each team -- in five second-quarter plays. Gurley and Keith Marshall fumbled after hits by Nkemdiche, from Loganville, Ga.

The momentum carried into the second half, when Georgia scored touchdowns on its first two possessions.

Ja-Mes Logan

OXFORD, Miss. - Ole Miss sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace passed for a career-high 403 yards, and junior wide receiver Ja-Mes Logan had eight receptions for 160 yards - both career highs - but the Rebels (5-5, 2-4 Southeastern Conference) couldn't hold on and fell to Vanderbilt (6-4, 4-3 SEC) 27-26 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

The Rebels were attempting to win their sixth game of the season and become bowl eligible for the first time since 2009, but couldn't hold on to the lead in the second half.

Defensively, the Rebels were led by sophomore defensive back Cody Prewitt, who had a team-high seven tackles, and two tackles for losses. Mike Marry and Denzel Nkemdiche each had six tackles for the Rebels.

Ole Miss recovered a fumble on the second play of the game, and converted on the turnover seven plays later with a nine-yard touchdown pass from Wallace to Vince Sanders in the back left corner of the end zone. Sanders finished the game with five receptions for a career-high 96 yards.

Senior kicker Bryson Rose was a busy man in the second quarter, knocking in three field goals of 22, 28 and 41 yards. Rose's three field goals moved him up to fourth on the Rebels' career field goals made list, and third in career points scored by a kicker.

The Rebels opened the second half strong, scoring on the opening drive with a nine-play, 56-yard drive capped off by a 1-yard touchdown run by Wallace, his sixth rushing touchdown of the season. The touchdown gave Ole Miss a 23-6 lead.

Vanderbilt scored 14-unanswered points in the third quarter to cut the Rebels lead to three points. A Rose field goal with 5:28 remaining, his fourth of the game, gave Ole Miss a 26-20 lead. Vanderbilt then won the game with a 26-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jordan Rodgers to Chris Boyd with 0:52 remaining on the clock.

#7 LSU 41, OLE MISS 35

Game #11 • Nov. 17, 2012
Attendance: 92,872 • Tiger Stadium • Baton Rouge, La.

Randall Mackey

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) - Ole Miss sophomore wide receiver Donte Moncrief had a career day with 161 receiving yards and two touchdowns, but LSU scored with seconds remaining to win an offensive battle 41-35 in the fifth Magnolia Bowl in front of 92,872 at Tiger Stadium.

Jeremy Hill scored his third touchdown with 15 seconds left to lift the Tigers in a classic encounter between the rivals. The game included seven turnovers, numerous momentum swings and long touchdowns, perhaps none bigger than Odell Beckham Jr.'s 89-yard punt return for a score in the final frame.

Beckham's return tied the game at 35, but LSU (9-2, 5-2 SEC) still needed a pair of clutch sacks to drive Ole Miss (5-6, 2-5) out of routine field goal range later in the fourth quarter. Bryson Rose then pushed a 53-yard kick wide right, setting up the winning drive.

Ole Miss quarterback Bo Wallace passed for 310 yards and two TDs and ran for two scores, but also was intercepted three times. His touchdowns went to Moncrief, the first for 56 yards and the second for 30. Wallace's first score came on a 58-yard run.

The Ole Miss turnovers gave LSU multiple opportunities to seize control, but the Tigers had three drives stall inside the Rebel 10. Two of them ended with field goals and another with Senquez Golson's interception in the end zone, a play that allowed the Rebels to cling to a 21-20 lead in the third quarter.

Ole Miss then widened its lead to 28-20 on a drive set up by Golson's second interception of Mettenberger. Wallace and Ja-Mes Logan connected on a fourth-and-3 play for the second time in the game to extend a scoring drive. This one was capped by Randall Mackey's 6-yard scoring run.

LSU rallied to tie it on Hill's 1-yard touchdown run around the left side and a 2-point conversion on Zach Mettenberger's pass to Spencer Ware, but the Rebels marched right back down the field in 28 seconds to regain the lead, 35-28, on Wallace's pass to Moncrief along the left sideline.

Ole Miss struck first in the contest when defensive end Barkevious Mingo bit on a fake handoff and Wallace kept the ball, scampering for his 58-yard score. It was the longest running play allowed by LSU this season.

OLE MISS 41, #24 MISSISSIPPI STATE 24

Game #12 • Nov. 24, 2012
Attendance: 61,005 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

Donte Moncrief

OXFORD, Miss. - Paced by a three-touchdown performance from sophomore wide receiver Donte Moncrief, Ole Miss (6-6, 3-5 SEC) defeated its intrastate rival, No. 24 Mississippi State, 41-24 in front of 61,005 fans at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

For Ole Miss, the win is extra special. Over the last two seasons, the Rebels had won just six games combined. The win over Mississippi State (8-4, 4-4 SEC) gave the Rebels their sixth win this season, and propels the young team to a bowl game to be determined in the coming weeks. The win also gives the Rebels the Egg Bowl trophy for the first time since 2008.

Perhaps most importantly, Saturday gave the Rebels a sense of validation for their hard work this season. After losing its last two games by a combined seven points, some had to wonder if it simply wasn't meant to be for the Rebels.

Moncrief finished the day with seven catches for a career-high 173 yards to go along with his three touchdowns. Moncrief's 173 yards receiving are the fourth-most in a single game in Ole Miss history, and the Raleigh, Miss., native is now tied for the most touchdown receptions in a single season with 10.

Sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace finished 15-of-22 for 294 yards, five touchdowns and two interceptions. Junior running back Jeff Scott led Ole Miss on the ground with 28 carries for 111 yards.

Junior cornerback Charles Sawyer led Ole Miss with nine total tackles, including eight solo tackles and three pass breakups. Sophomore defensive end C.J. Johnson had a pair of sacks for the Rebels, and Nkemdiche had three total tackles and an interception, his third of the season.

In a game that started off tight and was back and forth for much of the first half, it was all Ole Miss in the second half. Tied 17-17 at halftime, Ole Miss scored 24 unanswered points before allowing a Bulldog touchdown with seven seconds left on the clock.

The 109th meeting between the two schools, and the 85th edition of the Battle of the Golden Egg, began with some fireworks, as each team put seven points on the board in the opening two minutes. The Rebels used a four-play, 71-yard drive to get on the board, capped off by a 25-yard pass from Wallace to Jamal Mosley down the left sideline.

Ole Miss scored on each of its first four possessions to open the second half, including two touchdowns from Moncrief, a 21-yard reception with 6:47 left on the clock in the third quarter, and a 16-yard reception just over three minutes later to give Ole Miss a 34-17 lead.

OLE MISS 38, PITT 17

BBVA Compass Bowl • Game #13 • Jan. 5, 2013
Attendance: 59,135 • Legion Field • Birmingham, Ala.

Bo Wallace

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. - Ole Miss took down Pitt in the BBVA Compass Bowl, 38-17. It was Ole Miss' first bowl appearance since topping Oklahoma State 21-7 in the 2010 AT&T Cotton Bowl. The 38 points scored by Ole Miss is a BBVA Compass Bowl record.

Ole Miss (7-6) has now won nine of its last 10 bowl games and each of its last five. The win moves Ole Miss' bowl record to 22-12. The Rebels' 22 bowl victories are tied for the 11th most in the country with Auburn and LSU.

Ole Miss quarterback Bo Wallace, the BBVA Compass Bowl MVP, finished the game 22-32 passing for 151 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions.

The Rebels spread the ball around through the air with three receivers catching five or more passes. I'Tavius Mathers led Ole Miss on the ground with six carries for 96 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter, the longest in BBVA Compass Bowl history.

On the defensive side of the ball, junior middle linebacker Mike Marry led Ole Miss with seven tackles, four tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

Playing in front of a predominantly red-clad BBVA Compass Bowl record crowd of 59,135, Ole Miss got off to a quick start. Rebel cornerback Senquez Golson dropped back into coverage and picked off Pitt quarterback Tino Sunseri's pass and returned it to the Panthers' 23-yard line. The interception was Golson's third of the season, with all three coming in the last three games.

Following Golson's interception, which was just the third against Sunseri this season, Wallace capped off a five-play, 23-yard drive with a 14-yard touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Ja-Mes Logan to give the Rebels a 7-0 lead.

Wallace later completed his eighth consecutive pass to start the game with a 27-yard touchdown pass to senior wide receiver Randall Mackey, who made a gorgeous diving catch in the end zone to give the Rebels a 14-0 lead. Mackey's touchdown reception was the first of his career.

Following a Pitt touchdown, Wallace completed his third touchdown pass of the game with an 18-yard strike to sophomore wide receiver Vince Sanders. The touchdown pass, Wallace's 22nd of the year, moved him up to fourth on the Ole Miss single-season list, surpassing Eli Manning's 2002 total of 21.

The Rebels closed out the first half with a 31-yard field goal from Bryon Rose that gave the Rebels a 24-10 lead going into the break. Ole Miss' 24 first-half points tied the BBVA Compass Bowl record for most points scored in a half.

Ole Miss took a 21-point lead with 21 seconds remaining in the third quarter on a one-yard quarterback sneak from Barry Brunetti that put the game on ice. The Rebels' defense gave up just four yards in the entire third quarter, and did not allow a single first down.

SEC HISTORY

The Southeastern Conference begins its 81st season of play in 2013. The league began play in 1933 with 13 schools - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

Alabama won the league's first conference title in 1933 by virtue of its 5-0-1 conference record. Sewanee left the conference following the 1940 season while Georgia Tech left after the 1963 season and Tulane followed after the 1965 campaign. Arkansas and South Carolina entered the SEC prior to the 1992 season and Missouri and Texas A&M joined in 2012.

The SEC was the first conference to split into two divisions and have its regular season culminate in a conference championship game. The first SEC Championship Game was held on Dec. 5, 1992 at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala.

The SEC sponsors championships in 21 sports - 12 women's sports and nine men's sports. They include baseball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, equestrian, football, men's and women's golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, men's and women's swimming and diving, men's and women's tennis, men's and women's indoor and outdoor track and field and volleyball.

The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

2012 SEC NOTES

- The SEC has won seven consecutive national championships, nine of 14 BCS National Championships and 23 overall national titles (AP, BCS, FWAA, coaches poll). Alabama defeated Notre Dame 42-14 on Jan. 7 in the Discover BCS National Championship Game for the SEC's seventh straight national title.

- Four different SEC schools have won the BCS National Championship since 2006 (Auburn, 2010; Alabama, 2009, 2011, 2012; Florida, 2006 and 2008; LSU, 2007). Tennessee (1998) and LSU (2003) have also won the BCS crown. The Big 12 (Texas and Oklahoma), has had two schools win titles since 1998, and the ACC (Florida State) and Big East (Miami) have each had one school win a title since 1998.

- Since 2006, more than half of the slots in the BCS National Championship Game have been taken by SEC teams (9 of 16). The Big Ten and the Big 12 have two each and the Pac-10 has one.

- No other conference has won a BCS National Championship Game since Texas defeated Southern California, 41-38, in the Rose Bowl following the 2005 regular season. The SEC has won the last seven in a row.

- An SEC team has led or tied for the lead at the end of 24 of the last 28 quarters of BCS National Championship Game play.

- The SEC has had more teams ranked in the BCS standings for the most times than any other conference since 2006. The league has had 12 of its 14 teams ranked at one time or another since 2006 for a total of 290 times. The SEC breakdown: LSU (53), Alabama (43), Florida (41), Georgia (31), Auburn (29), South Carolina (29), Arkansas (23), Tennessee (14), Mississippi State (12), Texas A&M (8), Kentucky (4) and Ole Miss (3).

- Since 2006, the SEC has posted a 10-4 record in BCS bowl games, more wins and a higher winning percentage (.750) than any other conference. The win total nearly equals that of the next two highest conferences.

- During the current seven year streak, the SEC's average margin of victory in BCS National Championship Games is 17 points, which includes a three-point victory over Oregon in 2011, the only game during the streak decided by single digits.

- Since 2006, the SEC has had the most teams ranked in the final USA Today Coaches Poll. The conference has had 36 teams ranked in the final USA Today rankings, six more than the Big 12 (28) and 10 more than the Big Ten (26).

- Since 2006, the SEC football student-athletes and coaches have won 59 major individual awards, an average of more than eight per year. The league won an all time high 12 individual honors in 2010 and won eight this season for the second straight year.

- Since 1992, the SEC leads all conferences with 57 selections to the Allstate AFCA Good Works Teams®, followed by the Big 12 with 41 selections and the Atlantic Coast Conference with 31 selections. With Aaron Murray's selection this year, Georgia moves into first place with 14 honorees to the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. The Bulldogs are followed by Nebraska and St. Thomas (Minn.) with 13 honorees each. Super Bowl XLII and XLI champion quarterbacks Eli and Peyton Manning were members of the 2002 and 1997 Good Works Teams, respectively.

HISTORY OF OLE MISS FOOTBALL

The University of Mississippi boasts a long and colorful football history, which includes the formation of the first football team in the state, as well as one of the most successful programs in the history of collegiate football.

In its 120-year history, the Ole Miss football program has claimed three national championships (1959, 1960 and 1962), six Southeastern Conference titles (1947, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962, and 1963), and one SEC Western Division title (2003). In addition, Ole Miss has produced 54 first-team All-America selections and 162 First Team All-SEC selections, appeared in 34 bowl games with 22 wins, and sent almost 300 players into the professional ranks.

REBEL FOOTBALL BEGINNINGS

The beginnings of the program can be traced all the way back to 1890 when Dr. A.L. Bondurant, who would later serve as Dean of the Graduate School, urged Ole Miss students to help in the formation of an Athletic Association in the interests of football, baseball and tennis. Such a group became a reality a short while later, and in 1893, a football team was organized, with Bondurant serving as the manager-coach.

That first squad set a precedent that was to become an Ole Miss tradition, winning four of five games during that maiden season, including a 56-0 victory over Southwest Baptist University of Jackson, Tenn., in the inaugural game on Nov. 11, 1893.

Early financial matters were the responsibility of the manager. Support came largely from the Athletic Association, which was made up of a combination of students and faculty members willing to back the athletes by payment of a small fee.

Although it has never been documented, it is thought that C.D. Clark of Tufts was the first paid football coach at Ole Miss. His name appears as manager of the team, as shown in the Ole Miss Magazine, dated November 1894.

THE PRE-WWII YEARS

Prior to 1925, a total of 22 coaches took their turn as head coach at Ole Miss with only seven heading up the program for more than one season. Those early years were characterized by periods of both prosperity and difficulty: 1883-95, 12-3; 1896-1908, 24-36-1; 1909-14, 33-17-4; and 1915-24, 30-48.

Since the formation of the Athletics Committee in 1925, the Rebels have had just 14 head coaches, with three of those also handling the dual responsibility of athletic director. The establishment of the committee on a faculty-alumni basis (a student representative has since been added) seemed to re-establish alumni support for the football program and a bright future lay ahead.

Homer Hazel of Rutgers served as the head coach from 1925-29, winning 21 games, losing 22 and tying three before being succeeded by Ed Walker, a Stanford graduate, in 1930. While Walker's record was a modest 38-38-8 over his eight-year stay, he firmly established the direction of the football program. He took Ole Miss to its first bowl game in 1935, with the Rebels falling to Catholic University, 20-19 in the Orange Bowl. He also coached the Rebels' first All-America first-teamer, Bruiser Kinard, in 1936. Kinard, who also earned All-America first-team honors in 1937, would be the first of 46 Rebels to earn the prestigious national accolade.

Under Walker's tenure, Ole Miss took another step to help cement a solid future for Rebel football and other athletic teams when they became a charter member of the SEC in 1933. The Rebels have competed in the league ever since. Prior to joining the SEC, Ole Miss had competed in the Southern Conference from 1922-32.

Harry Mehre, from Notre Dame, became the head coach in 1938 and put together a pre-war record of 39-26-1, which included several notable victories. Mehre led Ole Miss to its first ever victory over Vanderbilt in 1939, its first win in 11 years over LSU in 1938, and its first win over Tulane in 25 seasons in 1941.

The post-war period would prove to be the Rebels' most glorious era as C.M. "Tad" Smith, a member of the Ole Miss athletic family since 1929, succeeded Mehre as director of athletics. Smith would serve as athletic director for 25 years before retiring on Feb. 1, 1971.

Harold (Red) Drew of Bates was brought in as head coach in 1946 and Ole Miss football stood on the verge of becoming one of the most powerful and respected programs in the country. A long-time assistant coach at Alabama, Drew remained at Ole Miss just one season before returning to Tuscaloosa as head coach, but his brief stay would prove to change the course of Rebel football.

VAUGHT PLACES OLE MISS ON NATIONAL FOOTBALL MAP

John Vaught, a line coach under Drew and a former All-American at TCU, remained in Oxford as head coach in 1947 and led the Ole Miss program to national prominence over the next 24 years.

In his first season at the helm in 1947, the Rebels posted a 9-2 record and won the first of six SEC crowns (1947, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962, 1963). That 1947 season also saw Ole Miss great Charlie Conerly become the first Rebel player to be a contender for the Heisman Trophy, placing fourth in the voting for the prestigious honor. Vaught's first year proved to be a sign of good things to come for Ole Miss. During his 24-year tenure, the Rebels would have only one losing campaign.

Vaught's squads, however, didn't stop at just winning league titles. The Rebels also claimed three national championships in 1959, 1960 and 1962. Ole Miss won the 1959 Dunkel System national crown, the 1960 Football Writers Association of America, Dunkel System, Williamson System national championships, and the 1962 Litkenhous Ratings national title. Vaught's 1959 squad, which was honored as the "SEC Team of the Decade," was ranked the third best collegiate football team from 1956 to 1995, according to the Jeff Sagarin Ratings released in January of 1996.

The Rebels were also among the winningest programs in the country under Vaught during the 1950s and 1960s. From 1950-59, Ole Miss posted an 80-21-5 record (.778 winning percentage). The 80 wins and 77.8 winning percentage were second to only Oklahoma during that decade. In the 1960s, Vaught guided the Rebels to a 72-20-6 record and a 76.5 winning percentage, which was the fourth best during that decade.

Under Vaught's guidance, Ole Miss made Hemingway Stadium (later named Vaught-Hemingway Stadium) one of the toughest places in the nation for opposing teams to play. In his 24 seasons at the helm, Vaught's teams compiled an impressive 57-6-2 record in Oxford for an astounding 89.2 winning percentage. From 1952-1964, the Rebels put together an incredible 34-game homefield unbeaten streak (33-0-1), including 21-straight victories from 1952-59.

In the 1950s and 1960s under Vaught, Ole Miss was a fixture in the national polls. The Rebels were ranked atop the Associated Press poll for three weeks during the 1960 season and one week during the 1961 campaign. In 1964, Ole Miss was ranked preseason No. 1 in the Associated Press poll.

Vaught also made going to postseason play the norm rather than the exception for the Rebel football program. Ole Miss played in 15 consecutive bowl games from 1957-71 which, at that time, was a national record. In all, Vaught led Ole Miss to 18 bowl game appearances, posting a 10-8 record in those contests. For his efforts, Vaught was named SEC Coach of the Year six times (1947, 1948, 1954, 1955, 1960, 1962).

During his time at the helm, Vaught coached some of the best players ever to wear the Red & Blue. In 24 seasons, Vaught produced 26 All-America first-teamers. He also coached four players who finished in the top five in the Heisman Trophy voting. Along with Conerly in 1947, Charlie Flowers (5th in 1959), Jake Gibbs (3rd in 1960) and Archie Manning (4th in 1969, 3rd in 1970) were in the running for college football's top honor.

Failing health forced Vaught to resign his position in 1970 and the reins of the Ole Miss football program were turned over to Billy Kinard.

THE POST-VAUGHT YEARS

Kinard became the first Ole Miss alumnus to lead the football program, while Frank "Bruiser" Kinard, an offensive line coach under Vaught since 1948, was named to replace Smith as athletic director that same year.

The Rebels went 16-9 under Billy Kinard, including a 10-2 record and a 41-18 Peach Bowl victory over Georgia Tech in his first year in 1971. Kinard's 10 victories in '71 are tied for fourth most by a first-year head coach in NCAA Division I history.

Kinard coached the Rebels through the 1972 campaign and the third contest of the 1973 season before startling developments following the Sept. 22, 1973, game with Memphis State saw both Kinards replaced by Vaught. Vaught returned to the field to guide the Rebels through the remainder of the 1973 season while also taking on the responsibility of athletic director.

Following the 1973 football campaign, Vaught resigned once again as head coach, but remained on as athletic director. His final record with the Rebels was an amazing 190-61-12. The 190 victories still rank Vaught among the top 25 winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history, and he is the fourth-winningest coach in SEC history behind Bear Bryant's (Alabama) 323 wins, Lou Holtz's (South Carolina) 238 wins and Vince Dooley's (Georgia) 201 victories. In 1979, Vaught was inducted in the National College Football Hall of Fame.

Ken Cooper, an assistant under Kinard since 1971, was named head coach on Jan. 17, 1974, and took Ole Miss through the 1977 season. Cooper compiled a 21-23 record during his four years at the helm, and his tenure is probably best remembered for one hot and humid day in September 1977. In one of the most memorable games in Rebel football history, Ole Miss upset Notre Dame, 20-13 in Mississippi Memorial Stadium on Sept. 17, 1977, in Jackson. That loss was the Irish's lone setback of the 1977 campaign, as Notre Dame finished the season with an 11-1 record and claimed the national title.

Following the 1977 season, Steve Sloan was hired as the new Rebel boss and began his five-year stint in 1978. Sloan posted a 20-34 record from 1978-82.

BREWER RETURNS

After stepping outside the Ole Miss family football tree the previous nine seasons, Ole Miss looked for a familiar face to lead the football program, and the Rebels found that person when Billy Brewer returned to Oxford to take over as head coach in December of 1982.

In his first season in 1983, Brewer put the Ole Miss program on the road back to national prominence. Brewer guided the Rebels to their first winning regular season since 1977 with a 7-4 mark. The Rebels received their first bowl game invitation since 1971 and met Air Force in the Independence Bowl. Ole Miss dropped a 9-3 decision to the Falcons and finished with a 7-5 record.

Brewer followed his first season with 10 more at the helm of the Rebel program. During his tenure, he led the Rebels to five more winning seasons and four additional bowls, including Ole Miss' 1990 New Year's Day Gator Bowl appearance. The Jan. 1 bowl game was the program's first since 1969. Brewer was named SEC Coach of the Year in 1986 (8-3-1 record) and 1990 (9-3 record), and the 1986 season saw the Rebels return to the national rankings for the first time in over a decade. In his 11 seasons, Brewer also led Ole Miss to eight Egg Bowl victories over rival, Mississippi State.

Brewer coached 11 years (1983-93) and compiled a 67-56-3 record, making him the second winningest Ole Miss football coach behind Vaught. Brewer was dismissed just prior to the 1994 season, and Joe Lee Dunn took over as interim coach, directing the Rebels to a 4-7 record under difficult circumstances.

REBELS ON THE RISE

In the mid-1990s Ole Miss football was somewhat down, but not out, and it needed a boost of energy to revitalize the program. On Dec. 2, 1994, Tommy Tuberville was selected as the coach in charge of getting the Rebels on the right track.

After serving as an assistant coach on the collegiate level for nine seasons (eight at Miami and one at Texas A&M), Tuberville began creating excitement in his first season in 1995, finishing the campaign with a 6-5 record and an Egg Bowl victory over Mississippi State.

That excitement grew to a fever pitch in 1997, when Ole Miss recorded its best season since 1992 with an 8-4 record, a thrilling 15-14 Egg Bowl victory over Mississippi State and a Motor City Bowl win over Marshall. The bowl appearance was the program's first since 1992, and the Rebels earned a final national ranking of No. 22 in both polls.

The revitalized Ole Miss program continued its winning ways in 1998, despite a coaching change following the regular season. David Cutcliffe took over as head coach on Dec. 2, 1998. Cutcliffe, who came to Ole Miss from his offensive coordinator post at Tennessee, took over the reins just 29 days before the Rebels' Sanford Independence Bowl date versus Texas Tech. Despite the short preparation time for the game, Cutcliffe led the Rebels to a 35-18 victory over the Red Raiders, quite arguably the biggest upset of the 1998 bowl season.

OFFENSIVE FIREWORKS OVER OXFORD

Cutcliffe, who is recognized as one of the top offensive minds in collegiate football, brought a high-powered offensive style that had Rebel fans waiting with anticipation for each season to start.

In his six seasons, the Rebels averaged more than 350 points per year, including shattering the record for points scored in a season during the 2003 campaign with 442. The previous mark was 391 points by the 2001 squad. During Cutcliffe's tenure, the Rebels set numerous game, season and career records.

Cutcliffe's football philosophy also translated into wins for the Rebel program. Under Cutcliffe, Ole Miss posted 44 overall victories, including four wins in the postseason.

In the time from 1997-2003, the Rebels played in six bowl games, which tied them with Arkansas for the most bowl appearances among SEC Western Division schools during that span. The only SEC teams that made bowl appearances all seven years were Florida, Georgia and Tennessee, all Eastern Division squads.

In 2003, Cutcliffe guided the Rebels, who many picked to finish fifth in the SEC's Western Division, to a 10-3 overall mark and a share of the SEC West title with eventual BCS National Champion LSU. The title was the Rebels' first league football title of any sort since winning the conference crown in 1963. Following their 31-28 victory over Oklahoma State in the SBC Cotton Bowl Classic, the Rebels ended the 2003 campaign with a No. 13 national ranking. It was Ole Miss' first New Year's bowl since the 1991 Gator Bowl against Michigan.

Cutcliffe preceded his 2003 campaign with four winning seasons in 1999 (8-4), 2000 (7-5), 2001 (7-4) and 2002 (7-6), becoming the first Rebel mentor since Harry Mehre (1938-41) to post winning marks in his first five years. Cutcliffe also directed Ole Miss to four bowl appearances in his first five seasons, and is the only head coach in Ole Miss history to do so.

COACH "O" PUTS REBELS ON RECRUITING MAP

On December 16, 2004, Ole Miss turned to one of college football's premier recruiters and defensive line coaches in Ed Orgeron. Orgeron took control of the Rebel program after serving the previous seven seasons as defensive line coach at the University of Southern California, where he played a key role in Pete Carroll's Trojans winning back-to-back national championships in 2003 and 2004. Orgeron also served as USC's recruiting coordinator from 2001-2004 and was named the 2004 National Recruiter of the Year by The Sporting News and Rivals.com.

Orgeron's talent as a recruiter created a buzz among Rebel fans and drew national attention when Ole Miss' 2006 signing class finished as high as ninth in the rankings. All three of his recruiting classes were listed among the best in college football.

NUTT LEADS REBELS TO CONSECUTIVE COTTON BOWLS

The Ole Miss football program sought a proven winner when Houston Nutt was introduced as the Rebels' 36th head coach on Nov. 28, 2007.

After guiding Arkansas to three SEC Western Division titles and eight bowl berths in his decade in Fayetteville, Nutt immediately reversed the Rebels' fortunes and guided Ole Miss to success that had not been experienced in Oxford in a half century.

Nutt's first two years at the helm produced consecutive nine-win seasons for the first time since 1961-62 and back-to-back January bowl victories for the first time since 1960-61.

In his first season in Oxford, Nutt led the Rebels to a 9-4 record (5-3 in the SEC), second in the West, a 47-34 win over Texas Tech in the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic and a No. 14 final national ranking.

Rising as high as No. 4 in the national rankings in 2009, Nutt's Rebels knocked off No. 8 LSU, Tennessee and Arkansas en route to a second straight berth in the Cotton Bowl, in which Ole Miss prevailed over No. 18 Oklahoma State 21-7. The Rebels finished 20th in the AP poll.

MISSISSIPPI NATIVE TABBED TO RETURN TITLES

A Mississippi native, inspirational leader and one of the nation's top rising coaches, Hugh Freeze was the first choice to return championships to Ole Miss Football and was introduced as the Rebels' 37th head coach on Dec. 5, 2011.

He certainly is off to a good start.

Hugh Freeze led the Rebels to seven wins in 2012, including the team's first bowl berth since 2009.

Inheriting a team that won just two games in 2011 and had lost 14 straight Southeastern Conference games, Freeze led Ole Miss to seven wins in 2012, including three SEC victories, and the team's first bowl berth since 2009.

A month after the Rebels capped the season with a 38-17 win over Pittsburgh in the BBVA Compass Bowl, Ole Miss was the talk of National Signing Day when Freeze and Co. landed a consensus top-10 class that was ranked as high as No. 2 by 247Sports and No. 5 by ESPN- the highest recorded signing class rankings in school history.

Freeze is the sixth head coach in program history to direct his team to a bowl appearance in his first season. The Rebels' seven wins could have been even more had they not lost three tight SEC games (Texas A&M, Vanderbilt, at LSU) by a combined 10 points.

Ole Miss has always been committed to having one of the top football programs in the nation, and the University has strengthened that commitment in recent years.

As part of the "Forward Together" campaign launched in 2011, a $12.5 million renovation and expansion of the Indoor Practice Facility began this spring. The project will be built in phases and is expected to be completed by early 2014.

Among the upgrades is the construction of a full kitchen and dining hall that will be part of the Ole Miss dining program and open to every student and faculty and staff member.

Other upgrades include a new team meeting room, a new head coach's office, a new recruiting room on the site of the current team room, which will contain trophies, memorable images and interactive exhibits and will celebrate the rich tradition of Rebel Football with recruits, alumni and fans.

The existing weight room will be expanded on the east side, widening the area by 2,000 square feet. The current locker room will also be enhanced and expanded and will include a new player lounge on the west side of the IPF.

With a north endzone expansion of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium on the horizon, the tradition continues for a program with a proud and storied history.

NOTE: Blocked punts and loss of yardage credited to team rather than individual after the 1954 season. Averages for Hapes (3 blocked), Conerly (4), Wilson (2), Day (1), Hovious (5), and Dillard (1) adjusted to conform. Prior to 1965, punters not given credit for 20 yards (touchback) assessed when punt carried over goal line.

THE PERFECT TEAM

1962 ... The year stands as a benchmark of change in the life of Ole Miss.

Legendary Rebel Head Coach John Vaught and his football team not only put together the only perfect season in the history of Ole Miss football, but they also captured the Billingsley, Litkenhous and Sagarin ratings national titles and their fifth SEC championship. The season's highlight came when the Rebels were invited to the prestigious Sugar Bowl, where they defeated the Arkansas Razorbacks 17-13. Vaught garnered SEC Coach of the Year honors.

Those associated with the 1962 team donated the funds for the "Walk of Champions" arch, located at the entrance to the Grove near the Student Union plaza. The site is the route for the football team's traditional "walk through The Grove" on game days. It was dedicated in the fall of 1998.

The purpose of the arch is to remind all athletes that they play for national championships, SEC championships and Ole Miss pride. The names of the coaches, players, trainers and managers who won the hearts of Rebel fans with their spirit and tenacity are listed on a plaque.

"Joe Wilkins, Larry 'Leo' Johnson and I first discussed the idea of an arch in the fall of 1997 while we were visiting in the Grove, and we agreed to pursue it," said Samuel W. Owen of Nashville, a member of the 1962 team. "We want the arch to stand as a symbol of what can be accomplished with teamwork, loyalty and trust."

THE LONGEST GAME

The November 3, 2001 contest between Ole Miss and Arkansas in Oxford kicked off at 6:06 p.m. (CT), and four hours and 14 minutes later, coaches, players, fans, media members and an ESPN2 national audience saw a game that will go down in the college football record books.

The Rebels and Razorbacks stood toe-to-toe in an epic, seven over-time battle, that saw the Hogs come out on top 58-56. It is tied for the longest OT game in NCAA history, and it remains the highest scoring game (both teams combined) on the Ole Miss all-time charts.

(NOTE: Modern Ole Miss Football Records, dated from 1933, are presented elsewhere in the Rebel Football Guide. Few team records were kept prior to the formation of the Southeastern Conference. Individual statistical achievements can be presented, however, and the foregoing table is an effort in that direction. Additional material, if documented, will be welcome.)

Jason Armstead (9) is congratulated by Doug Zeigler (89), following one of Armstead's three TDs versus the Razorbacks.

FIELD GOALS

Prior to 1959, modern-era college field goals were measured from the line of scrimmage to the goalposts. Since 1959, they have been measured from point of origin to the goalposts. To adjust, all goals kicked prior to 1959 were lengthened by seven yards. This rule was a suggested optional in 1958.

THE BATTLE FOR THE GOLDEN EGG

The following is the background as to how the Ole Miss-Mississippi State football game came to be known as the "Battle of the Golden Egg" or even "The Egg Bowl." Many of the excerpts are reprinted from the book "Mississippi Mayhem," written by William Banner, III.

Up until the 1926 meeting in Starkville, Ole Miss had only claimed five victories in the previous 23 football contests between the Rebels and Bulldogs. Thus, when Ole Miss claimed a 7-6 victory over then Mississippi A&M College, a celebration was due at Scott Field after that '26 contest.

Oddly, huge roars went up from both sides at the final whistle, not just from the Ole Miss stands. While the A&M players walked slowly off the field with heads bowed, wrote one newsman, the Maroon student section stood and sang the alma mater.

But on the east side, pandemonium. Well wishers rushed "like madmen onto the field," Webb Burke said in his 1957 interview. Some fans made a dash for the goal posts.irate Aggie supporters took after the ambitious Ole Miss group with cane bottom chairs, and fights broke out. The mayhem continued until most of the chairs were splintered.

As explained by the Reveille, A&M yearbook, "A few chairs had to be sacrificed over the heads of these to persuade them that was entirely the wrong attitude."

As described in a story for the Commercial Appeal by Ben Hilbun, who one day would become president of the Starkville school, "The phantom of victory, that for thirteen years eluded Ole Miss, returned to the bearded Berserkers ... and they won over A&M, their traditional rivals, 7 to 6." Ole Miss students fought for the goal posts, he continued, "but were restrained."

Ole Miss fans couldn't believe their victory. Through all their 13 defeats since 1910 (they did not play in 1912, 1913 and 1914) they had only scored in three games, counted just 33 points to A&M's 327, an average of 25-3.

Injuries to players were expected. But not to spectators. Ole Miss and A&M students, shocked by the battle that erupted after the game, vowed that it must not happen again.

The result was the Golden Egg, a trophy to cool the heat of battle, instituted the following season by joint agreement of the two student bodies.

Meanwhile, "The Battle of Starkville" continued in student newspapers. The Reflector denounced other newspaper stories complimenting the clean play, especially that of Ole Miss. The Aggie writers thought the Ole Miss players used some unfair tactics. The Mississippian asked, "Why 'gripe,' ye Aggie Scribe? Wait til 'next year.'"

The Reflector described the post-game battle. Only a band of "hoodlums," a writer declared, would swarm onto a field of victory to secure souvenirs. The Mississippian replied that the Aggie chair brigade which defended the goal posts "came to the field with malice aforethought ... with the intent of staging a 'free for all' ..."

The Golden Egg was first proposed by members of Iota Sigma, an Ole Miss honorary activities fraternity. As thoughts of last year's game, Iota Sigma proposed that a trophy be awarded in a dignified ceremony designed to calm excited fans. One proposal that was rejected was to send the goal posts to the winning side each year.

A&M approved the suggestion of an award, and Ole Miss, two weeks before the game, officially added its approval. The trophy, to be called "The Golden Egg", would be a regulation-size gold-plated football mounted on a pedestal. Costs of approximately $250 would be shared by both schools. Ole Miss students held a tag day to raise funds.

The joint resolution of the two student bodies declared they agreed on the trophy "in order to effect a better understanding in athletic relations, to foster clean sportsmanship, and to promote a lasting tradition..."

A brand-new series between the University of Mississippi and Mississippi A&M College began on Thanksgiving Day, 1927; the first Battle of the Golden Egg.

Of course, it was the Ole Miss-A&M slugfest, played before a crowd of 14,000 for the first possession of the gold football which was to become symbolic of supremacy in this annual feud-battle.

It was actually the 25th meeting of the two combatants. And for the second time in four years it was Push versus Pass, a heavier line versus a lighter passing attack. And once again the Pushers prevailed, except this time the pushing team was Ole Miss. The score was 20-12.

Purser Hewitt of the Clarion-Ledger described it best: "On the sidelines a band garbed in red and blue played 'Give 'em Hell, Mississippi' and on the gridiron a team wearing the same colors did that very thing..."

Unlike last year's brawl ending, the 1927 game closed with a highly dignified ceremony, the first presentation of the Golden Egg. As previously agreed in the inception of the egg, the schools first sang their alma maters, Ole Miss, as winner, sang first. The captains of the two teams, presidents of the two student bodies and the heads of the two schools met in the center of the field. B.M. Walker, president of A&M, presented the trophy to Alfred Hume, chancellor of the University, who turned it over to Ole Miss captain Applewhite.

The Mississippian, Ole Miss' student newspaper, reported "sincere handshaking" among players of both teams. And, "Throughout the day not a single demonstration of violence was committed..."

Captain Applewhite, proudly holding the Golden Egg, was carried from the field on the shoulders of "a score of students."

The Egg is one of the most treasured possessions of either school. It is engraved with the score of each year's game and stands in a place of honor. When a tie occurred, the previous year's winner kept it for the first half of the year, then it went to the other school.

The Spoils of Victory: Jubilant Ole Miss fans and players ran onto the field in 2012 to raise "The Golden Egg" above their heads after defeating Mississippi State 41-24 in Oxford in Hugh Freeze's first season as head coach of the Rebels.

The Ole Miss-Mississippi State series took on a new twist in 1978, a season which saw the Rebels 4-6 and the Bulldogs 6-4 heading into the season finale. As Steve Doyle of the Jackson, Miss., Clarion-Ledger reported in the Nov. 20 edition, "In a year in which neither team will be remembered, the Battle of the Golden Egg is a bowl game. Intense, heated, unbelievable in its lore, this one is for supremacy of the season. Bragging rights, recruiting edges and sheer pride are the guts of it. Every cliché you've ever heard about a single game applies to it."

In 1978, with both teams apparently out of the bowl picture, Executive Sports Editor Tom Patterson decided to do something extra to spice up coverage of the annual grudge match, instructing his staff to follow the "Egg Bowl" theme throughout the week. The result was an award winning special section on Sunday, which recounted in great detail the Rebels' stunning 27-7 victory over the highly-favored Bulldogs. In that game, John Fourcade made his first start at quarterback to become the first Ole Miss freshman since 1945 to receive the starting nod at the signal-caller slot. The special section was a big success and the die was cast. Patterson's idea, for the most part, has been continued by the paper since 1978. Although it's officially the "Battle of the Golden Egg," most members of the media now refer to the annual bloodletting simply as the "Egg Bowl."

In one of the series' most memorable battles, Ole Miss claimed a pulsating 24-23 victory over Mississippi State in Jackson, but it took some heroics on the part of the Rebels and a 40 miles-per-hour crosswind to decide the outcome. Down 17-0, Ole Miss got on the board when Timmy Moffett returned a punt 66 yards for a touchdown with 1:21 remaining in the first half. However, the Bulldogs added to their lead after the break, and the Rebels found themselves trailing 23-7 to start the fourth quarter. With the wind now at its back, Ole Miss utilized two fumble recoveries and an interception to take a late 24-23 advantage. But State made one last try and moved the ball to the Rebel 10 yardline with 24 seconds left. On fourth down, MSU kicker Artie Cosby attempted a 27-yard field goal, but as true as it was between the uprights, the ball never got there as the wind just slapped it down to give Ole Miss its first on-the-field winning season in eight years at 6-5 and a berth in the Independence Bowl.

1991

"The Battle of the Golden Egg" returned to campus in 1991 as Mississippi State hosted Ole Miss in Starkville. It marked the first on-campus meeting between the two teams since 1972. Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in Oxford was the site of the 1992 game, which Ole Miss won, 17-10 thanks to a thrilling goal-line stand. The series continues to rotate between campus sites.

1995

Ole Miss rode a school-record rushing performance and a stingy second-half deficit to a 13-10 victory over Mississippi State to regain the Egg Bowl Trophy. The win gave the Rebels a winning season and head coach Tommy Tuberville a triumph over the school's biggest rival in his first Egg Bowl game. Dou Innocent rushed for a record 242 yards on 39 carries to help the Rebels overcome an early 10-0 deficit. The Bulldogs never entered Ole Miss territory in the second half.

The 1997 contest provided another close contest and perhaps the most exciting finish ever in the series. Stewart Patridge hit Andre Rone for a 10-yard TD pass with 25 seconds left and then found Cory Peterson over the middle on the two-point conversion attempt to give the Rebels a 15-14 win over Mississippi State. The win propelled the Rebels to their first bowl game since the 1992 Liberty Bowl when they were rewarded with an invite to the inaugural Ford Motor City Bowl in Pontiac, Mich.

2000

Running back Deuce McAllister rushed for three touchdowns and passed for another to lead Ole Miss to a 45-30 victory on Thanksgiving Night. With it being Senior Night in Oxford, McAllister hooked up with fellow fourth-year Rebel Romaro Miller on a 20-yard halfback option TD toss. McAllister finished with 121 yards rushing on 24 carries, while Miller threw for 127 yards and ran for another 60. The win returned the Golden Egg to Oxford after a two-year absence.

2003

Eli Manning passed for 260 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Rebels to a 31-0 shutout win in his final regular-season collegiate game. The Ole Miss defense held the Bulldogs to only 91 yards passing and picked off one Mississippi State pass in Jackie Sherrill's final game as head coach on a rainy evening in Starkville. The win propelled the Rebels to the Cotton Bowl and their first 10 win season since 1971. The game was also the final of six straight Egg Bowls (1998-2003) played on Thanksgiving and televised nationally by ESPN.

2008

Jevan Snead threw for 213 yards and four touchdowns and Greg Hardy had three of Ole Miss' school-record 11 sacks, as the Rebels beat Mississippi State 45-0 in the most lopsided Egg Bowl in 37 years. The Rebels finished with a school-record minus-64 rushing yards allowed and 14 tackles for loss. Defensive end Greg Hardy and tackle Peria Jerry led the charge. Jerry had four tackles for loss, including two sacks.

2012

Paced by a three-touchdown performance from wide receiver Donte Moncrief, Ole Miss defeated No. 24 Mississippi State, 41-24. Moncrief had seven catches for a career-high 173 yards, the fourth-most in a single game in Ole Miss history. Quarterback Bo Wallace threw five touchdowns on the night. The Egg Bowl win propelled Ole Miss to its first bowl berth in three years and provided momentum that later saw the Rebels earn a BBVA Compass Bowl victory over Pitt in January and land the best signing class in school history the next month.

This year's "Battle for the Golden Egg" will take place on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, Nov. 28, at Davis Wade Stadium in Starkville, Miss. The match-up will be the 110th meeting between the two schools and the 86th Egg Bowl.

OLE MISS BOWL HISTORY

Ole Miss has a proud tradition of bowling that dates back to 1935, including what once was a national record of consecutive bowl appearances — from 1957 to 1972. It is a high standard of excellence which present-day Ole Miss football teams continue to strive for.

Ed Walker coached the first Ole Miss bowl team, the high-scoring outfit of 1935 which out-played, but was nipped by Catholic University, 20-19, in the 1936 Orange Bowl.

The next bowl for the Rebels was for the 1947 squad, a 12-year wait. But from there, with Coach John Howard Vaught at the Ole Miss helm, bowls came and kept coming after the Rebels following each season. Vaught took the Rebs to the ill-fated Delta Bowl in 1948, as the 1947 SEC Champions beat Texas Christian 13-9. Vaught had to wait until 1952 to go bowling again, but from that point forward, the Rebel mentor made post-season games a habit that was hard to break.

All-in-all, the Rebels participated in six Sugar Bowls, two Gators, one Cotton, two Bluebonnets, two Liberties, one Sun and one Peach during that run of 15 straight. Vaught's personal bowl record was 10-8, while Billy Kinard's 1971 Rebels, with a 9-2 record, earned a bid to play Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl, which produced a 41-18 triumph.

Ole Miss dropped out of the bowl picture after that 1971 Peach Bowl appearance with Georgia Tech. When Billy Brewer became head coach prior to the 1983 season, the Rebels had not been bowling for 12 years. During Brewer's 11 years as head coach, Ole Miss went to five bowls, twice to the Independence, twice to the Liberty, and once to the Gator. Brewer was 3-2 as a coach in bowl games.

The Rebels returned to postseason action in 1997 for the first time since the 1992 Liberty Bowl, and for the first time under Tommy Tuberville, as Ole Miss was invited to the inaugural Ford Motor City Bowl in Pontiac, Mich., where they defeated Marshall 34-31.

The Rebels then followed with what was probably the biggest upset of the 1998 bowl season, as Ole Miss defeated heavily favored Texas Tech, 35-18, in the Sanford Independence Bowl in head coach David Cutcliffe's debut. Ole Miss went 4-1 in the five bowl games it played in under Cutcliffe as head coach, including three victories in the Independence Bowl, and one victory in the Cotton Bowl (2004).

Ole Miss returned to the Cotton Bowl in 2009 and 2010 under Houston Nutt, who led the Rebels to 47-34 and 21-7 victories, respectively.

Under first-year head coach Hugh Freeze, Ole Miss played in its 34th bowl game all-time, defeating Pittsburgh 38-17 in the BBVA Compass Bowl in Birmingham, Ala. on Jan. 5, 2013. The Rebels set a number of BBVA Compass Bowl records, including most points scored by a team (38).

Editor's Note: Most of this section on Ole Miss' Bowl History was compiled and written by the late Billy Gates. Gates served as Sports Information Director at Ole Miss for 35 years until his death on Nov. 5, 1976. While serving as SID at Ole Miss, he helped promote 29 Rebels to All-America status in the sport of football and was a charter member of the CoSIDA Hall of Fame.

Catholic University 20
Ole Miss 19

Ray Hapes

In its inaugural bowl game, Ole Miss fell 20-19 to an opportunistic Catholic University squad from Washington, D.C., which at the time ranked as an Eastern power.

The Rebels held a 15-7 advantage in first downs and out-gained the Cardinal 265-172. However, Ole Miss was unable to overcome deficits of 13-0 and 19-7.

Catholic took a 7-0 lead after converting one of four Ole Miss picks on the day into a 51-yard scoring drive, capped by Bill Adamaitis' two-yard touchdown run.

The Cardinal increased its lead to 13-0 in the second quarter when Adamaitis connected with Speck Foley on a 48-yard touchdown pass.

Ole Miss would pull to within seven at 13-6 before halftime when Ned Peters ran 67 yards for a score.

The Rebels would hold Catholic without a first down in the second half; however, the Cardinal went up 20-7 by scoring a touchdown off a blocked punt.

Ole Miss would get two fourth-quarter scores for the 20-19 final. Dave Bernard scored on a one-yard run to make it 20-12 after the PAT attempt failed, and Herb Baumstein found Buster Poole for a 24-yard touchdown pass.

Ole Miss 13
TCU 9

Dixie Howell

Ole Miss recorded its first bowl victory with a 13-9 win over TCU in front of 28,120 at Memphis' Crump Stadium in the 1948 Delta Bowl.

Charlie Conerly passed for two fourth-quarter scores to rally the Rebels from a 9-0 deficit in his final game in an Ole Miss uniform.

Conerly's first touchdown pass was a 26-yarder to Joe Johnson to cut the Horned Frog's lead to 9-6.

After a Bobby Wilson interception, Conerly hit Johnson for 52 yards to the TCU 13. Conerly then found Dixie Howell from 13 yards for a touchdown. Bobby Oswalt, who missed on his earlier PAT attempt, was accurate his second time around to make it 13-9.

Red Buchanan then sealed the win with an interception at midfield to snuff out any TCU comeback attempt.

1953 SUGAR BOWL

Georgia Tech 24

Jimmy Lear

In its first of eight Sugar Bowl appearances, seventh-ranked Ole Miss dropped a 24-7 decision to No. 24 Georgia Tech.

The Rebels, who brought an 8-0-2 mark into the contest, struck early. Wissy Dillard's four-yard touchdown run and Jimmy Lear's PAT gave Ole Miss a 7-0 lead 3:45 into the game.

The Engineers would provide all the scoring the rest of the day. Georgia Tech got a touchdown and a field goal to take a 10-7 lead into intermission and then added a pair of touchdowns in the second half.

Georgia Tech would finish the year 12-0, and through the Sugar Bowl, had not been beaten in 25 starts.

Statistically, the game was even. Georgia Tech held a slight 16-15 advantage in first downs and a 295-287 edge in total offense. However, the Rebels were plagued by six turnovers.

George Harris

Navy shutdown an explosive Ole Miss offense en route to posting a 21-0 victory over the SEC Champion Rebels in front of 83,000 at the 1955 Sugar Bowl.

Ole Miss entered the game having outscored its opponents 283-47. However, the Midshipmen would outgain the Rebels 442-121, including holding a 295-78 advantage on the ground.

Navy took the opening kickoff and marched 70 yards for a three-yard touchdown run by Joe Gattuso to take a 7-0 lead. The Midshipmen would carry the seven-point lead into halftime.

Navy would also score on its first possession of the second half, taking the kickoff and marching 86 yards. John Weaver's 16-yard touchdown pass from George Welsh capped the 11-play drive and extended the lead to 14-0.

Gattuso would complete the scoring with his second touchdown, a one-yard run in the third quarter.

Eagle Day

Quarterback Eagle Day led Ole Miss to its first major bowl win with a 14-13 victory over TCU in the 1956 Cotton Bowl.

Jim Swink staked the Horned Frogs to a 13-0 lead with touchdown runs of one and 39 yards.

Day got the Rebels going with a four-play, 66-yard scoring drive that resulted in Paige Cothren's three-yard TD run to make it 13-7 at halftime.

After a scoreless third quarter,

Day would engineer another 66-yard scoring match. A 13-yard pass from Day to Cothren on fourth down moved the ball to the Horned Frog 32. Two plays later, Day sprinted 25 yards to the five. Billy Lott then broke around right end for a five-yard touchdown and Cothren's PAT gave the Rebels a 14-13 lead with 4:22 remaining.

Eddie Crawford thwarted any comeback attempt by TCU with an interception. Day would then manage to run out the clock to secure the victory for Ole Miss.

1958 GATOR BOWL

Florida 3

Richard Price

Jim Anderson's one-yard touchdown run in the first quarter proved to be enough as Ole Miss knocked off Florida 7-3 on an over-cast day in the 1958 Gator Bowl.

The Rebels took the game's opening kickoff and marched 70 yards for the game's only touchdown.

Florida would take the ensuing kickoff and score on Billy Booker's 27-yard field goal to make it 7-3 with 7:44 left in the first quarter. Neither team would score the rest of the game.

The Gators had two opportunities to take the lead in the fourth quarter.

A surprise quick kick by Florida's Bobby Joe Green traveled 76 yards to just outside the Rebel 10 to start the final period. Milton Crain, looking for someone to block, stumbled over the ball, and Dave Hudson covered for the Gators. Florida would move to the two, but Richard Price stuffed a fourth-and-goal attempt for the Gators.

After a short punt, the Gators took over at the Rebel 26 and advanced to the 15 before Bill Churchwell forced and recovered a fumble.

The two teams would then exchange punts, however, Jimmy Dunn bobbled a Rebel punt at the Florida 48 and Ole Miss recovered. The Rebels then ran out the final 3:10 of the game.

1960 SUGAR BOWL

Ole Miss 21

Bobby Franklin

A little over two months after Billy Cannon's famous 89-yard punt return on Halloween night lifted LSU to a 7-3 win over Ole Miss in Baton Rouge, the second-ranked Rebels and third-ranked Tigers were rematched in the 1960 Sugar Bowl.

This time, Ole Miss made sure there would be no heroics from Cannon. The Rebel defense limited the 1959 Heisman Trophy winner to eight yards on six carries. The Tigers managed just 74 yards total on the night and were a -15 in the rushing department.

Ole Miss, led by Bobby Franklin's two touchdown passes, totaled 363 yards of offense and rolled to a 21-0 victory.

Franklin finished 10-of-15 passing for 148 yards and had touchdown passes of 18 yards to Larry Grantham and nine yards to George Blair in the second half. He would garner the game's Outstanding Player honor.

Ole Miss would finish the year 10-1 and was recognized as national champions by the Berryman, Billingsley, Dunkel and Sagarin ratings.

The 1959 squad would also go on to earn "Team of the Decade" honors within the SEC by the Associated Press.

Ole Miss completed its 1960 National Championship season with a 14-6 win over Rice in the 1961 Sugar Bowl. With the win, the Rebels finished the year 10-0-1, with the only blemish coming in the fashion of a 6-6 tie with LSU in October.

Jake Gibbs scored both of Ole Miss' touchdowns with runs of eight and three yards. Gibbs' eight-yard scamper gave the Rebels a 7-0 lead in the first quarter.

The Owls used an 18-play, 77-yard scoring drive to make it 7-6 in the third. Butch Blaine completed the march with a two-yard run around the right end on fourth down. However, the PAT attempt failed, leaving the Rebels clinging to a one-point lead.

Ole Miss iced the game in the fourth quarter behind the running of Jim Anderson. Anderson's running helped set up Gibbs' three-yard score with 5:16 left.

Anderson finished the game with 59 yards rushing on 15 carries.

Following the game, Ole Miss was awarded the national title by the Football Writer's Association, and became the first SEC team to win the Grantland Rice Award.

Playing without All-America fullback Billy Ray Adams, Ole Miss became a 12-7 upset victim to Texas in the 1962 Cotton Bowl.

Adams was injured in a car accident two days after the Rebels' 37-7 win over Mississippi State in November, after returning from Jackson to attend a touchdown club meeting.

Ole Miss came into the contest sporting a 9-1 record and having outscored its opponents 326-40. However, without Adams, the Longhorns made sure the Rebels didn't do damage through the air with All-America quarterback Glynn Griffing.

The Rebels held a 319-183 advantage in total offense, but couldn't overcome six turnovers, including five interceptions.

Griffing was 12-of-29 for 163 yards with three interceptions and a touchdown. Doug Elmore was intercepted twice in eight pass attempts.

Ole Miss' only points of the day came in the third quarter when Reed Davis scored on a 20-yard touchdown pass from Griffing to make it 12-7.

Louis Guy

Ole Miss completed a perfect 10-0 season with a 17-13 victory over Arkansas in the 1963 Sugar Bowl.

Quarterback Glynn Griffing was a near unanimous selection for the game's Most Valuable Player Award. He connected on 14-of-23 passes for 242 yards with one touchdown and one interception to break Davey O'Brien's 24-year-old Sugar Bowl passing yards record.

As effective as Griffing was through the air, it was his one-yard touchdown run in the third quarter that broke a 10-10 tie and put the Rebels up for good.

The Razorbacks could only answer with a 22-yard field goal from Tom McNelly with 1:33 left in the third quarter.

Griffing's 33-yard touchdown pass to Louis Guy gave Ole Miss a 10-3 lead heading into the intermission.

Four plus inches of snow fell on New Orleans the day before Ole Miss took the field against Alabama in the 1964 Sugar Bowl.

Under the slippery conditions, the Rebels and Crimson Tide combined for 17 fumbles, including nine lost. Unfortunately for Ole Miss, the Rebels would fumble 11 times and lose six.

Alabama would also intercept three Ole Miss passes en route to receiving four Tim Davis field goals and post a 12-7 win.

Ole Miss' lone score would come in the fourth quarter on a five-yard pass from Perry Lee Dunn to Lee Smith to provide the 12-7 final.

The Rebels ended up with a 248-194 advantage in total offense, but most of the yards came too late. The Crimson Tide held a 112-34 edge in the first half to build a 9-0 halftime lead.

Tulsa quarterback Jerry Rhome passed for 252 yards and a score, and scored on a one-yard touchdown run to lead the Golden Hurricane to a 14-7 win in the 1964 Bluebonnet Bowl.

Rebel quarterback Jim Weatherly spotted Ole Miss a 7-0 lead with a one-yard scoring run in the second quarter.

Rhyme's one-yard run tied the game at 7-7 heading into the half, and capped a 72-yard, eight play march by Tulsa.

Rhyme would strike again midway through the third quarter. His 35-yard touchdown pass to Eddie Fletcher put Tulsa up 14-7 and the Golden Hurricane defense would hold the rest of the way.

Tulsa limited Ole Miss to 217 yards of total offense, while the Golden Hurricane totaled 323.

Weatherly was 16-of-24 passing, but managed just 113 yards and was intercepted twice.

Mike Dennis rushed for a game-high 73 yards on 17 carries and also caught nine passes for 114 yards.

Auburn drove to the Ole Miss nine with 33 seconds left in the game, but Tiger quarterback Alex Bowden was sacked on fourth down.

Keyes' first field goal, a 42-yarder in the second quarter, gave Ole Miss a 3-0 lead. The Tigers would quickly answer with a 44-yard touchdown run by fullback Tom Bryan with 6:58 left in the first half.

Ole Miss would take the lead for good in the third quarter when Doug Cunningham caught a six-yard touchdown pass from Jody Graves.

Keyes would later add a 30-yard field goal in the fourth quarter to provide the 13-7 margin.

Tailback Mike Dennis rushed for 75 yards on 15 carries for Ole Miss, and quarterback Jimmy Heidel added 72 yards on 16 attempts.

Bruce Newell

Ole Miss entered the 1966 Bluebonnet Bowl having recorded five shutouts and allowing only 46 points en route to an 8-2 regular season.

However, it was the defense of Texas that would shine in this match-up.

The Longhorns limited the Rebels to 208 yards of offense and posted a shutout in a 19-0 victory.

Texas had scoring drives of 89, 68 and 53 yards.

Ole Miss had only two scoring threats on the day. On the first, Jimmy Keyes' 43-yard field goal attempt was wide. Later in the third quarter, the Rebels were stopped on fourth down at the Texas eight.

Texas running back Chris Gilbert rushed for 156 yards on 26 carries, including a one-yard touchdown run to give the Longhorns a 12-0 lead in the third.

Doug Cunningham had 60 yards on 12 rushes for Ole Miss, and also caught three passes for 17 yards.

1967 SUN BOWL

Texas-El Paso 14

Mac McClure

The University of Texas at El Paso scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and used a stingy defense to hand Ole Miss a 14-7 loss in front of 34,685 at the Sun Bowl in El Paso, Texas.

After a scoreless first quarter, Ole Miss took a 7-0 lead on a one-yard run by quarterback Bruce Newell. After that, the Rebels could manage very little offensively.

The Miners would limit Ole

Miss to just 109 yards of total offense for the game.

Still, the Rebels carried a 7-0 lead into the final 15 minutes.

UTEP, though, would get a five-yard touchdown pass from Billy Stevens to Dave Karns to tie the score at 7-7 with 14:18 remaining.

The Miners would score the game-winning touchdown with 7:52 left when Larry McHenry found the end zone from four yards out.

Stevens finished the game 13-of-26 for 155 yards with one touchdown and one interception to earn Most Valuable Player honors.

1968 LIBERTY BOWL

Ole Miss 34
Virginia Tech 17

Steve Hindman

Ole Miss erased a 17-0 first quarter deficit to roll to a 34-17 win over Virginia Tech in the 1968 Liberty Bowl, in front of 42,206 on a bright, bitterly cold afternoon in Memphis.

Archie Manning's 24-yard touchdown pass to Hank Shows early in the second quarter put the Rebels on the board and trimmed the Hokies' lead to 17-7. Manning would later find Leon Felts for a 23-yard touchdown pass to pull Ole Miss to within three at 17-14 heading into the break.

Steven Hindman broke a 79-yard scoring run just 21 seconds into the third quarter to give the Rebels the first lead of the day at 21-17.

Ole Miss would also get a 70-yard interception return for a touchdown by Robert Bailey and a pair of Van Brown field goals.

Hindman finished with 122 yards rushing on 15 carries and was named the game's Most Valuable Player and Outstanding Back.

Junior quarterback Archie Manning passed for one touchdown and rushed for another to lead No. 13 Ole Miss to a 27-22 upset of No. 3 Arkansas in the 36th annual Sugar Bowl Classic.

Cloyce Hinton gave the Rebels a 27-12 lead with a 36-yard field goal in the third quarter, before the Razorbacks would begin to rally.

Arkansas received a 35-yard field goal from Bill McClard to cut the Ole Miss lead to 27-15 entering the fourth quarter.

The Razorbacks then intercepted a Manning pass and took over at the Rebel 11. Two plays later, Bill Montgomery completed a six-yard touchdown pass to Bill Burnett to pull Arkansas to within 27-22 with 10:15 left.

Later, with 1:15 left in the game, Arkansas moved to the Ole Miss 36. Montgomery threw a strike to Chuck Dicus for 11 yards, however, Glenn Cannon's hit stripped Dicus of the ball and the Rebels recovered to secure the win.

Manning finished 21-of-35 passing for 273 yards with two interceptions. He also added 39 yards rushing to earn Most Outstanding Player honors.

Archie Manning recorded 275 yards of total offense in his final game at Ole Miss, but it wasn't enough to rally the Rebels past Auburn, as the Tigers took home a 35-28 win in the 1971 Gator Bowl.

The game also marked the Rebels' 18th and final bowl appearance under head coach John Vaught.

Behind quarterback Pat Sullivan, the Tigers built a 21-0 second-quarter lead before Manning engineered two touchdown drives before the half to make it 21-14.

The two teams would then trade touchdowns in the second half.

Manning finished completeing 19-of-28 passes for 180 yards with an interception. He connected with Floyd Franks on a 34-yard touchdown pass in the second quarter to make it 21-14.

Manning also added 95 yards rushing on 11 carries and scored Ole Miss' first points of the game on a two-yard run in the second quarter.

Sullivan passed for 351 yards and two scores for the Tigers. He completed 27-of-43 attempts and was intercepted once.

Norris Weese

Ole Miss built a 38-6 halftime lead en route to a 41-18 win over Georgia Tech in the 1971 Peach Bowl, played on a soggy field at Atlanta Stadium.

The victory gave first-year head coach Billy Kinard a win in his first bowl game and completed a 10-2 season for Ole Miss.

Quarterback Norris Weese passed for 116 yards and added 32 rushing to earn the Most Valuable Offensive Player trophy. He gave the Rebels a 7-0 lead in the first quarter on a one-yard run and connected on an 11-yard touchdown pass to Riley Myers to make it 38-6.

Linebacker Crowell Armstrong took home the Most Valuable Defensive Player trophy.

Tailback Greg Ainsworth rushed for a game-high 119 yards on 28 carries.

1983 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Ole Miss 3

Andre Townsend

Ole Miss ended a 12-year drought with an appearance in the 1983 Independence Bowl. However, the Rebels return to the postseason wouldn't be a succesful one as nationally-ranked Air Force used three field goals from Sean Pavlich to forge a 9-3 win on a rainy evening in Shreveport, La.

The Rebels held in check a powerful wishbone attack by the Falcons, one which averaged more than 400 yards per game during the 1983 season. Ole Miss used a gallant goal line stand midway through the fourth quarter to stay within striking range.

Pavlich gave Air Force a 6-0 lead with field goals of 44 and 39 yards. The Rebels got on the board just before halftime on a 39-yard field goal by Neil Teevan with four seconds remaining.

Pavlich's third field goal of the night, a 27-yarder with 7:59 left in the third quarter, marked the end of the scoring.

Air Force held a 348-244 advantage in total offense and had a 37:13 edge in time of possession.

Buford McGee rushed for 11 yards on 22 carries for the Rebels.

The 1983 Independence Bowl marked Ole Miss' first bowl appearance under head coach Billy Brewer.

Texas Tech 17

Mark Young

Mark Young passed for an Ole Miss bowl record of 343 yards to lead the Rebels to the first bowl victory in 15 years with a 20-17 victory over Texas Tech in the 1986 Independence Bowl.

Young would break five school bowl records, all held by former standout Archie Manning, on his way to being named Offensive Player of the Game. Young completed 31-of-50 passes and had 314 yards of total offense in 62 plays. All were new Rebel marks.

Ole Miss lead 17-7 at halftime as Bryan Owen hit a 21-yard field goal with one second left in the first half.

Texas Tech pulled to within 17-14 early in the third quarter when Merv Scurlak returned an interception 33 yards for a score. The Red Raiders then tied the game on Scott Segrist's 19-yard field goal with 14:52 left in the game.

Young and the Rebels would answer on the next possession with a 48-yard field goal by Owen with 12:16 remaining to break the 17-17 deadlock.

John Darnell

In a game billed to be an offensive shootout, Ole Miss outlasted Air Force 42-29 in the 31st annual Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn.

Chucky Mullins, the defensive back who was paralyzed in an October 28, game with Vanderbilt, visited the Ole Miss locker room prior to the game in his first trip outside Baptist Memorial Hospital in Memphis since the injury.

The visit seemed to energize the Rebels as they raced to a 28-9 halftime lead.

Liberty Bowl MVP Randy Baldwin rushed for 177 yards on 14 carries with two touchdowns, and John Darnell passed for 261 yards and a score.

The two teams combined for 55 first downs and 1,046 yards of total offense. Ole Miss held a 30-25 advantage in first downs, and a 533-513 edge in total yards.

Russ Shows

For the third time in 10 years, Ole Miss and Air Force faced each other in a bowl game. For the second time in four years, that match-up took place in the Liberty Bowl.

Behind the play of linebacker Cassius Ware, Ole Miss held Air Force to 185 yards of total offense to pitch a 13-0 shutout of the Falcons. The shutout marked the first time in 150 games that Air Force had been held scoreless.

Ware was credited with 10 tackles, including two sacks, to earn Liberty Bowl MVP honors.

Dou Innocent gave Ole Miss a 7-0 lead with a five-yard touchdown run in the first quarter. The Rebels would then receive field goals of 24 and 29 yards from Brian Lee.

Innocent finished with 65 yards on 17 carries and Cory Philpot added 55 yards rushing on 10 attempts.

Quarterback Russ Shows completed 9-of-19 passes for 163 yards.

Deuce McAllister

Freshman running back Deuce McAllister's one-yard plunge with 31 seconds remaining lifted Ole Miss to a 34-31 win over Marshall in the inaugural Motor City Bowl, played at the Pontiac Silverdome.

The Motor City Bowl marked the Rebels' first postseason appearance after a four-year hiatus, and was Ole Miss' first under head coach Tommy Tuberville.

Senior quarterback Stewart Patridge garnered MVP honors, passing for 332 yards and three touchdowns. He completed 29-of-47 passes and was intercepted once.

The Thundering Herd, of the Mid-American Conference, featured Chad Pennington. Pennington was 23-of-45 passing for 337 yards and three touchdowns, and Randy Moss caught six passes for 173 yards and a score.

The two teams combined for 1,000 yards of total offense and the game featured six lead changes.

Romaro Miller

Sophomore quarterback Romaro Miller returned from a broken collarbone suffered three weeks earlier to pass for 216 yards and three touchdowns to lead Ole Miss to a 35-18 win over Texas Tech in the 1998 Independence Bowl.

The game also marked the Rebel debut of head coach David Cutcliffe, who was hired less than a month before the game from his offensive coordinator position at Tennessee.

Miller completed 14-of-23 passes and was intercepted once. His three touchdown passes set a new Independence Bowl record, and he also garnered Offensive MVP honors.

Junior defensive tackle Kendrick Clancy anchored an Ole Miss defense that limited the Red Raiders to 285 yards of total offense. Clancy would earn the bowl's Defensive MVP honors.

Sophomore running back Deuce McAllister scored three touchdowns on the evening. He scored on a 32-yard pass from Miller in the second quarter to give the Rebels a 14-7 lead. He later scored on a four-yard run to make it 28-10 and capped the scoring by returning an onside kick 48 yards with 38 seconds remaining.

Les Binkley

Les Binkley's 39-yard field goal as time expired lifted Ole Miss to a 27-25 win over Oklahoma, New Year's Eve night in the 1999 Sanford Independence Bowl. The contest was the final college football game of the 20th century.

The Sooners had taken a 25-24 lead with 2:17 left in the fourth quarter when Josh Heupel found Quenton Griffin for a 17-yard touchdown pass.

Deuce McAllister would return the ensuing kickoff 42 yards to the Ole Miss 43. He then reeled off runs of eight and nine yards to move the Rebels into Sooner territory and helped set up Binkley's game-winning field goal.

McAllister finished with 239 all-purpose yards, including 121 yards rushing on 17 carries. He broke an 80-yard touchdown run in the second quarter to give the Rebels a 21-3 half-time lead.

Eli Manning

Redshirt freshman quarterback Eli Manning came off the bench to throw three fourth-quarter touchdown passes, but it wasn't enough to overcome a 49-9 deficit as Ole Miss fell 49-38 to West Virginia in the 2000 Music City Bowl. The game was the final one for Mountaineer head coach Don Nehlen's 21-year career at the school.

Leading 35-9 at the half, Shawn Terry returned the second half kickoff 99 yards to extend the West Virginia lead to 42-9. The Mountaineers then made it 49-9 on a 10-yard pass from Brad Lewis to Khorl Ivy.

Romaro Miller scored on a seven-yard run with 7:52 left in the third quarter to make it 49-16 before Manning would take over the offense.

In the final 15 minutes, Manning threw touchdown passes of 23 yards to Jamie Armstrong, 18 yards to Omar Rayford and 16 yards to Toward Sanford.

Manning's three touchdown passes tied an Ole Miss bowl record. He finished 12-of-20 for 167 yards and was intercepted once.

2002 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Ole Miss 27
Nebraska 23

Jesse Mitchell

Jonathan Nichols' 43-yard field goal with 4:36 remaining in the game helped Ole Miss post a 27-23 win over Nebraska in the 2002 Independence Bowl.

Junior quarterback Eli Manning completed 25-of-44 passes for 313 yards and a touchdown to earn Most Valuable Offensive Player honors.

The Cornhuskers took a 17-7 lead with 2:43 left in the first half when Deluan Groce returned a punt 60 yards for a score.

Manning would engineer a nine-play, 88-yard drive in 1:11, capped by a one-yard run by Toward Sanford to pull the Rebels to within 17-14 at halftime.

Nichols tied the game in the third quarter with a 37-yard field goal and Nebraska answered with a 23-yard field goal by Josh Brown to take a 20-17 lead with 7:06 left in the quarter.

Sanford's second one-yard touchdown run of the day with 3:24 left in the third quarter put Ole Miss on top for good at 24-20.

Eli Manning

After a 42-year hiatus, the Rebels made a triumphant return to Dallas as 16th-ranked Ole Miss claimed a 31-28 win over 21st-ranked Oklahoma State in the 2004 playing of the SBC Cotton Bowl.

Eli Manning led the charge for the Rebels as the senior quarterback and Heisman finalist passed for 259 yards and three touchdowns on his way to Offensive MVP honors as he rallied the Rebels from a 14-7 deficit in the second quarter.

Manning finished the day 22-of-31 with one interception and two touchdown passes.

With the victory, the Rebels celebrated their first Cotton Bowl appearance since 1962 with a win over a nationally ranked program from the Big 12 and capped off the first 10-win season for the program since 1971 and improved the Rebels to a 2-1 record in the Cotton Bowl.

Jevan Snead

Behind Jevan Snead's passing, Dexter McCluster's squirming runs and some big returns by Marshay Green, No. 20 Ole Miss overcame an early deficit and beat No. 8 Texas Tech 47-34 Friday in the final Cotton Bowl played in the stadium of the same name.

The Red Raiders (11-2) converted a pair of early turnovers into a 14-0 lead, but Snead led the Rebels to touchdowns on their next three drives, followed by a go-ahead field goal shortly before halftime. Once Green returned an interception 65 yards for a touchdown early in the third quarter, Ole Miss (9-4) was well on its way to capping coach Houston Nutt's first season in grand style.

This was Ole Miss' sixth straight win, matching its longest streak since 2003, when Eli Manning was a senior. That also was the last time the Rebels had been to a bowl.

Dexter McCluster

Dexter McCluster gave Ole Miss fans a finale to remember, rushing for 184 yards and two touchdowns, including the go-ahead 2-yard run on a direct snap with 4:03 left as the Rebels beat No. 18 Oklahoma State 21-7 in the Cotton Bowl on Saturday.

McCluster also had an 86-yard TD run in the second quarter after the senior had already become the first Southeastern Conference player with 1,000 yards rushing and 500 yards receiving in the same season.

Ole Miss (9-4) had five turnovers in the game, but Oklahoma State had six in the fourth quarter, and seven overall.

McCluster was the obvious standout, the game's offensive MVP for the second year in a row. He had 34 carries along with five catches for 45 yards. He leaves Ole Miss with 3,923 career all-purpose yards, second in school history behind Deuce McAllister's 4,889.

After becoming only Ole Miss' fourth 1,000-yard rusher on his third carry of the game, McCluster surpassed 500 yards receiving on the final play of the first quarter. Yet, his best was still to come.

McCluster's 86-yard TD run in the second quarter came on a handoff from freshman quarterback Nathan Stanley. McCluster went to the right and through a gap, running untouched for the second-longest run in the 74-year history of the Cotton Bowl.

2013 BBVA COMPASS BOWL

Ole Miss 38
Pittsburgh 17

Bo Wallace

It was worth the wait.

Six weeks after closing out its regular season by defeating No. 24 Mississippi State to bring home the Egg Bowl trophy for the first time since 2008, Ole Miss (7-6) took down Pitt in the BBVA Compass Bowl in Birmingham, Ala., 38-17. It was Ole Miss' first bowl appearance since topping Oklahoma State 21-7 in the 2010 AT&T Cotton Bowl. The 38 points scored by Ole Miss is a BBVA Compass Bowl record.

"I try to not make too much out of a single game either way, but it's no question that this advances our journey a bit and the process we're on to develop in the SEC West year in and year out," Ole Miss head coach Hugh Freeze said.

Ole Miss has now won nine of its last 10 bowl games and each of its last five. The win moves Ole Miss' bowl record to 22-12. The Rebels' 22 bowl victories are tied for the 10th most in the country with Auburn and LSU.

Ole Miss sophomore quarterback Bo Wallace, the BBVA Compass Bowl MVP, finished the game 22-32 passing for 151 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions. The Rebels spread the ball around through the air with three receivers catching five or more passes. Freshman running back I'Tavius Mathers led Ole Miss on the ground with six carries for 96 yards, including a 62-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter, the longest in BBVA Compass Bowl history.

On the defensive side of the ball, junior middle linebacker Mike Marry led Ole Miss with seven tackles, four tackles for loss and a forced fumble.

Playing in front of a predominantly red-clad BBVA Compass Bowl record crowd of 59,135, Ole Miss got off to a quick start. Rebels cornerback Senquez Golson dropped back into coverage and picked off Pitt quarterback Tino Sunseri's pass and returned it to the Panthers' 23-yard line. The interception was Golson's third of the season, with all three coming in the last three games.

Following Golson's interception, which was just the third against Sunseri this season, Wallace capped off a five-play, 23-yard drive with a 14-yard touchdown pass to junior wide receiver Ja-Mes Logan to give the Rebels a 7-0 lead.

Wallace later completed his eighth consecutive pass to start the game with a 27-yard touchdown pass to senior wide receiver Randall Mackey, who made a gorgeous diving catch in the end zone to give the Rebels a 14-0 lead. Mackey's touchdown reception was the first of his career.

Following a Pitt touchdown, Wallace completed his third touchdown pass of the game with an 18-yard strike to sophomore wide receiver Vince Sanders. The touchdown pass, Wallace's 22nd of the year, moved him up to fourth on the Ole Miss single-season list, surpassing Eli Manning's 2002 total of 21.

The Rebels closed out the first half with a 31-yard field goal from Bryon Rose that gave the Rebels a 24-10 lead going into the break. Ole Miss' 24 first-half points tied the BBVA Compass Bowl record for most points scored in a half.

Ole Miss took a 21-point lead with 21 seconds remaining in the third quarter on a one-yard quarterback sneak from Barry Brunetti that put the game on ice. The Rebels' defense gave up just four yards in the entire third quarter, and did not allow a single first down.

Following the game, Freeze was doused with yellow Gatorade and spoke about how far Ole Miss came during the season after being picked to finish last in the Southeastern Conference in the preseason prognostications.

"Our guys really chose to buy in and decided we can determine who we want to be. We don't have to have someone else determine that," Freeze said. "I didn't know if we could (go to a bowl) or not, but I knew we could attack each week as an individual challenge and game. I was very clear with our goal in year one, that was to play with passion of football for our great university. I have no question, it was not always the prettiest thing, but I don't doubt one single game that we didn't give passion for our university."

NOTE: The overall record for each season includes bowl victories. However, the total points for each year through 2001 includes only regular-season contests. For the years the Rebels played in a bowl game prior to 2002, the points are not included because the NCAA did not count bowl game statistics.

In 1969, Alabama defeated Ole Miss (33-32) in what is considered one of college football's greatest games. Rebel quarterback Archie Manning put on a tremendous effort that evening in Birmingham as the Drew redhead accounted for 540 yards and three TDs, completing 33 passes for 436 yards and rushing 15 times for another 104.

OLE MISS PAGEANTRY

THE GROVE

When Billy Brewer became head football coach at Ole Miss in 1983, he was searching for a way to allow his team to experience the atmosphere and pageantry Rebel fans enjoyed in The Grove while tailgating on gameday. The Grove is a 10-acre grassy plot of ground in the center of campus that is heavily shaded by large oak trees.

Taking a different route two hours before kickoff each home game, Brewer would walk with the team from Kinard Hall, the athletic dormitory, across campus to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

In 1985, Brewer started going the same route each Saturday as the team would enter The Grove on the east side of the Student Union and proceed down a sidewalk that runs through The Grove. Ole Miss fans fight for position on both sides of the sidewalk and greet the players with loud cheers. The braver fans even reach out and touch the players as they pass before them.

In the fall of 1998, a "Walk of Champions" arch was erected on the east side of The Grove, where the Rebel players begin their walk for every Saturday home game. The "Walk of Champions" arch was given to the University by the 1962 Rebel football team, which is the only squad in Ole Miss football history to finish a campaign with a perfect record (10-0). The 1962 team won the SEC title and was also named National Champion by the Litkenhous Ratings.

What has become a tradition on Ole Miss football Saturdays continues under head coach Hugh Freeze.

The Grove and Ole Miss produce one of the most unique college football experiences in the South and nationwide. Sporting News ranked it among college football's greatest traditions and described The Grove as "the Holy Grail of tailgating sites." In listing America's top sports colleges, Sports Illustrated named Ole Miss the nation's No. 1 tailgating school.

Widely recognized as one of the best tailgating experiences in the country, The Grove has been featured in such publications as The New York Times, Sports Illustrated and Sporting News.

OLE MISS

The University's nickname — Ole Miss — became part of the institution over 100 years ago, in 1896, when it was selected in a contest held to identify a new student publication, the yearbook. It was suggested by the late Miss Elma Meek of Oxford. Each succeeding issue of the annual has been given this copyrighted identity. The name gradually became synonymous with the University and is now a treasured segment of University history. The late Frank E. Everett, Jr., B.A. '32, LLB '34, put it best when he wrote:

There is a valid distinction between The University and Ole Miss even though the separate threads are closely interwoven.

The University is buildings, trees and people. Ole Miss is mood, emotion and personality. One is physical, and the other is spiritual. One is tangible, and the other intangible.

The University is respected, but Ole Miss is loved. The University gives a diploma and regrettably terminates tenure, but one never graduates from Ole Miss.

REBELS

The name REBELS emerged as Ole Miss' official athletic nickname in 1936. Suggested by Judge Ben Guider of Vicksburg, it was one of five entries submitted to Southern sports writers for final selection from a list totaling more than 200 proposed nicknames. The promotion was a contest sponsored by The Mississippian, the student newspaper. Of the 42 newsmen contacted, 21 responded. "Rebels" was the choice of 18. The University Athletic Committee made the name official with the Committee chairman, the late Judge William Hemingway, stating: "If 18 sports writers wish to use 'Rebels', I shall not rebel, so let it go 'Ole Miss Rebels.'"

RED & BLUE

In 1893, when Ole Miss' first football team was in training for a five-game season, Dr. A.L. Bondurant, organizer and manager-coach, later recalled that "the team had much discussion as to the colors that should be adopted, but it was finally suggested by the manager that the union of the Crimson of Harvard and the Navy Blue of Yale would be very harmonious, and that it was well to have the spirit of both of these good colleges." These were adopted as the football colors, and have since been adopted by the University as its athletic colors. The PMS numbers for the Ole Miss red and blue are as follows: Red 186, Blue 2767.

Ole Miss

Rebel joined the Ole Miss Family in 2010-11. A student-led initiative to find a new on-field mascot concluded with the announcement of Rebel on Oct. 14, 2010, and he made his first public appearance April 5, 2011 at Blair E. Batson Hospital for Children in Jackson, Miss.

HOMEcoming AT OLE MISS

Homecoming at Ole Miss was formed as a weekend when alumni would reunite on the Oxford campus. It wasn't until 1924 that Homecoming became centered around a Rebel football game.

November 22, 1924, is recognized as the first official Homecoming football celebration at Ole Miss. On that day, the Rebels defeated Mississippi College 10-6. Since then, the Homecoming football game and Homecoming weekend have been an annual event at Ole Miss.

Homecoming is a tradition on nearly every collegiate campus. At Ole Miss, it holds a special place in the hearts of all University alumni and current students. In 1928, the University students felt it a privilege to invite all former graduates back to the Ole Miss grounds.

"We bid hearty welcome to the alumni on the campus today," wrote J.P. Dale, the editor of The Mississippian. "It is always a pleasure for the student body to receive you, and to attempt to make you feel at home here as of yore. There are many ties that bind the old grad to his Alma Mater, but the greatest of all the ties, and the one lasting tie, is that feeling of love and veneration of the traditions of Ole Miss."

The first Homecoming parade is believed to have taken place in 1930. That year, students held a pep rally followed by a huge bonfire where freshmen dressed in pajamas and joined the Ole Miss marching band as the procession continued on toward downtown.

The Homecoming parade, which has a wide range of participants from the University, still takes place today with the help of the Oxford community. The University celebrates by inducting five new members into the Ole Miss Alumni Hall of Fame. It also honors tradition by selecting a Homecoming Queen and her court.

The Rebels have found much success when hosting a foe on Homecoming. Entering this year's date with Auburn, Ole Miss owns an impressive 68-15-2 record in Homecoming games. The Rebels have won 25 of the last 30 Homecoming contests.

ALMA MATER

Way down south in Mississippi
There's a spot that ever calls

Where among the hills enfolded
Stand ole Alma Mater's halls

Where the trees lift high their branches
To the whisp'ring southern breeze

There Ole Miss is calling, calling
To our hearts' fond memories.

With united hearts we praise thee,
All our loyalty in thine,

And we hail thee, Alma Mater,
May thy light forever shine;

May it brighter grow and brighter
And with deep affection true,

Our thoughts shall ever cluster 'round thee,
Dear old Red and Blue.

May thy fame throughout the nation,
Thru thy sons and daughters grow,

May thy name forever waken,
In our hearts a tender glow,

May thy counsel and thy spirit
Ever keep us one in this,

That our own shall be thine honor,
Now and ever, dear Ole Miss.

OLE MISS CREED

The University of Mississippi is a community of learning dedicated to nurturing excellence in intellectual inquiry and personal character in an open and diverse environment. As a voluntary member of this community:

I believe in respect for the dignity of each person
I believe in fairness and civility
I believe in personal and professional integrity
I believe in academic honesty
I believe in academic freedom
I believe in good stewardship of our resources

I pledge to uphold these values and encourage others to follow my example

CHARLIE CONERLY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Ole Miss football stand-out Charlie Conerly was an unassuming man — never one to blow his own horn. He rarely celebrated after scoring a touchdown. He would simply hand the ball to the referee and trot to the sideline.

"Charlie was a shy man," said New York Giants teammate Frank Gifford. "He didn't want to stand out. He didn't even like trophies. He was very sensitive about receiving praise."

Off the field, Conerly also remained reserved. Perian Conerly said that her late husband wouldn't understand why the Charlie Conerly Memorial Athletic Scholarship at the University of Mississippi was named in his honor, but he would be thrilled about the opportunity the scholarship provided.

"Charlie never would have gone to college without his football scholarship at Ole Miss," she said. "That opportunity changed his life."

One of the greatest football players ever to wear an Ole Miss uniform and a beloved alumnus, Conerly will be remembered for generations to come through the Charlie Conerly Memorial Athletic Scholarship. The $100,000 endowment was set up by his wife for deserving student-athletes.

"The endowment is a widow's mite when compared to other donations, but it's a very important scholarship for future players," she said.

A Clarksdale, Miss., native, Conerly passed away Feb. 13, 1996, after a lengthy illness. Affectionately known as Chunkin' Charlie, the former quarterback thrilled Ole Miss fans as he led the Rebels to their first Southeastern Conference Championship in 1947 and a victory over Texas Christian University in the Delta Bowl.

Conerly earned three letters at Ole Miss, playing in 1942, 1946 and 1947, earning All-America honors his senior season and All-SEC accolades twice. He interrupted his undergraduate career to serve with the U.S. Marines in World War II.

After graduation, Conerly joined the NFL's New York Giants, leading them to the 1956 NFL Championship. He was named 1948 NFL Rookie of the Year and the League's Most Valuable Player in 1959. Conerly ended his career in 1961 with 1,418 career completions, including 173 touchdown passes. His Giants number 42 was retired in 1962. "Charlie had an incredible arm and a great feel for the game," said Gifford. "He was a tremendous athlete, and by the end of his career, he was a sports hero for New York." Perian Conerly authored "Backseat Quarterback" (Doubleday 1963), detailing the couple's experiences during his professional football years. After retiring, Conerly and his wife returned to Mississippi, and they often traveled to Oxford on football weekends.

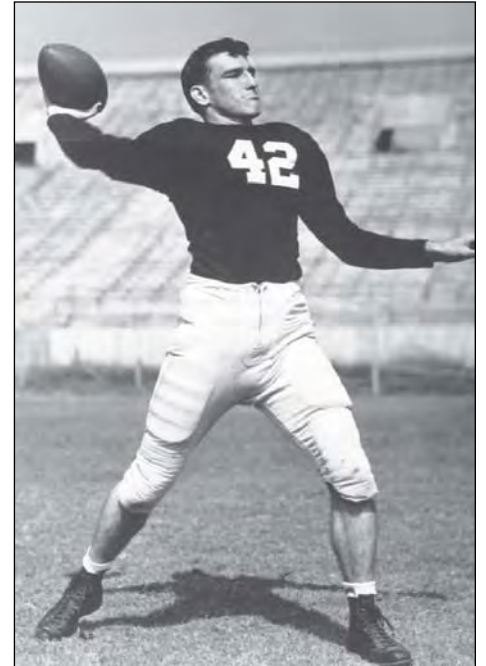

Conerly's honors include induction into the National College Football Hall of Fame, Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame, Ole Miss Alumni Hall of Fame, and Ole Miss Athletic Hall of Fame. He also received the Distinguished American Award from the Ole Miss Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame and was selected by Rebel fans as a back on the Ole Miss Football Team of the Century. As a college player, Conerly was also named the Atlanta Touchdown Club's SEC Back of the Year and the Nashville Banner's SEC Player of the Year.

A prestigious trophy named in his honor, the Cellular South Conerly Trophy, is awarded annually to Mississippi's most outstanding collegiate football player. Designed to be the Mississippi equivalent of the Heisman Trophy, the award is open to all Mississippi players, regardless of school size or position. The original bronze sculpture is permanently housed in the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and Museum in Jackson, and a replica is on display at Ole Miss in Hollingsworth-Manning Hall, the school's athletics memorabilia area located on the second floor of the Michael S. Starnes Athletic Training Center.

J.W. "WOBBLE" DAVIDSON SCHOLARSHIP

It's a funny thing about sports and nicknames. They seem to go hand-in-hand. Whether it's quarterbacks named "Easy" or linemen named "Slim", a nickname follows you for the rest of your life. Such was the case with J.W. "Wobble" Davidson.

Never one to let the spotlight hit him, Davidson spent three years playing left end for Ole Miss, before returning to his alma mater as an assistant coach. He gave up the idea of playing pro football to enter the Marine Corps to fight in World War II. He never thought twice about it. He never even left Oxford, returning after the war to spend his days at the place he called home.

Davidson's love for Oxford and his alma mater proved just as great in his family life as it did in his professional life. A proud father of two, Wobble, his wife Sara, son Don and daughter Debra all attended Ole Miss. Davidson spent 11 years as head tennis coach and 23 years as the M-Club Advisor, mentoring student-athletes into productive members of society. He and his family even lived in the athletic dorms on campus.

It was his love for Ole Miss that the J.W. "Wobble" Davidson Scholarship fund was established. Given to the children of former Ole Miss letterwinners, the scholarship helps make sure that those who love the University as much as Wobble will always have the opportunity for their children to attend Ole Miss.

Davidson graduated from Ole Miss in 1942, earning three letters in football, three in track and two in basketball for the Rebels. A member of the Mississippi Sports Hall of Fame and the Ole Miss Sports Hall of Fame, Davidson also earned his master's degree from Ole Miss.

To learn more about the J.W. "Wobble" Davidson Scholarship Fund, including details about making a tax-deductible contribution, contact Clay Cavett at the UM Alumni Office at 662-915-7375.

JOEY EMBRY MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

During football camps under sun-drenched skies on the Oxford campus, Joey Embry decided he wanted to be an Ole Miss Rebel. In 1995, at the end of his stellar prep career at Bruce (Miss.) High School, the scholarship offer came.

Embry was a member of the Rebel football team for two years before his tragic death on May 19, 1998, when he drowned just months before he was expected to be a major contributor on the offensive line.

His Rebel teammates dedicated the 1998 season to his memory and wore Embry's name and number on their helmets.

Family and friends are keeping his spirit alive through the Joey Embry Memorial Scholarship Fund, established to help student-athletes at The University of Mississippi. "I think Joey would be really proud of the scholarship fund," said his mother, Gwen Embry, "not because it is honoring him, but because it will help so many other students."

Embry's roommate and fellow teammate Bobby Killion, a former Ole Miss center, said, "Joey touched the lives of so many people while having an influence on those who came in contact with him. He was a great man and is missed by a lot of people. I know I'll miss him for the rest of my life."

Embry left a strong impression on the Ole Miss community, providing leadership both on and off the playing field. As a business administration major, he excelled academically, making the UMAA Honor Roll and the SEC Academic Honor Roll. He also was active in the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA).

In addition to the scholarship fund, Weyerhaeuser Co. donated equipment to Ole Miss' Starnes Athletic Training Center in memory of the Ole Miss football player.

Individuals and organizations can contribute to the Joey Embry Memorial Scholarship Fund through The University of Mississippi Foundation, P.O. Box 249, University, MS 38677; phone 800-340-9542; e-mail umf@olemiss.edu.

LARRY L. JOHNSON SCHOLARSHIP

Larry L. Johnson of Jackson wants to help young men benefit from the same opportunity in life he received: a football scholarship to the University of Mississippi that enabled him to participate in the sport he loved while pursuing degrees for a successful career.

The retired BellSouth executive - whose football career at Forest High School in Scott County captured the attention of UM coaches - has established a scholarship endowment with more than $100,000. The first in his family to attend college, Johnson received an athletics scholarship that allowed him to earn two business degrees and play wingback and outside linebacker on three championship football teams (1961, '62 and '63).

Desiring to give back to his college and home community, Johnson's scholarship agreement stipulates that preference should be given to Scott County football signees when possible.

Known to the Ole Miss family as "Larry Leo," Johnson has been active in the M-Club alumni chapter for athletes. He served on the M-Club's board of directors and has organized and directed many team reunions. As Student M-Club president in 1963, Johnson helped establish the J.W. Davidson Scholarship fund to honor the legendary Ole Miss coach and has been a regular contributor since that time. He also is a UMAA Foundation member.

He holds undergraduate and master's degrees in business and is a past chair of the Business Advisory Board at the UM School of Business Administration. He is a major contributor to the Business Order and has also guest lectured under the business school's Otho Smith Fellows Program.

An active civic leader in Jackson, Johnson continues to give of his time and resources to the community in many areas since retiring from BellSouth in 2000 after 33 years as an executive with the company. Both of Johnson's sons, Rick and Scott, graduated from Ole Miss. Larry and his wife, Rita Parks Johnson, live in Madison, and they have a blended family of five, with multiple grandchildren.

WESLEY WALLS SCHOLARSHIP

Former Ole Miss All-America tight end Wesley Walls of Pontotoc, Miss., and his wife, Christy, have endowed a football scholarship at Ole Miss.

The $100,000 gift is used to provide a football scholarship to any Ole Miss signee from Pontotoc County.

Walls, a five-time Pro Bowler with the Carolina Panthers of the National Football League, enjoyed a 14-year NFL career, playing with San Francisco and New Orleans prior to joining the Panthers. He retired in 2004 after one season with the Green Bay Packers.

"I received so much from Ole Miss, not only an education and a chance to play college football, but also as a person," Walls said. "I met my wife here and we truly love Ole Miss and her people. This scholarship represents a way to come back and help Pontotoc County. There are a lot of good athletes over there."

At Ole Miss, Walls earned four letters and excelled both on the field and in the classroom. He came to Oxford in 1985 as a defensive end, but also played tight end his senior campaign when he became one of the nation's few two-way players in 1988.

Following his senior year, Walls was selected first team All-America at tight end by the Associated Press. He was also a first team All-Southeastern Conference pick, was selected Mississippi's Amateur Athlete of the Year and was chosen as one of three permanent Ole Miss team captains.

Off the field, Walls compiled a 3.41 GPA in General Engineering, earned Academic All-America honors, was a three-time Academic All-SEC pick, was selected Colonel Rebel at Ole Miss, was named to the University of Mississippi Hall of Fame and received an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. He was selected as one of 11 National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Scholar-Athletes and was chosen to give the response at the awards dinner in New York City.

Walls finished his NFL career with 450 catches for 5,291 yards and 54 touchdowns. Upon his retirement, he was considered one of the premier tight ends in the game.

VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM/HOLLINGSWORTH FIELD

On the southeast side of the University of Mississippi campus stands historic Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, a landmark of Ole Miss tradition and an anchor for the strong future of Rebel Football.

The stadium and gameday experience have undergone a number of upgrades leading up to the 2013 season, including removing of sideline platform and bricking the east and west side facade, a team halftime locker room and the addition of two on-field suites. Plans for a north endzone expansion are underway as part of Ole Miss Athletics' Foward Together capital campaign.

A major enhancement to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium was a $6 million integrated system featuring a large high definition video display that was installed at the open of the 2008 season. The Daktronics video display is one of the largest true high definition displays in the Southeastern Conference. A new sound system rounded out the upgrades.

In 2009, FieldTurf synthetic grass was installed on the stadium's playing surface (it was natural grass from its beginning until 1970; Astroturf from 1970-84; natural grass again from 1985-2002; and AstroPlay synthetic from 2003-08). Although Ole Miss was the first SEC school to install FieldTurf in its stadium, more than 100 top NCAA programs play or practice on the top-of-the-line surface, as well as 21 NFL and several MLB teams.

The stadium increased its capacity to 60,580 in 2002 with the bowling in of the south end zone, making it the largest facility in the state.

With the additional seating, the Rebels have set record-breaking attendance figures over the last nine years, drawing all 10 of the largest crowds in school history. The momentous Ole Miss-Alabama encounter in 2009 attracted a crowd of 62,657, the largest ever to watch a football game on campus in Mississippi. The Rebels' matchup with LSU in 2003 gathered 62,552 fans, and the 2004 Tennessee game drew 62,028.

The stadium, known as Hemingway Stadium for much of its existence, began its long historic life in 1915 when students at the University helped in the construction of the first football grandstand at the site of the present field. The construction of the stadium and its permanent foundation was a three-year, federally-sponsored project. Stadium capacity was originally listed at 24,000.

During the summer of 1988, the stadium received a major facelift, highlighted by a new press box, new aluminum sideline seating and a club level section for 700 people. Renovations continued in the summer of 1990 when lights were added to the stadium. A Sony JumboTron scoreboard/message center was added for the 1997 season.

In 1998, the Guy C. Billups Rebel Club Seating area was completed, placing an upper deck on the east side of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium. The addition, which includes a special seating section with an enclosed concession and lounge area, pushed capacity to over 50,000.

The stadium is named for the late Judge William Hemingway (1869-1937), a professor of law and long-time chairman of the University's Committee on Athletics. On Oct. 16, 1982, John Howard Vaught saw his name added to the stadium. Vaught compiled a 190-61-12 record as head football coach at Ole Miss and brought the Rebels National Championships in 1959, 1960 and 1962. At the 1998 season opener vs. Memphis, the field was named in honor of Dr. Jerry Hollingsworth for his continuing generous support to Ole Miss Athletics.

INDOOR PRACTICE FACILITY

Among the finest facilities in all of college athletics, the Ole Miss Indoor Practice Facility is the crown jewel in the growing athletics compound surrounding Vaught-Hemingway Stadium.

"The Indoor Practice Facility speaks a great deal to our donor support, our athletics tradition and the future of our program," said Athletics Director Ross Bjork. "I have been all over the nation, and this is one of the most impressive out there. We are excited about the numerous enhancements on the horizon, as the facility continues to serve as a tremendous recruiting asset for Ole Miss Athletics."

Located beside the South End Zone of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, the Rebels moved into the spectacular $18 million multi-purpose structure in fall 2004.

As part of the Forward Together campaign, a $12.5 million renovation and expansion of the Indoor Practice Facility commenced in early 2013. The project will be built in phases and is expected to be completed by early 2014.

Among the upgrades is the construction of a full kitchen and dining hall that will be part of the Ole Miss dining program and open to every student and faculty and staff member. The facility will provide a nutrition center for all Ole Miss student-athletes and will be in the vicinity of the current banquet room. The new team meeting room will be constructed on the north end of the facility in the current lawn between the building and the south endzone of Vaught Hemingway Stadium. It will seat approximately 200, doubling the capacity of the current team room, and the meeting area will be outfitted with state-of-the-art audio/video equipment and coaching software.

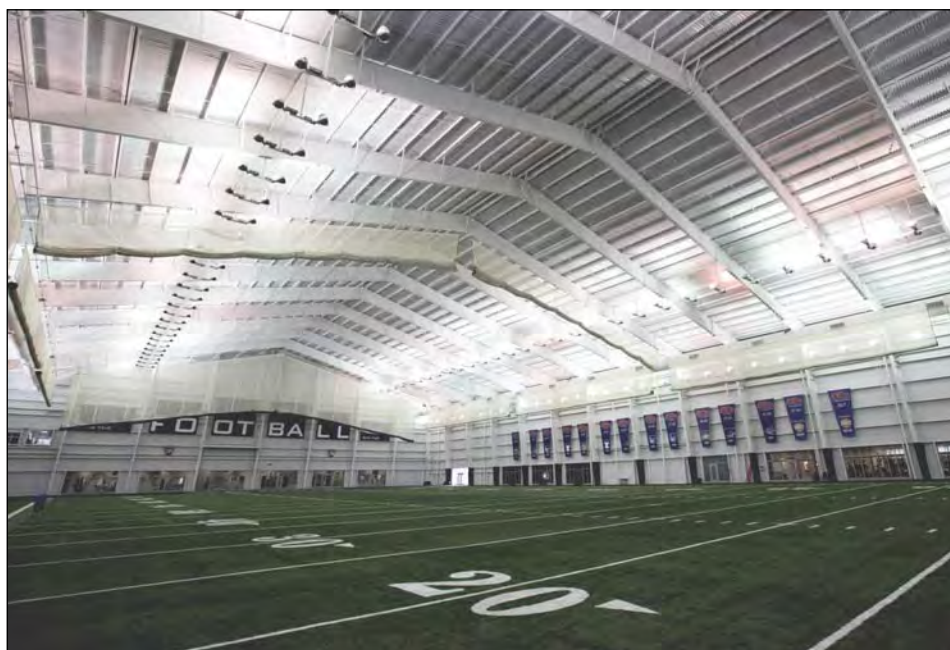

Adjacent to the team room will be a new head coach's office, putting all of the staff on the same level in the renovated coaching suite.

With the construction of the new team room, a new front door and recruiting room will be erected on the site of the current team room. The recruiting room will contain trophies, memorable images and interactive exhibits and will celebrate the rich tradition of Rebel football with recruits, alumni and fans.

The existing weight room will be expanded on the east side, widening the area by 2,000 square feet. The current locker room will also be enhanced and expanded and will include a new player lounge on the west side of the IPF.

Numerous Rebel supporters contributed financially to the construction of the Indoor Practice Facility, including legendary Rebel quarterback Archie Manning. In May 2004, former Ole Miss running back Deuce McAllister donated $1 million toward the building of the facility. The architects of the facility were Ferguson & Associates of Jackson.

FEDEX ACADEMIC SUPPORT CENTER

Since May 2007, Ole Miss student-athletes have benefited tremendously from their first-class on-campus learning environment - the FedEx Student-Athlete Academic Support Center.

FedEx Corporation announced on April 14, 2005, a $2.5 million gift over five years to the University of Mississippi to create such an elite academic support center for student-athletes.

The center provides state-of-the-art computer facilities and space for study halls and tutoring for men and women student-athletes, as well as additional classrooms for all students.

"FedEx has always been a strong supporter of educational initiatives at all levels," said Mike Glenn, executive vice president of marketing development and corporate communications. "This contribution to the University of Mississippi is an extension of our commitment to helping improve the academic resources available to students, and student-athletes in particular."

Glenn said FedEx and Ole Miss are committed to providing a strong academic foundation to enable students to reach their full potential.

"The FedEx Center is one of the best academic facilities in college athletics," said Athletics Director Ross Bjork. "It is the lifeblood of our student-athlete development and the chief recruiting tool for Ole Miss Athletics. Students come first in everything we do, and we cannot thank FedEx enough for their leadership and commitment."

The money was used to renovate a portion of the Starnes Athletic Center—which formerly housed football locker rooms, a weight room and training facilities—next to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium on All-American Drive. The 22,500-square-foot building now houses the Office of Student-Athlete Academic Support, including offices, conference rooms, 20 large and small group tutoring rooms, a large study area, a multi-media classroom, computer lab and 150-seat high-tech auditorium. The project was completed in May 2007 with an approximate cost of $5 million.

In accepting the FedEx gift, university officials said the new center provides an important link in the university's goal to compete at the highest level in every aspect of its intercollegiate programs.

"American public universities are the best in the world largely because of the generosity of American corporations," said then-UM Chancellor Robert Khayat. "FedEx sets the standard for philanthropy by which others are measured. In this case, Ole Miss student-athletes are the primary beneficiaries, but all our students will benefit and, as a result, our entire state benefits."

In addition to its latest gift to the University, FedEx supports several endowed scholarship programs, the Whitten Chair in Law, the Lott Leadership Institute, the William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation and William Faulkner's historic home, Rowan Oak.

STARNES ATHLETIC TRAINING CENTER

Every aspect of Ole Miss Athletics is geared toward the success of its student-athletes. The Michael S. Starnes Athletic Training Center provides a valuable role in the development and display of that success.

The multi-purpose Starnes Center has undergone many transformations through the years. It currently houses Ole Miss Sports Medicine, FCA and CHAMPS Life Skills headquarters and includes a 10,000-square-foot weight room and a sizeable memorabilia collection.

Formerly the Doc Knight Field House, the Training Center stands just north of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium and within walking distance of Tad Smith Coliseum, Swayze Field and the main athletics office complex.

The primary training room on the Ole Miss campus is used by several Rebel sports. The training area has four offices for the athletic training staff, room for at least 13 treatment tables, six taping stations and countless rehabilitation equipment. It also contains a wet room with a whirlpool that help make up an environment for top-notch care and injury prevention for Rebel athletes.

The facility extends to the east into a similar structure which holds a massive weight room, a lobby, a conference room and offices. Connected to the west end is the FedEx Academic Support Center, a state-of-the-art complex opened in May 2007.

Starnes, the building's benefactor, donated $1 million toward the facility as part of an extensive $2.5 million renovation in 1995. A 1968 Ole Miss graduate, Starnes is president of Tennessee California Express, Inc., a transportation company.

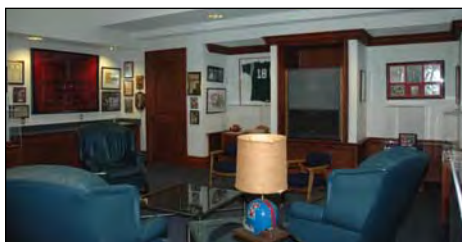

Much of the history and the many accolades of Rebel athletics are displayed in two rooms on the second floor of the Starnes Center that make up Hollingsworth-Manning Hall.

The larger room is divided into four zones, with the North Wing reserved to honor the nine Ole Miss Rebels in the College Football Hall of Fame. The East Wing spotlights the 46 Ole Miss first-team All-Americans as well as Hall of Fame Coach John Vaught and the legacy of Chucky Mullins. The West Wing is reserved for baseball, track, tennis and golf All-Americans as well as Bruiser Kinard, the only player in Ole Miss history inducted into both the College and Professional Football Hall of Fame. The South Zone honors Ole Miss All-Americans in men's and women's basketball as well as C. M. "Tad" Smith, who played and coached at Ole Miss and also served as Athletics Director.

The smaller room of Hollingsworth-Manning Hall is devoted entirely to an impressive memorabilia collection from the family of Ole Miss legend Archie Manning, which includes items of all three sons, Cooper, Peyton and Eli. The focal points of the exhibit are Super Bowl MVP photos of both Peyton and Eli hoisting the Lombardi Trophy.

Dr. Jerry Hollingsworth, an Ole Miss alumnus and general practitioner in Ft. Walton Beach, Fla., joined forces with former Rebel quarterback Archie Manning to establish the recruitment/memorabilia center. It is faithfully maintained and updated by Langston Rogers, Special Assistant to the Athletics Director for History.

OLE MISS ATHLETICS FACILITIES

OXFORD-UNIVERSITY STADIUM/SWAYZE FIELD

Extensive renovations in 2009 resulted in Ole Miss boasting one of the nation's premier college baseball facilities. Mike Bianco's Rebels have attracted record-breaking crowds and have annually ranked among the top five in college baseball attendance.

C.M. "TAD" SMITH COLISEUM

Home to the Ole Miss men's and women's basketball teams, the "Tad Pad" has seen nine of the top 20 crowds in facility history since men's coach Andy Kennedy arrived in 2006. The courtside seats have become among the hottest tickets in town.

Ole Miss Athletics' Forward Together capital campaign includes plans for a new basketball arena, a north endzone expansion of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium and other projects.

OLE MISS TRACK & FIELD COMPLEX

This nine-lane, mondo-surface facility served as host of the 2004 SEC Outdoor Championships.

OLE MISS SOFTBALL COMPLEX

Ole Miss' impressive softball field and hitting facility played host to the 2011 SEC Softball Championships.

BASKETBALL PRACTICE FACILITY

Opened in 2010, this $13 million, 51,000-sq.-ft. facility includes team rooms, offices and two practice courts.

GILLOM CENTER

The center of the Ole Miss women's sports complex is a championship venue for volleyball and indoor tennis.

OLE MISS SOCCER STADIUM

Known for its immaculately kept pitch, Ole Miss Soccer boasts a beautiful facility adjacent to the Gillom Center.

PALMER-SALLOUM TENNIS CENTER

Dramatic enhancements were made in 2012 to what was already one of the nation's top tennis facilities.

OLE MISS GOLF COURSE

The Rebel golf teams are enjoying a recently renovated short-game facility adjacent to the Whitten Golf Center.

PATRICIA C. LAMAR CENTER

The Patricia C. Lamar National Guard Readiness Center is easily one of the top college rifle facilities in the nation.

ATHLETICS ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

Opened in 2008, this luxurious facility is home to most of the major departments within athletics administration.

REBEL STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

MISSION:

The mission of the Ole Miss strength and conditioning program is to develop the specific physical and mental abilities as well as the lifestyle habits of our student athletes that will allow them to achieve the highest attainable levels of success.

We will demand discipline, relentlessness and intelligent effort while we work toward improving each athlete's skill level. We will cultivate a high-energy, up-tempo environment where enthusiasm and competition will flourish. We will attack this mission with a scientifically supported, comprehensive approach and specific considerations of the metabolic demands and injury risks of our sport. Training must prepare the athlete for the specific competitive stress load of their sport.

Top priority is to develop improved coordination during the execution of speed, power and strength movements. We will seek to develop each athlete's individual ideal movement patterns, while maximally developing their strength, power, speed and agility. Everything we do in training is done to help the athletes more efficiently execute the movement requirements of their sport.

The environment in the weight room must be one of high effort, intensity and excitement. An attitude will be established through training that will carry over onto the playing field. Discipline, hard work and vigor will become permanent traits of the athletes.

There are no greater facilities at which to train athletes than the majestic Indoor Practice Facility. When entering the IPF's 10,000-square-foot weight room, the Ole Miss players are quickly reminded of the championship philosophy that head football strength coach Paul Jackson and the Rebel staff set forth. The facility, which is entering its 10th year of existence, is enhanced with visual messages and houses state-of-the-art training equipment. Besides the hundreds of weights, the room also contains a variety of Hammer Strength machines, numerous Life Fitness cardiovascular machines and a fully-stocked nutrition center.

With the IPF's full-sized indoor practice field, the Rebels' extensive workouts touch on every area of fitness and conditioning and prepare their bodies fully for intense SEC battles.

HEALTH AND SPORTS PERFORMANCE

Under the leadership of Athletics Director Ross Bjork, Ole Miss launched the unique and comprehensive Health and Sports Performance program in July 2012, which takes a holistic approach to providing optimal health care for the demands of elite student-athletes. Through a complete collaboration between all services provided in the Health and Sports Performance model, Ole Miss is ensured not only healthy student-athletes, but ones that can achieve peak performance. These services include strength and conditioning, athletic training, team physicians, physical therapy, massage therapy, sports psychologist and sports nutrition.

"Our team of Health and Sports Performance professionals strive to provide quality health and sports performance services based on the latest in health and strength training research," said Shannon Singletary, Senior Associate A.D. for Health and Sports Performance. "By doing this we hope to not only provide our student-athletes with a better chance of winning on the field but also give them an opportunity to lead a healthy lifestyle."

Ole Miss Health and Sports Performance has strong working relationships with student health services, local physicians and Baptist Memorial Hospital-North Mississippi, which is located just miles from the Oxford campus. The department also taps into its own University of Mississippi Medical Center in Jackson for world-class treatment from multiple specialties including orthopedics, neurology and cardiology.

Ole Miss' athletic trainers begin treatment and rehabilitation as early as 6 a.m. and are available until the last student-athlete is finished with practice or competition. There are currently six athletic training facilities on campus with the two main athletic training rooms located in the Starnes Athletic Training Center and the Indoor Practice Facility. In addition, there are four satellite athletic training rooms located in Tad Smith Coliseum, Basketball Practice Facility, Gilom Sports Center and Oxford-University Stadium/Swayze Field.

The main athletic training rooms are stocked with equipment such as digital x-ray systems, stationary bikes, laser therapy equipment, therapeutic modalities, underwater treadmills and Biodex testing equipment. Each component is strategically designed to not only give the student-athletes the best care but also aid in returning them to competition as quickly and safely as possible.

ATHLETICS DEPARTMENT MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the University of Mississippi Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is to advance the University's role as a major comprehensive institution of higher learning dedicated to teaching, research, and service. The Department will produce competitive and entertaining athletic teams, by recruiting qualified student-athletes, coaches and staff from diverse backgrounds, providing equal opportunities regardless of ethnicity or gender. The Department will prepare student-athletes to be productive members of society by assisting in their development of academic, athletic, social, and leadership skills within an environment which fosters integrity, sportsmanship, and emotional, physical, and mental well being.

Operating within the principles of sound fiscal management, the Department will sponsor athletic teams which reflect the interest of the citizens of Mississippi and promote enthusiasm, financial support, cohesiveness, and loyalty within the University community. Demonstrating leadership in all decisions which impact the University, the Southeastern Conference, and the National Collegiate Athletics Association, the Department will conduct itself in an ethical and honest manner.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ACADEMIC SUPPORT

Ole Miss student-athletes not only have the opportunity to play in one of the best conferences in the nation, they also attend a university that is world-renowned for its academics.

Led by Senior Associate Athletics Director for Academic Support Derek Cowherd, the Office of Student-Athlete Academic Support is committed to helping all Ole Miss student-athletes achieve academic success. Cowherd is assisted by one associate director, three assistant directors, five full-time academic counselors, four learning specialists, one tutor coordinator, four interns and numerous tutors and academic mentors.

The mission of the FedEx Student-Athlete Success Center is to provide quality developmental and need-based programs to help student-athletes become independent and self-reliant learners. In an environment that promotes student development, the staff provides support for all student-athletes from the time they arrive on campus through graduation. The staff provides resources, experience and knowledge empowering each student-athlete to reach his/her academic, career and personal potential. The FedEx staff pursues this mission by promoting acaademic success with integrity, strict adherence to university, SEC and NCAA rules, and a dedication to excellence.

Ole Miss has a long history of academic success among its football players, ranking first among Southern schools in Academic All-America selections and second in total football academic award recipients. Last year, Ole Miss football had more than its share of student-athletes named to the school's various academic honor rolls, while placing 26 total players on Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Rolls. A total of 25 football players graduated from Ole Miss in 2013, with 13 of those still retaining eligibility for the upcoming season.

In 2005, Rebel linebacker and captain Rob Robertson was named the H. Boyd McWhorter SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Robertson and punter Cody Ridgeway also took home Academic All-America first team accolades, giving the Rebel football program 24 selections in its storied history. In 2001, Eli Manning nabbed Academic All-America second team honors, and in 2003, he was one of 15 student-athletes selected nationally as National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes. Manning was also selected to the 2004 NCAA Today's Top VIII.

Over the last nine years, the Rebel program has had a pair of players inducted into Phi Beta Kappa, the nation's oldest and most prestigious undergraduate honors organization — Chad Pilcher in 2004, and Ben Boatright in 2003.

Among all sports, Ole Miss had 162 student-athletes named to the SEC Academic Honor Rolls in 2012-13. With Ole Miss athletics taking its place amongst the best in the nation, the Student-Athlete Academic Support staff hopes that Rebel graduates of today have a great impact in the future of tomorrow.

REBEL READY

Rebel Ready - CHAMPS Life Skills is a well-rounded program to challenge our student-athletes to be lifelong learners while pursuing continuous improvement academically, relationally, socially, personally, and professionally during and beyond their careers as student-athletes.

The program consists of these six vital areas:

- Student-Athlete Assistance Services programs have been created for student-athletes to develop and cultivate life skills in order to maximize personal and professional opportunities and minimize detrimental behaviors.
- The Career Transition Program educates current and former student-athletes in transition (athletics to the "real world") about the resources and opportunities available to them in their advancement to alternative careers.
- The Financial Education Program provides student-athletes with valuable knowledge to manage their personal finances and improve financial decision-making. The program offers student-athletes resources and perspectives on the current economic environment.

- The Career Development Program is a joint effort of the Ole Miss Athletics Department and Career Center. The goal is to provide opportunities for current student-athletes to gain exposure and experience in a variety of industries that may be of interest to them now and beyond their playing days.
- The Continuing Education Program is designed to assist current and former student-athletes with the skills necessary to gain admission into graduate and professional programs of study.
- The Community Outreach Program seeks to engage student-athletes in service to campus and surrounding communities. It unites internal and external constituents, identifies challenges on campus and in surrounding communities, and develops best practices/solutions to improve conditions.

NCAA COMPLIANCE

BOOSTER

A representative of the institution's athletics interests (booster) is an individual, independent agency, corporate entity or other organization who is known to have been involved in promoting the institution's athletics programs, made financial contributions to the athletics department or booster organizations or provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes and/or their families. For example, you are a booster if you have donated to the QB Club, purchased season tickets or employed a student-athlete.

EXTRA BENEFIT?

An extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or a booster to provide a student-athlete (or their family) a benefit that is not generally available to other University students or is not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Examples of extra benefits include tickets to sporting events/concerts, reduced cost housing, meals, discounts on services, use of a car, etc. Extra benefits will jeopardize a student-athlete's eligibility.

WHO IS A PROSPECT?

A prospect is a student who has started classes for the ninth grade or above (seventh grade for men's basketball), is attending prep school or junior college or who has withdrawn from a four-year college and plans to transfer. A prospect remains a prospect until they enroll and attend classes for a regular term (i.e. not summer) at the University. This means a prospect remains a prospect even after verbally committing or signing a National Letter of Intent.

WHAT IS INSTITUTIONAL CONTROL?

Institutional control of athletics is a fundamental requirement of NCAA legislation. A University is required to educate boosters on NCAA rules and regulations and monitor the athletics program for adherence to those rules. The University is responsible for the actions of its alumni, boosters and fans. If you have any questions or concerns please contact our office at 662-915-1594.

For current NCAA news and rules follow us on Twitter @RebelCompliance or visit the Compliance web page at www.olemisssports.com.

DR. DANIEL W. JONES | CHANCELLOR

From an early age, Dr. Daniel W. Jones knew his career aspirations revolved around medicine and leadership. And while a physician leading a comprehensive university isn't a common arrangement, Jones' appointment as the 16th chancellor of the University of Mississippi is no surprise to anyone familiar with his record of leadership and achievements at the UM Medical Center in Jackson and the American Heart Association.

Jones became chancellor on July 1, 2009, and oversees the campuses in Oxford, Jackson, Southaven, Tupelo and Grenada.

Vice chancellor for health affairs and dean of the School of Medicine since 2003, Jones served as the Medical Center's chief executive officer, overseeing five schools and the health system. Under his leadership, UMMC restructured its clinical enterprise to create a more agile, market-responsive organization focused on quality, efficiency and clinical leadership. The work resulted in a turnaround in financial performance and selection as one of the Thomson Top 100 Hospitals in America.

Jones' leadership team also expanded the Medical Center's commitment to minority scholarships, rural medicine and the elimination of health disparities. Enrollment of underrepresented medical students increased 80 percent in five years.

They also led a campaign that raised $53 million, expanded the medical school's class size from 100 students to 120 students per class and reorganized the medical faculty clinical practice plan from 17 individual practice groups to a single, unified one, facilitating more efficient management and improved patient care.

Under his watch, the Medical Center's research enterprise has been reinvigorated with completion of the Arthur C. Guyton Research Center, acquisition of funding for a research park and increased research funding.

A native Mississippian, Jones graduated from Mississippi College in 1971, earned his M.D. in 1975 at UMMC and completed his residency in internal medicine there in 1978. He had a private practice in Laurel, then went to Korea as a medical missionary in 1985.

He returned to the UM Medical Center as a faculty member in 1992 and was named the school's Herbert G. Langford Professor of Medicine in 1998. He directed the hypertension division and led many clinical studies funded by the National Heart, Lung and Blood Institute of the National Institutes of Health. He played a crucial role in the acquisition of funding from NHLBI to create the Jackson Heart Study and was its first principal investigator. As the only large scale study of cardiovascular risk factors in African-Americans, Jones had to overcome the understandable reluctance of African Americans to participate in research and to build consensus among the three participating institutions - Jackson State University, Tougaloo College and UMMC. Neither had ever collaborated in such a massive undertaking.

The chancellor began volunteering for the American Heart Association 20 years ago and became its national president in 2007-2008. He was one of the early voices in AHA leadership to call attention to the growing problem of childhood obesity and heart disease in women. He was AHA's national spokesperson on high blood pressure.

Jones is married to Lydia Channell Jones, also a Mississippi College graduate. They have two children, Jennifer Jones Flechas of Oxford and Jason Jones of Clinton.

ROSS BJORK | ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

Ross Bjork was announced on March 21, 2012 as the seventh full-time Director of Athletics at Ole Miss. Bjork, now 40, arrived in Oxford as the youngest AD among BCS schools and comes off a successful stint in that post at Western Kentucky University.

Early returns on Bjork's tenure with the Rebels have produced energetic hires, structural progress, team success and a new spirit surrounding Ole Miss Athletics.

Bjork set the tone early by hiring two of the country's top rising coaches in their sports in Brian O'Neal (track and field) and Matt Insell (women's basketball). He also appointed three executive level administrators for external relations, academic support and facilities/game operations.

The external relations post was a new umbrella position at the center of Bjork's reorganization of that area of Ole Miss Athletics, including the Foundation, ticket operations, marketing and communications and the relationship with Ole Miss Sports Properties. Progress has continued in that division with the rebranding of the Ole Miss Athletics Foundation and a partnership with new multi-media rightsholder, IMG Properties.

Bjork also created the unit for Health and Sports Performance, which combined sports medicine, strength and conditioning, nutrition and counseling services and added a local orthopedic sports medicine component that provides primary sports medicine care for all student-athletes.

Bjork's vision in facilities has resulted in a development plan for the Indoor Practice Facility. New projects have begun and include a full service dining facility, team meeting room, weight room, player lounge and visuals throughout the complex. The renovation is being completed in phases with conclusion by early 2014.

Ole Miss enjoyed unprecedented support in Bjork's first year, as 810,000 fans attended home events in 2012-13. Football and baseball recorded the second-best attendance seasons in school history, while men's basketball posted seven-straight sellouts for the first time ever. The Forward Together capital campaign received $22 million in gifts to help move the athletics budget from $62 to $70 million.

Bjork's leadership also translated to immediate success in the competitive arena. Year one saw first-year head football coach Hugh Freeze guide the Rebels to a bowl game for the first time in three years and the reclaiming of the Egg Bowl trophy. The on-field success was followed by a top-five recruiting class, the highest ranked in school history.

That momentum continued to men's basketball season, where Andy Kennedy directed Ole Miss to the SEC Tournament Championship and the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2002. Men's hoops was among eight Rebel teams to earn postseason berths and one of two to reach the round of 32, along with men's tennis. Baseball, women's tennis and women's golf also received NCAA bids.

Bjork's first full campaign included a national championship, as Sam Kendricks took home the pole vault title at the NCAA Outdoor Track & Field Championships, which also saw Olympian Isiah Young place second in the 200 meter and third in the 100 meter. The SEC Western Division champion men's tennis team also vied for a national title, as the doubles team of Nic Scholtz and Jonas Lutjen advanced to the final four. Men's outdoor track & field registered a program-best eighth-place finish at the NCAA Championships, while men's tennis finished top-10 in the national polls.

Off the field, Bjork's emphasis on academics resulted in a 2.87 GPA among the student-athlete population, and he has established a goal of 3.0 moving forward. In the community, student-athletes participated in more than 20 service projects, and even bigger plans are on the horizon. Throughout his career, Bjork has placed a great importance on diversity, and in 2013, the athletics department partnered with the William Winter Institute for Racial Reconciliation with plans for a Racial Reconciliation Week during the 2013 football season.

Bjork's first full week at the post in 2012 was spent on the inaugural Rebel Road Trip, a six-day, 16-stop tour of the region that served to unite the Rebel fanbase. In the first two years of the tour, Bjork and Co., have visited almost 9,000 fans. He carried the momentum from the first RRT into the launch of a major sales campaign for football season tickets, which included television and radio advertising, billboards, internet marketing and a new outbound telemarketing call center.

At WKU, Bjork spent significant time with all head coaches to evaluate and understand the necessary ingredients it takes for each sport to reach their maximum potential athletically and academically. He oversaw an extensive search process that resulted in Matt Myers being named WKU's new head baseball coach in July of 2011.

After Bjork made a midseason coaching change, the Hilltopper men's basketball team went on to capture the 2012 Sun Belt Conference Tournament title and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Women's Volleyball won the conference regular season and tournament in 2011 and reached the NCAA tournament each of his last two years, while men's and women's cross country each won conference team titles in 2011. Women's swimmer Claire Donahue finished second in the nation in the 100 yard butterfly, the highest finish in the program's history, and then won a pair of gold medals at the 2011 Pan American Games to become the only WKU athlete to ever claim Pan Am gold.

WKU's football program posted the greatest one-season improvement in conference wins in the history of the Sun Belt in posting a 7-1 league mark and second-place conference finish. WKU football also signed the conference's top recruiting class each of his last two seasons. WKU's soccer program also reached the Sun Belt Conference tournament championship game in 2011 before falling in overtime in their bid to achieve the program's first ever NCAA Tournament berth.

During his tenure, each of WKU's men's and women's athletic teams exceeded the NCAA required 925 Academic Progress Report Rate (APR), and WKU had more individuals honored for their academic achievements by the Sun Belt Conference than any other institution in 2011-12. For the first time in program history, the overall cumulative average GPA was over 3.0 for all 391 student-athletes and 228 maintained a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher. Ten of the university's 15 athletic programs posted a cumulative team GPA of 3.0 or better.

The youngest athletics director of the 120 NCAA FBS programs when hired at WKU, Bjork has an extensive career in intercollegiate athletics with two decades of experience as an administrator and student-athlete, having worked on the senior staffs at UCLA, the University of Miami and the University of Missouri. He began his administrative career at WKU as an Assistant Development Coordinator in 1996-97.

Bjork is a native of Dodge City, Kan., and received his bachelor's degree in recreation administration from Emporia State University in 1995 where he was a two-year starter at fullback. He earned a master's degree in athletic administration from Western Illinois University in December 1996. Bjork is respected nationally by his peers and is Past-President of the National Association of Athletic Development Directors (NAADD). He and his wife, Sonya, have two boys: Payton (7) and Paxton (3).

In planning your coverage of Ole Miss in 2013, you are asked to review the following information. Contact the Athletics Media Relations office at 662-915-7522 if you have any questions.

WORKING CREDENTIALS

To request game credentials, go to Ole Miss' online credentialing site: sportssystems.com/OleMiss. Credential requests must be made as early as possible by the sports director of each media outlet and are limited to those media who will be attending the game in a working capacity. Media must approve the SEC Media Policy before requesting credentials. Media credentials are allotted on the following basis: 1) daily newspapers; 2) network affiliate television stations; 3) websites whose primary purpose is to gather and disseminate news and who have a corresponding publication and/or affiliation with a nationally recognized media entity/network; 4) magazines, weekly newspapers and non-broadcast radio stations.

PARKING

Gameday media parking passes should be requested at the same time as press box or sideline passes. Only a limited number of parking passes are available, and media may be confined to one pass per outlet. Parking passes may not be picked up at media will-call and must be requested at least seven days prior to gameday to ensure delivery.

The media parking lot is located just to the west of the Turner Center. Entry is available from Hill Drive, and the satellite truck lot entrance is across the street. A golf cart is available to help members of the media transport heavy equipment from the press parking area to the press box.

Media parking passes are only applicable on gameday. Media members that attend practices, press conferences and other on-campus events during the week should make arrangements with campus parking by visiting olemiss.edu/parking/media.html.

MEDIA WILL-CALL

Credentials may be picked up at the media "Will Call" table, located next to the press box elevators at Gate 6 on the west side of Vaught-Hemingway Stadium, beginning three hours prior to kickoff. Parking passes may not be picked up at media will-call and must be requested at least seven days prior to gameday to ensure delivery.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

All photographers must exchange their photo pass for a vest in order to be admitted to the sidelines. This may be done at the media "Will Call" table next to the press box elevators. Gameday flip cards will be available at that location.

Per NCAA rule, images or likeness of current student-athletes may not be sold, distributed or used for commercial purposes.

SIDELINE ACCESS

Excluding select portions of the game, media sideline access is reserved for photographers/videographers. Credentialed photographers/videographers who arrive at media "Will Call" without proper equipment will not be granted a vest for sideline access. When on the sideline, media must remain outside the bench area. This includes during pre-game activities.

RECRUITS

Per NCAA rule, media are not permitted to have contact with a prospect or family members of a prospect during their visit (official or unofficial), including prospects in attendance at practice or games. In addition, media are forbidden from videoing or photographing prospects during their visit. Media are also asked to make every effort to keep distance from prospects on campus, including at practice, during pre-game activities on the sidelines and in the stands.

REAL-TIME DATA RIGHTS

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgment of the University of Mississippi's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and your agreement to abide by any restrictions Ole Miss may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by Ole Miss may result in revocation of media credentials. Ole Miss reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet.

TELEPHONES

The Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field Press Box contains an adequate number of telephones for general use by visiting media. The telephones are available to all media outlets and are not reserved for any single outlet. Personal phones may be ordered at individual seats by contacting AT&T at 1-800-945-6500. Please alert the Athletics Media Relations office if you are ordering a phone so your press box seat location will correspond with the work order.

GAMEDAY SERVICES

Members of the media covering Ole Miss will be provided with pregame notes for both teams, a game program and a flipcard. Statistics and a running play-by-play will be handed out after each quarter.

Approximately 30 minutes following the completion of the game, complete team and individual stats, running play-by-play, postgame notes and quotes from players and coaches will be available.

WEEKLY PRESS CONFERENCE

Coach Hugh Freeze holds a weekly press conference each Monday during the season, beginning at 12:30 p.m. CT, in the team meeting room of the Indoor Practice Facility, which is adjacent to Vaught-Hemingway Stadium/Hollingsworth Field.

Members of the media unable to attend the Monday press conference may participate via the telephone. The number for the two-way teleconference may be obtained by contacting the Athletics Media Relations office at 662-915-7522.

SEC WEEKLY TELECONFERENCE

Coach Freeze will be available on the weekly Southeastern Conference Teleconference every Wednesday, beginning

COACH/PLAYER INTERVIEWS

During Game Week

Selected players will be available Monday following Coach Freeze's weekly press conference. All media interviews will be held in the team meeting room. Members of the media who wish to interview players on Monday MUST send their request by 3 p.m. CT Sunday to kyle@olemiss.edu.

Coach Freeze, assistant coaches and players will be available upon request after practice on Tuesday and Wednesday. Select assistant coaches will be available after practice Thursday.

Media may not contact current student-athletes directly under any circumstances.

After Games

For home games, Coach Freeze will hold a postgame press conference with the media in the team meeting room of the Indoor Practice Facility.

Athletics Media Relations office representatives will be available to assist in postgame interviews. Complete postgame plans will be announced on gameday in the press box by the Athletics Media Relations Director (MRD). The MRD will accompany members of the press wishing to go to the sidelines, beginning with five minutes remaining in the final quarter.

PRACTICES

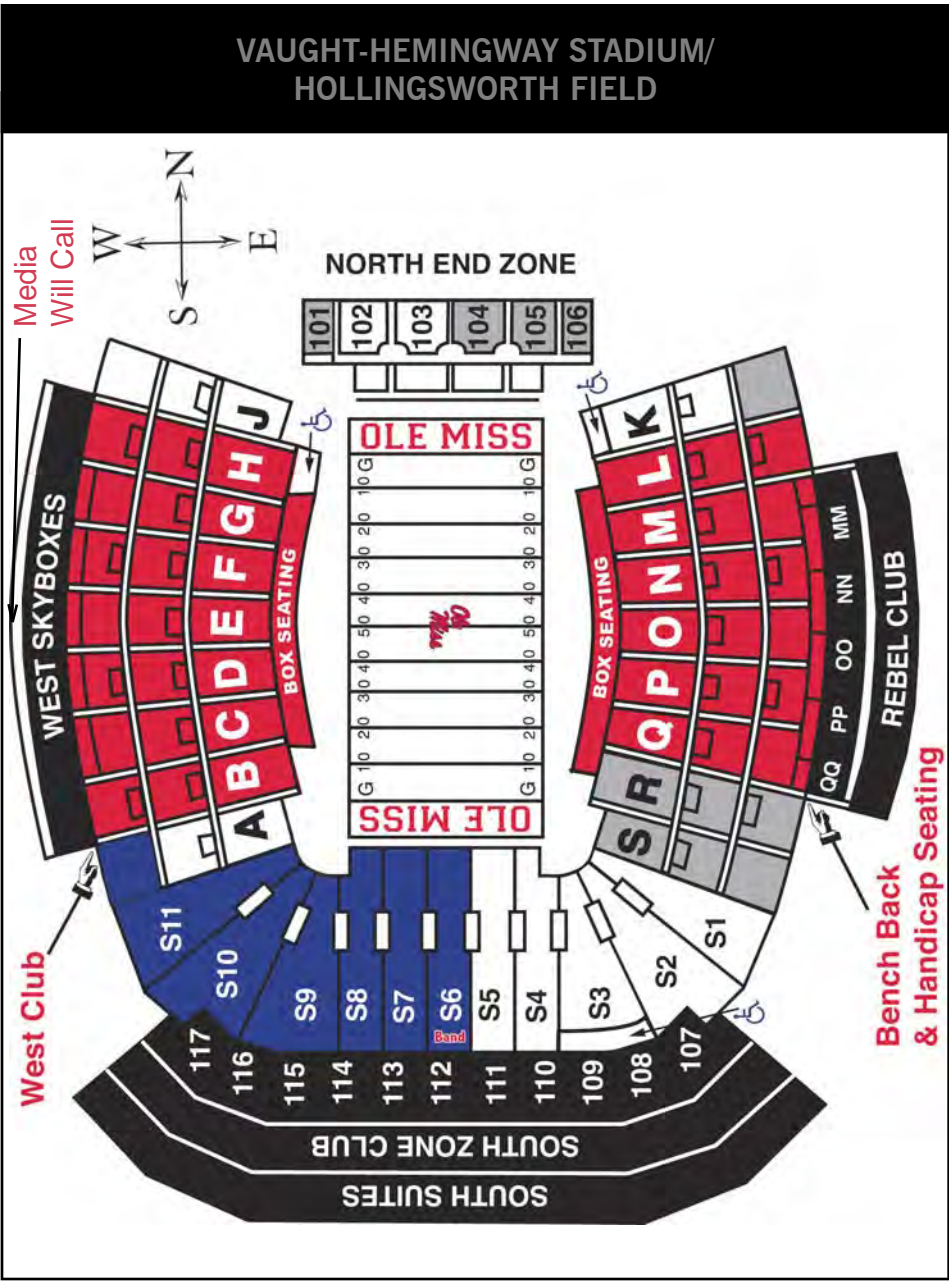

Media are forbidden from reporting (e.g. tweeting, blogging, etc.) on anything related to practice until after the post-practice interview with the head coach. This includes media who leave practice early.

Video is permitted for any drill during the pre-determined open periods that does not include offense vs. defense (i.e. 7-on-7, 11-on-11). Media may be alerted of other portions that are not available for video during practice. Videographers and photographers should use tight shots and avoid formations. Use of footage from practices must be limited to three minutes per day.

AUDIO/VIDEO

Ole Miss offers free FTP downloads of game highlights and interviews with coaches and players for television stations to use during regularly scheduled news/sportscasts. To access the Ole Miss FTP site, please contact Ole Miss Sports Productions at 662-915-5925.

Press conferences, media opportunities, practices and any form of competition may not be broadcast live without prior consent of the athletics department. Audio/video use

For those out of range of the Mississippi Network's radio broadcast, live audio of the game is available through OleMissSports.com's RebelVision, which also offers live webcasts of Coach Freeze's weekly press conferences. In addition, daily news and nuggets as well as in-game score updates are available on the official Twitter account of Ole Miss Football, @OleMissFB.

REBEL FOOTBALL ON THE AIR

Ole Miss fans can keep track of Rebel football this season by tuning into both radio and television this fall.

The "Reb Talk With Hugh Freeze" radio show gives fans the opportunity to ask Coach Freeze questions concerning Ole Miss Football. The talk show, hosted by David Kellum, airs every Tuesday during the season at 7 p.m., and will originate from Buffalo Wild Wings in Oxford. Check radio listings for availability in your area.

"The Season" is a weekly 30-minute show produced by Ole Miss Sports Productions. The award-winning show features an inside look at Rebel Football behind the scenes during team meetings, practices and team bus rides. It airs on stations throughout the Southeast. Check local cable and network affiliates for broadcast days and times in your viewing area.

Captain Bruiser Kinard's 1937 Ole Miss team made the first en masse flight by a college squad, flying from Memphis to Philadelphia on American Airlines flagship Maryland.

OLE MISS RADIO NETWORK

One of the most popular means of keeping track of Rebel Football is tuning in to the Ole Miss Radio Network. The Network offers first-rate broadcasts of every Rebel football game, including a 90-minute pregame show and extensive postgame coverage.

Ole Miss football may be heard throughout Mississippi and portions of the Southeast through services provided by IMG College in partnership with TeleSouth Communications Inc. In addition, every game can be heard worldwide over the Internet at www.OleMissSports.com, and on XM Satellite Radio.

"The Voice of the Rebels," David Kellum, returns for his 25th season handling the Ole Miss radio play-by-play call. The veteran broadcaster also serves as the play-by-play announcer for both Ole Miss basketball and baseball. In 1998, 2000, 2002, 2004, 2010 and 2011, Kellum was honored as the Mississippi Sportscaster of the Year, as voted on by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association members in the state. In August 2006, he received the "Lindsey Nelson Outstanding Sportscaster" award from the All-American Football Foundation.

Kellum's first link with Ole Miss Athletics was in 1978. As a 19-year-old freshman, he began broadcasting Rebel baseball, and has handled the baseball play-by-play for the past 33 seasons.

Kellum hosts Ole Miss' weekly radio shows for men's basketball and football. He is married to the former Mary Evelyn Kuehn of Oxford. They have two daughters, Stefanie Marie and Staci Michelle.

Harry Harrison, a former All-America selection at safety for the Rebels, provides the color commentary for the broadcast. A letterwinner from 1971-73, Harrison is President of Harry Harrison and Associates in Oxford, Mississippi. He is the father of two sons and a daughter — Nick, Josh and Lyndee.

Joining Kellum on the Ole Miss radio team is Stan Sandroni, who handles sideline reports and the Locker Room Show. Sandroni is in his 25th season with the Ole Miss Radio Network.

Sandroni is a sales representative for WQLJ-FM 93.7 in Oxford. He is also co-host of Rebel Yell Hotline. Sandroni has been named Mississippi Sportscaster of the Year eight times, most recently in 2008.

Sandroni is married to the former Glenda Marascalco of Grenada, Miss. The couple has one son, Christopher Paul.

Brett "Stats" Norsworthy enters his sixth season as co-host of the pregame and postgame show. Norsworthy began his radio career co-hosting Sportstime with George Lapides in September 1992 on WHBQ in Memphis and has remained a Memphis sports radio fixture throughout the following years. He has been all over the Memphis market hosting various shows with a number of different personalities.

In his radio career, Norsworthy has had the pleasure of covering the SEC beat extensively. He's also covered many of the nation's top sporting events as well as freelance reporting for major networks. He co-hosts "Fish N Stats" on AM 560 and FM 87.7 with Memphis Grizzlies sideline reporter Rob Fischer.

Richard Cross is the co-host of "Head to Head with Matt Wyatt and Richard Cross" on Super Talk Mississippi and a television play-by-play announcer for CSS and Fox Sports South. Cross has 14 years experience in radio and television and has launched two successful state-wide, syndicated sports talk radio shows in Mississippi.

Raised in Oxford, and a graduate of The University of Mississippi, Cross is the recipient of two Mississippi Association of Broadcasters Gold Awards and has worked for Fox Sports Radio and the Sporting News Radio Network.

Cross is married to the former Jane Easley of Clarksdale, a pharmacist at The University of Mississippi. The couple has two children, Ava Montgomery and Oby and a dog, Chloe.

Rounding out the broadcast team is Houston McDavitt, engineer/producer. McDavitt has worked with the radio broadcast for 10 years in a technical role and has been in broadcast engineering for 16 years. This is his fifth year as game engineer/producer for Ole Miss football. He is Director of Engineering for Telesouth Communications and lives in Brandon with his wife, Laura. McDavitt has two sons, Thomas and Watson.

ON AIR WITH THE REBELS

The "Reb Talk With Hugh Freeze" radio show and the weekly television program are distributed by IMG College in partnership with TeleSouth Communications.

The radio show is a weekly one-hour live radio broadcast that allows fans the opportunity to hear from Coach Freeze and other staff about Ole Miss Football. The show will air every Tuesday during the season at 7 p.m., live from Buffalo Wild Wings in Oxford.

REBELS ON TELEVISION

Ole Miss was one of the first football programs in the Southeastern Conference, as well as the nation, to have a game broadcast on television.

On Nov. 13, 1948, WMCT-TV in Memphis, Tenn., telecast the Ole Miss-Tennessee game from Crump Stadium in the "Bluff City."

The game, won by the Rebels, was reported to be the first football game televised from the Mid-South.

The Rebels' first network televised football game was in the 1952 season when they faced Georgia Tech in the 1953 Sugar Bowl on ABC-TV.

Since then, Ole Miss has appeared on 216 regional and national telecasts, and on every major sports network, including ABC, CBS, FOX, NBC, ESPN, ESPN2, ESPNU, FOX Sports Net and CSS.

The Southeastern Conference and ESPN have signed a 20-year agreement through 2034 to create and operate a multi-platform network, which will launch in August 2014.

The new network and its accompanying digital platform will air SEC content 24/7 including more than 1,000 events in its first year.

The network will televise approximately 45 SEC football games. Programming will also include studio shows, original content such as SEC Storied, spring football games, signing day and pro days coverage. The network and its digital extensions will connect with each SEC institution and create opportunities for each school to produce and develop content.

Eight of the Rebels' 13 televised games in 2012 were seen by a national audience. The Rebels appeared on ESPN and ESPNU three times, including against two-time defending national champion, Alabama. Ole Miss also appeared on CBS twice.

The Rebels' history on television has been a storied one. The memorable 1969 Ole Miss-Alabama game, which had national record-setting performances by Rebel quarterback Archie Manning and Tide signal caller Scott Hunter, was the first college game televised at night.

Ole Miss has compiled a 96-119-2 record in television games, and 123 of the telecasts have been to national audiences. The first Rebel game to be televised in color was the 1960 Sugar Bowl when Ole Miss shut out LSU 21-0.
